DEATHS

Mrs. Amanda M. Edwards, widow of Joseph E Edwards, died at her home on High street Wednesday, aged 83. For many months the deceased had been confined to her bed but she never murmured nor complained and bore with remarkable patience her malady. The deceased was a wonderful woman going about doing all the good she could in her way. She was the originator of several cures in the way of ointments and salves and believed in them with great faith. She loved to be a help to all in need and like the bible character "did what she could." She leaves five grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Sam'l Vannort.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon in Christ M. P. Church, of which she was a devoted member, Dr. D. L. Greenfield officiating. The interment took place in Chester Cemetery, C. L. Dodd undertaker, the bearers being Jesse H. and L. Jefferson Usilton, Walter U. Lusby, C. R. Skirven, Robert G. and W. T. Nicholson.

After an illness of about one month, Samuel H. Mifflin died at his residence in Camden, Delaware, September 2, and interment was made in Odd Fellows cemetery, that town, September 5. Mr. Mifflin for a number of years had been a frequent visitor here in the interest of a Wilmington insurance concern, which he represented. A widow and one daughter survive him.

Charles C. Coleman died in Rock Hall Thursday after a long illness, aged 27. He leaves a father, William H., one brother, Frank M., of Phila. The funeral will take place this Saturday at 10 30 A. M., at St. John's Catholic Church; Interment in Catholic Cemetery, Father Urner officiating; C. L. Dodd, Undertaker. The bearers were: Messrs. John P. Wilson, Thomas and Joseph Gladski, Thos. Conner, Bennett Rich and Wm. Dempsey.

John F. Melvin, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Melvin died in Smyrna August 31. The funeral was held Saturday, Rev. H. B. Jester officiating; C. L. Dodd undertaker. Interment in Chester Cemetery.

Daniel W. Crew, son of the late Alex. Crew, of Chestertown, died Wednesday last at the Cambridge hospital. He was 56 years of age and leaves one sister and two brothers. The funeral will be held this afternoon from the home of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Rash, Worton, at 2 30. Interment in Still Pond cemetery, W. H. Krusen, undertaker; Rev. T. F. Beauchamp officiating.

PROF. GOODING DEAD

Taken suddenly ill while eating dinner, Prof. William Lambert Gooding, who has occupied the chair of Philosophy and Education at Dickinson College for 18 years, died of heart disease at his home in Carlisle, Monday afternoon. Dr. Gooding was born in Galena, Md., in 1851, and was graduated from Dickinson College in 1874. He taught in the Wilmington Conference Academy, at Dover, Del., and studied later at Harvard, Goettingen, Leipzig and Heidelberg. He was instructor at Wesleyan University, 1881-1882, and principal of the Wilmington Conference Academy, 1882-1898. Since that time he had been at Dickinson College. He was an uncle of Miss Jeanette Gooding, of Chestertown.

FINE HOME PURCHASED

The Pearce homestead on corner Front and Cannon streets has been sold by Mrs. M. C. Ringgold to Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Catlin. The transfer took place this week. Mr. Catlin is a native of Chestertown but is located in a business way in Mexico. He has bought this property for a home. The price is said to have been around $4,000.

A TIDAL WAVE OF PROSPERITY

Chestertown Citizens Find Plenty of Work at Home at Good Wages—Carpenters And Laborers in Demand—Fifty Girls And Women Wanted For Work in Factory.

Chestertown is enjoynig an unprecedented industrial wave. Work is so plentiful that contractors find it difficult to find men to complete their undertakings while wages have advanced along many lines.

To Mrs. Joseph A. Wickes is due congratulations for aiding in a substantial way to help make this boom. She first removed an unsightly building at the foot of High street and constructed on the lot a nobby home for Prof. Mark Creasy. Next she bought the lot on Water street, adjoining Mr. Thos. G. Wroth's residence, on which contractor C. W. Price is building a modern home to be occupied by Mrs. Jennie Y. Vickers.

The biggest venture followed in the purchase of the Spencer property on corner of Cannon and Princess streets. The Dr. Power's home next year will probably be removed further back on a court and approached from Cannon street by flower lined road-way.

On the corner a splendid home is nearing completion and will be occupied by the manager of the pants factory. This latter is expected to be one of the biggest industries in the town. Already foundations have been laid for a building 33x150 feet fronting on Cannon street and the lot on the rear of Jefferson Bros., to be used by the Goldman Bros., of Baltimore. Sixty or more girls and women will be wanted to operate the machines, and we are assured by this firm that they can earn good salaries and the work will be very simple. This factory it is hoped will fill a long felt want in Chestertown.

On the lot adjoining the factory a modern double dwelling is being built to be occupied by Mr. Wm. Speilberger and family and Mr. Hopkins and family. Other dwellings will be erected by Mrs. Wickes.

The rebuilding of William Smith Hall and heating plant at Washington College is calling for scores of men and many boys and men have been employed cleaning bricks at $1.50 per day. Carpenters and laborers are in demand there.

W. S. & A. M. Culp's men are at work remodeling and improving the house on Chester river recently occupied by Mr. Harris and family.

The Peerless Fertilizer Co. have finished the big addition to their plant on Chester river and are running a big force in manufacturing their brands.

A big porch has been erected to the High street side of the Custom House and the interior transposed into an apartment house with baths, &c., Wm. T. Duyer and Albert Rawleigh doing the work.

Mr. Frank E. Duyer is completing two modern dwellings on Queen street.

Capt. T. H. Pfeffer is occupying his new home on Cannon street which was completed this summer.

The elegant new Methodist Episcopal brick parsonage on Spring avenue, being erected by Walter T. Pippin, is about under roof and adds much to the beauty of that part of the town.

Then there are the two new houses on Queen street extended, being erected by Stavely & Bowers for Messrs. David B. Ford and Jesse Medders, and other improvements in different sections of the town making busy times for all who want to be employed.

As an evidence of the prosperity of old Kent one need but watch the farmers and citizens as he rides by in his auto to be convinced. Another index of prosperity are the deposit totals in the banks. They will amount to two millions and a quarter!
