DEATHS

Mrs. Lucy Rebecca Greenwood, wife of the well-known auctioneer, Mr. John H. Greenwood, died at her home on Cannon street Monday, after an illness of one week, aged 74. The deceased was a Miss Burgess, of near Rock Hall, and was a lover of home. Seldom seen in the public walks of life, yet she wielded a wholesome influence among her children, and proved a kind neighbor, a faithful wife and a sacrificing mother. She was of a cheerful disposition and radiated sunshine to all who came under her influence. She leaves a husband and four sons, William Henry, James A., Benjamin W., John Franklin, and four daughters, Mrs. Lucy R. Robertson, Mrs. Ava Davis, Mrs. J. Hylie Thompson, Mrs. Emma E. Vanetta. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 3 30 p. m., conducted by Rev. D. L. Greenfield; interment in Chester cemetery; C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were Elwood Burgess, D. W. Crosby, James Burgess, Vachel Burgess, Edward Leary, Samuel Burgess.

Mr. Alfred L. Coleman, a highly respected citizen of Piney Neck, died suddenly Monday morning of heart trouble. Mr. Coleman had been feeling poorly for some weeks prior to his death. He was 73 years old. The deceased leaves a widow, Margaret Coleman, and three daughters, Mrs. Edward Brady, of Piney Neck; Mrs. Thomas Coleman, of Washington, D. C; Mrs. Alfred Delomne, also of Washington. The funeral was held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at Wesley Chapel, conducted by Rev. Mr. Prettyman, interment in cemetery adjoining. The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. Henry Thompson, William Coleman, Edward Brady, Harry Thompson, Harry Perry and John E. Hadaway. Chas. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Katherine Rickards, wife of Mr. Atwood Rickards, of near Still Pond, died on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Caleb Jarvis, in Pikesville, Baltimore county, after a short illness, aged 55 years. The deceased leaves, beside her husband, a son, Mr. Harry Rickards, and a daughter, Mrs. Caleb Jarvis; two brothers, County Commissioner John N. Bennett, and James Bennett, and five sisters, Mrs. J. L. Smyth, Mrs. E. E. Hudson, Mrs. W. H. Krusen, Mrs. Bolton and Mrs. Shallcross. The funeral was held Tuesday at 1 30 p. m., Rev. Mr. Nicols officiating; interment in Still Pond cemetery.

Miss Catherine R Merritt, 85 years old, died Monday morning at her home 2202 Oak street, Baltimore, of the infirmities of age. Miss Merritt was born on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and was the daughter of Benjamin and Eliza Jane Black Merritt and came from one of the oldest families of Kent county. She was the last of a family of five brothers and three sisters. William K. and George Merritt, two of the most prominent grain dealers of Baltimore in the early sixties, and Rev. James B. Merritt, were her brothers. She was one of the few living daughters of the War of 1812, and was connected with the Hansom, Groome, Cadwalder and Ringgeld families. Col. Isaac Perkins and Col. George Black were her great grandfathers The former was known as the Flaming Patriot of the Revolutionary War and one of the delegation sent to sign the Constitution of the United States.

The remains were forwarded to Shrewsbury, Md., for burial in the Shrewsbury Protestant Episcopal Church. The services were conducted by the Rev. George W. Darn of Baltimore.

Mrs. Annie E. Heinfield died at her home in Piney Neck Tuesday, aged 61. She leaves a husband, Herman, and the following children: John H., August G., William and Mrs Wm. Mercer. The funeral took place Thursday interment in Wesley cemetery, Rev. A. C. Smith officiating; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The body of Mr. Godfrey Westcott, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Westcott, arrived here via New York Sunday evening. It was embalmed and shipped in a hermetically sealed casket weighing 1500 pounds, according to the legal requirements of the country where he died. The American consul, in a kind letter to Mr. G. B. Westcott, stated that if the body was interred in Venezuela the law would not permit its being exhumed for ten years.

The funeral was held in Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, on Monday morning at 10.30 o'clock, Dr. Henry B. Martin in charge, the interment being made in Chester cemetery; undertaker, C. L. Dodd. The pall-bearers were E. F. Perkins, L. W. Wickes, T. W. Perkins, F. B. Hines, H. G. Simpers, Frank V. Simpers, H. W. Vickers, Allan A. Harris, Paul Massey, H. L. Lemon, J. G. Westcott, Thomas Massey, Kennard Aloridge, Robert Gill,

The deceased was 33 years of age and loved adventure and early in life went many miles from home in his quest for pleasure and position, and was not afraid or ashamed to put his hand to any task, no matter how hazardous or how menial. And these matchless qualities earned for him the position of trust which he held at his death. For six years he has been the superintendent of the New York and Berdez Co., at Guanoca, Venezuela, a branch of the General Asphalt Co., in which position he had the utmost confidence of his employers and was making a great success there.

The company was working a lake of asphalt some miles from the office, and it was while on his way to this lake that Mr. Westcott met with the accident which resulted in his death. He was on his track motor and at a curve in the road met the company's train coming toward the office. No notice had been sent of the approaching train, and the collision threw him to the side of the track. His physician advised his removal, after a thorough examintion, to the Colonial Hospital at Port of Spain, Trinidad, which was done. A special steamer was chartered and he was taken over to Trinidad. It was found that he was suffering from laceration of the spinal cord and other internal injuries. He was perfectly conscious and said he felt only a numbness. Nine days after the accident he died with loving friends, made in that distant clime at his bedside. The sad death of Mr. Westcott has awakened the sympathy of this community toward his parents and family.

BIG motor cycle race at Chestertown Fair Grounds on Saturday Sept. 9

A HORSE was killed on Wednesday by lightning on the Harrison farm, near Crumpton It belonged to Mr. Grover C. Woodall and was a fine driver.

WEDDING NOTES

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Davies 618 Fulton ave, Balto., was the scene of a pretty wedding at 2 30 o'clock Thursday. The participants were Miss Mary Naomi Davies, formerly of Kent, an attractive and accomplished young lady, and Mr. J. Waters Russell, the well known broker and President of the Kent County Land Co. The bride wore a dainty dress of blue silk with black hat trimmed with lace and carried bride's roses. Her attendant was the pretty Miss Elizabeth Barwick who wore a blue silk dress with black picture hat and carried a shower bouquet. Mr. Wm. Frazier Russell was best man and Miss Louise Russell played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry A. Griesemer, of the Baptist Church. After the ceremony the bridal couple left for a trip North. They will reside on High street, Chestertown.

Among those present from Chestertown were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Russell and two daughters, Mrs A. M. Culp, Miss Lottie Russell, Mrs. Fannie Wheatley, Jos. N. Wheatley, W. F. Russell, Jr., and Mrs. C. C. Jones.

FARM NOTES

Interesting Items Picked Up Here And There About The Country Fields —Maryland Wheat Up To $1.54 And Western Up To $1.60 Corn 94 Cents.

Potatoes brought $1 10 per bushel yesterday.

Mr. Miller Strong has a fine patch of tomatoes He pulled 25 tomatoes which completely filled a basket.

Mr. Lonnie Stevens had in 160 acres of wheat and got over 4,000 bushels, but is having difficulty in delivering it.

The Thomas farm in Broad Neck, owned by the Kent Land Co., will be tenanted by Mr. Norris C. Crew, next year.

Mr. George Hatcherson picked 20 tons of tomatoes off his 4-acre patch last week. He went over it again Tuesday and got 700 baskets. Who can beat this?

Mr. Romie Skirven says he picked 5 baskets of peaches from his orchard which is the sum total of his crop. He has decided to pull up his trees and grow potatoes or some other crop.

A farmer in Worton began digging his 15 acres of potatoes Monday. He sold at Worton Station for $1 per bushel! His crop is estimated at 250 to 300 bushels per acre.

Capt. H. W. Hadaway, from the Caccaway farm, Broad Neck, belonging to Mrs. S. M. Usilton, for the second picking from a ten acre patch of tomatoes, shipped about 19 tons of tomatoes as pretty as ever grew.

Mr. A. S. Crouch has had erected a cozy little house on his farm near Lankford, which will be occupied by Mr. William Winchester, who will tenant his farm next year. Contractor A. M. Kendall, of Fairlee, did the building.

Mr. Elmer Atwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Atwell, has taken up the work on the farm with vigor and is to be congratulated He had 145 acres of wheat which yielded about 15 bushels to the acre which he sold Tuesday at the top of the market, viz, $1 46

A telegram from Pittsburg Tuesday says: Hogs reached $11.40 a 100 in the market here today, $3 higher than for the corresponding day of last year. Increased consumption and decreased production were assigned by packing companies as the cause of the high prices.

The apple and pear crops are smallest this season than for many years, notwithstanding the fact that there were no frosts in the early spring sufficient to kill the fruit. Not a carload of any of these fruits have been shipped from here this season, and according to reports of leading growers there will not be.

As an evidence of the fertility of Rich Neck farms read the following from the Queen Annes farm demonstrator: "I would like to describe here my work over the county with Prof. Schmitz on Thursday when we visited Mr. Chas. McKee, Mr. H. H. Klinefelter, Foster Parker, Sam Seney, Jack Turpin, H. Hulin, and The Hermitage; also my trip on Friday down the Eastern Shore where I nowhere found better crops than are now growing there."

Baltimore faces serious touble over its milk supply, similiar to that which New York is having, and it may be that the outcome will be either an increase in price or a dangerous decrease in supply. Tuesday nearly 100 milk shippers from Carroll and Harford counties with some from Baltimore cuunty, gathered at the Rennert and after stating to representative local milk dealers that they are losing money at present, proposed that the dealers increase their prices 4 cents a gallon, which 2 cents would go to the dealers and 2 cents to the shippers. No decision was made and another meeting will be held next Tuesday in Odd Fellow's Temple. Kent county farmers will watch these proceedings with interest.

Sales of No. 2 red Western wheat were made at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at $1 60 a bushel. This is the top price for this grade of wheat on the present crop movement and the fact that the demand was fairly active at the advance indicates that the extreme price may not yet have been reached. Between 30,000 and 40,000 bushels brought this high price. Other lots of the same grade sold earlier at $1.58½. Exporters were said to have been the buyers and they are constantly in the market for all the available wheat.

While the market was at its top No. 2 red wheat brought from $1 53 to $1 54 a bushel. This grade comes from the nearby sections, much of it from the Maryland farms. This will be cheerful news for those local farmers who have not yet sold their crops.

Embargoes which have been placed on grain by the railroads serving Baltimore are a check to the freer movement of this trade. Practically all the roads have embargoes in some form or other now in force. The effect of this is to limit the buying in the West, which most of the Baltimore exporters have done freely in the past. On the outlook for the railroads in the grain and general merchandise movement, an official of one of the leading systems said they will be called upon to move this autumn and winter the greatest tonnages of freight ever offered, and their facilities will be taxed to the very utmost. It is to the advantage of all the business interests that their managements be aided by prompt unloading of cars carrying commodities Hundreds of thousands of tons of freight can be added daily to the movement by the prompt release of the cars.
