Local Notes

THE Kent schools will reopen Monday, Sept. 11th.

W. R. MAUL would likely take the prize for dalhas, especially if height entered into it.

THE School Commissioners have kindly loaned the school lot on Calvest st. for the Chautauqua. Victor's Band arrives Tuesday.

THE Holt Construction Co., of Denton, has been awarded the contract to build the State Aid Road between Church Hill and Sudlersville.

THE contract to build an entirely new set of buildings on the new division of Swan Point farm has been awarded Stavely & Bowers. Work will be commenced at once.

H. H. LEGG, on Flatland, had four acres in white potatoes which brought him in a thousand dollars! The "Potato King," Mr. E A. Corey has one of the best paying crops he ever had.

THE sale of Messrs. Graham & Thomas advertised in this paper last week, was largely attended and the things sold brought good prices. Other personal sales have been well attended and fair prices realized.

ONE of the biggest crops of Barlett pears in Kent is that now being shipped by Capt. Edw. W. Emory. He expects about 4,000 baskets, all of which are being put in cold storage. The present market price is $1.25 per basket.

P. M. BROOKS is having a large and convenient body put on his recently purchased truck. Davis & Satterfield are doing the work. J. Webster McIntyre sold his Ford touring car to Messrs. Bacon & Hackett, and expects to purchase a new one in a few days.

IN another column will be found the Tolchester Co.'s new schedule. On and after Tuesday the Fall schedule will be in effect. Steamers will leave Baltimore daily at 3 P. M., except Saturday when there will be two trips to Tolchester leaving Baltimore at 7 and 2 30, leaving Tolchester at 9 and 4 30 p. m.

THE cheapest entertainment as well as the most refined and wholesome is that furnished by Chautauqua. The season ticket is $2 and even if only one half the entertainments are enjoyed it will be economy to buy a season ticket. These tickets are transferable, you can loan your ticket to a friend some afternoon or some evening when you cannot attend. Get ready for 7 joyous days next week.

WHILE on its way from Baltimore to Philadelphia, the steamer Ericsson, of the Baltimore and Philadelphia Steam boat Company, struck a sunken obstruction in the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, near Lorewood Grove, at 1.30 a. m. Saturday. The vessel sank to the bottom of the canal with about two feet of water in its hold. On board the Ericsson at the time were about 65 passengers, who were aroused from their slumber. They were obliged to take the train at St. George's to r ach their destination.

DURING the numerous severe storms of Sunday night lightning struck a stack on Mr. Thomas G. Wroth's Jump farm near Fairlee, which is tenanted by Mr. Howard Reese. The stack was destroyed. Some of the lights on Washington avenue were also put out of commission, while a severe hailstorm prevailed at Rock Hall, the worst in years. Mr. Geo. Hendrickson's corn was damaged while just across the road the corn was not hurt. Other places in Broad Neck the same way. Mr. Walter H. Hadaway's silo was damaged; Thos. Clothier's barn was struck and a horse stunned; Neal Wilson's corn and Merritt Thompson's corn also hurt by hail and other damage done in lower Kent by Sunday night's storm.

ONE of the best crops of wheat so far heard of in Kent was that of Mr. James Archibald. near Kennedyville, who threshed 2700 bushels from 90 acres.

THE Smith Bros. in lower Kent have treated their hogs with serum to ward off the cholera.

A COW-TESTING association has been formed in Kent with 27 members owning 430 cows. The president is Isaac Gibbs; vice-president, Wm. G. Smyth; secretary and treasurer, John N. Bennett. Board of managers will consist of the officers and Chas. E. Clendaniel, J. B. Hossinger, W. Holt Woodall and W. T. Morris. A tester recommeded by the Goverment will be named. Every dairyman in Kent is expected to join this important branch of the industry. Tests will be made of individual record, amount of fat and amount of feed.

Cows sold from $88 to $138 50 at Mr. H. M. Baker's sale Monday.

THERE are 20 prisoners in Kent jail. Sheriff Hadaway took two young white men to House of Correction Monday charged with vagrancy, two colored men convicted with carying concealed weapons and one for disorderly conduct. The latter five were sent from the first district.

The ladies of the town visited the hall and prepared a royal set out to the members of the order, and visitors which numbered 157 and same was highly appreciated by all present. The Special District Deputy Grand Master now has under consideration the holding of another Rally the later part of October, and contemplates to make Massey Lodge second to none on the Eastern Shore of Maryland also to make this a banner year for our Grand Master E. J. C. Parsons, of Salisbury, Md.

Lady Eglantine is Dead.

Lady Eglantine, the hen with a certified record of 314 eggs in 365 days—the best record in all the world so far as can be ascertained—died at her home, near Greensboro, on one of the places of Mr. A. A. Christian on August 6th. Her affliction was heart trouble, as ascertained after an examination was made. The body was taken to Philadelphia and a taxidermist restored it to nearly lifelike appearance. Lady Eglantine enjoyed a world-wide fame.

Mrs. Thomas Britton spent last week in Philadelphia.

Miss Helen Numbers is visiting friends and relatives in Baltimore.

TOURNAMENT AT CHESTERTOWN

Not to the knowledge of some of the oldest inhabitants of Chestertown has there ever been a tournament held here. The prospects are for a good number of Knights from all over the Eastern Shore contest for the gold money prizes which are all worth while. A more appropriate or prettier spot cannot be found any place for horsemanship and knighthood to be exhibited, than at Radcliffe Park, overlooking the beautiful Chesterr river. And last but not least the crowning of the Queen of Love Beauty.

Any one wishing to spend a pleasant afternoon mingling with and meeting their friends should not fail to attend the tournament on the 12th inst.

J. H. CLENDANIEL, JR, has received 2 carloads of Overland cars at Kennedyville. In the shipment is one model 85-6, which is the fourth car of this model shipped east of Toledo. It sells for $925.

The Johns Hopkins University

ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS

State Scholarships in Engineering Courses.

ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS for the Department of Engineering, as well as for the College of Arts and Sciences, will be held in the Academic Building of the Johns Hopkins University, Homewood, Baltimore, September 18 21, 1916, beginning at 9 A M. each day.

Application for Scholarships in the Department of Engineering, established in the Johns Hopkins University under the provisions of the Laws of Maryland, Chapter 90, 1912, may now be made. If there is more than one applicant for a particular scholarship, a competitive examination must be taken in the Academic Building, Homewood, on September 22, 1916, beginning at 9 A. M.

Each County of the State and each Legislative District of Baltimore City with the exception of Charles, Harford and Queen Anne's counties, will be entitled to one or more scholarships for the year 1916 17, in addition to those which have already been assigned. In the three counties mentioned above all the available scholarships have been awarded.

Under the provisions of the Act of Assembly, the County and City scholarships in the Department of Engineering are awarded only to deserving students whose financial circumstances are such that they are unable to obtain an education in Engineering unless free tuition be granted to them. The scholarships entitle the holders to free tuition, free use of text-books, and exemption from all regular fees. The expenses of attendance for those who do not receive scholarships is no greater than at other Maryland institutions.

Scholarships may be awarded to graduates of Loyola College, Maryland Agricultural College, Mt. St. Mary's College, Rock Hill College, St. John's College, Washington College and Western Maryland College, and one scholarship will be awarded "At Large"

Applicants should address the Registrar, The Johns Hopkins University, for blank forms of application and for further information as to examinations, award of scholarships, and courses of instruction. aug26 4t
