ROCK HALL

A number of our residents were treated to a fire scare on Wednesday night of last week. At about 9.30 the cry of fire rang out on the night's quietness, people ran out of their homes looking for the source of fire. Mr. Blaustein got the M. E. Church bell in commission. Others buckled on their fire extinguishers and when the fire was located it proved to be in control of the High school janitor who was burning out a huge hornets nest in a tree back of the school building. After relief of minds and a laugh everybody returned to their homes thankful that the alarm was false.

The grim monster death has snuffed out the life of a number of persons in this section the past week. Among them being our most worthy and highly esteemed friend, Mr. Isaac L. Leary, who died Sunday A. M. A splendid citizen and neighbor has left us.

Mr. Carroll, of Eastern Neck, died on Friday. He was a fine gentleman whom every one loved.

Mr. Millard Carter, a victim of typhoid fever, was taken to the Md, General Hospital on Saturday last for treatment.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered at the M. E Church on Sunday morning. Mr. Joseph Downey and Miss Anna M. Ayres blazed the way with an inspiring song, followed by brief but highly instructive remarks by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Prettyman, from the text, "This do in Remembrance of Me." Although the congregation was less than the average, about 50 partook of the elements.

Mr. Wm. H. Temple, of Church Hill, State President of the Maryland Patriotic Order Sons of America, accompanied by Dist. Pres., Alwyn Hanson Stavely, of Lynch, Past Dist. Pres., J. F. Wheatley, of Chestertown, and J. C. Catlin, of Church Hill, officially visited Camp 37 P. O. S. of A. of this place on last Friday evening. After the transaction of routine business the visitors entertained royally with addresses of appropriate character, full of splendid suggestions and advise, all of which was well received by the membership present. Mr. Stavely, though a young man 26 years of age, manifests a hustling propensity which gives promise of something doing in the work of Dist. 22. It goes without saying, the State President's choice of deputy for this district is a wise one, and this is no reflection on the service of the Past Dist. Pres. Wheatley. He was O. K. too.

The exodus of families of this section still continues. High wages in other parts and Baltimore's unfair dealing with our produces, is responsible.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Downey, of the City, are spending a season with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Downey.

Our friend, W. W. Clayton, of Chester, Pa., was among us on Sunday.

Capt. B. F. Sewell made his first trip of oysters for this season this week and treated his bugeye Bedworth to a new suit of sails. This is the third suit the vessel has had since Capt. Sewell has owned her. The first suit cost $90, the second suit $110 and the present suit $200. There has been no difference in the size whatever, of spars, booms or otherwise.

South Main street has spruced up in appearance by the illumination and activity at the C. F. Wheatley stand.

Inquiry being made regarding aged inhabitants of the county, this part can name Mrs. Hague, 95; Mrs Ayres, 90; Mrs. Coleman, 84; Capt. Downey, 85. Johnson, a colored man, 100.

STILL POND

Miss Parrot is visiting her friend Miss Verince Bowers, of Worton, Md.

Mrs. Louise J. Thibodeau, of Waterbury, Conn., spent last Friday and Saturday with her sister, Miss Inez Russell in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parr's.

Mrs. L. E. Birch and sister, Mrs. G. L. Norris, have returned to their home here for the winter months.

Miss Margaret Harper, of Baltimore, Md., is visiting her friend, Mrs. W. G. Rasin.

Mr. A. J. Hackett and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Jewell, spent several days of the past week in Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Carl T. Norris has returned home after a two week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Harry Wheeler at Baltimore, Md.

Linsey Severson has returned to his home in Baltimore, Md, after a week's visit with his grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Warren.

KENT COUNTY State roads are serving as object lessons to officials all over the United States. One writer from Pennsylvania says they are like velvet! Last week Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, in charge of the public road construction, and Austin Fletcher, consulting engineer of the department, and chief highways engineer for California, were conveyed over the state's improved highways in Kent and on the Eastern Shore and this week officials from New Jersey have inspected our roads. The samples we have are all right but we want more.

DEATHS

Isaac Lassell Leary, son of George and Mary Ann (Simms) Leary, was born on the Bates farm, near Wesley Chapel Church, December 28, 1840. At the end of 1841 his parents moved to the Reese farm, where the family remained until the end of the year 1844. At the beginning of the year 1845 the family moved to the small farm near Edesville, which is now owned by Mr. Samuel Kilbourne. At that time boys were taught to work very young, and from childhood until 1859, Isaac being the fourth oldest of a family of eleven children, did his share of work on the home farm.

In 1859 he was employed as clerk in the general merchandise business of Columbus A. Leary, and later became a partner in this business, where he was engaged for about eighteen years. On December 28, 1871, he married Miss E. Virginia Maslin. The marriage ceremony was performed at the M. P. Parsonage by Rev. W. M. Strayer.

In 1877 he was compelled to discontinue his partnership in the merchandise business on account of ill health, and went home on the farm which he had bought a few years before, and which up to this time he had been renting.

Mr. Leary affiliated himself with neither party and, in fact, within the last year or two very often failed to cast his vote at the election. He was one of the very few who believed that the man most competent to fill the offices should receive the vote of the people, whether he be a Democrat or Republican.

Only two months ago he was stricken with heart disease, which continued to grow worse until th time of his death, Sunday, September 17, 1916, at 11.40 o'clock in the morning. Besides a widow, the following children survive him: Mrs. Harvey W. Dickinson, Centreville, Md.; William E. Leary, Miss Susie E. Leary, A. Leonard Leary, all of Rock Hall.

The funeral services were held at his late residence Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. W. Johnson, assisted by Rev. A. C. Smith and Rev. A. P. Prettyman. The pallbearers were Messrs. James Leary, Oregon Leary, Elmer E. Leary, Columbus Blackiston, Walter H. Hadaway, Marion T. Miller. Thomas Casey had charge of the funeral arrangements.

GRANGE ACTIVITIES

The Kent Pomona Grange will meet at Galena on Saturday, Oct. 28. This is the time for annual election of officers and a good attendance of all Grangers is desired.

A Special meeting of the Chestertown Grange No. 248 will be held next Thursday evening at 7 30 p. m. State Master Black, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Dykes and Mrs. Hopkins will be be present. A very interesting entertainment and profitable meeting is in prospect and hope for a full attendance. You will be well repaid for coming out in force. All grangers are cordially invited.

The Worton Grange will meet next Monday evening to make further arrangements about the tournament.

The services of the day will be of a special character and all members and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Katie (Orem) Bordley, of Baltimore, delighted the congregation of Christ M. P. Church at both the morning and evening service with a solo. She has a strong voice of wonderful range and effectiveness. She was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas S. Smith.

THE heirs of the late T. Romie Strong are considering several fine offers for their farm, known as "Belle View." This valuable estate is most beautifully located on Lankford's Bay and Chester river, and is noted for its fertile, productive land, all in the highest state of cultivation. It will be to the interest of anyone wishing to purchase a beautiful and valuable property to consult Mr. Wm. R. Strong, the present manager of the estate.

Order of Publication

vs.
Beulah F. Newsome.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County In Equity. No. 1970.

THE object of the Bill is to procure a decree for a Divorce a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:

1. That in or about January 23rd, 1900, John T. Newsome was married to his wife, Buelah F. Newsome, with whom he resided in Kent county until the year nineteen hundred and ten.

2. That though the conduct of your Orator towards his wife the said Beulah F. Newsome has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Beulah F. Newsome without any just cause or reason abandoned and deserted him and has declared her intention to live with him no longer and that such abandonment has continued for at least three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of a reconciliation.

3. That your Orator and the said defendant have had three children born to them from this marriage, all of whom are now living with your Orator.

It is thereupon this 22nd day of September 1916, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent County in Equity, that the Plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 23rd day of October next, giving notice to the said Beulah F. Newsome, non-resident defendant, warning her to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor on or before the 8th day of November next, to show cause, if any she has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
