THE STORE THAT GETS THE NEW STYLES FIRST

When you come to Baltimore to shop—as you probably do at intervals during the year—you will naturally feel safest in the store whose stocks are always fresh.

It is a matter of pride with us——and a matter of principle as well—not to allow old-style or shopworn merchandise to accumulate.

Periodically, we hold special sales in which this merchandise is disposed of at ridiculously low prices. We would rather give it away than permit it to remain in stock.

As a result, whatever is shown to you as new at Hochschild, Kohn & Co's is new.

The woman who does not keep in close touch with the styles can buy here with perfect safety—and our people will be glad to give helpful advice and assistance to anyone who is in doubt as to what to choose.

THE AUTO-CRAT

WRITTEN FOR KENT NEWS BY F. H. RUTH, GALENA

The old gray mare was once my pride as I drove down the pike;
That bobtailed nag of neighbor Brown's would always have to hike
Along about three twenty-five to give me any dust;
But that I'd never mind a bit—I always "Come out fust."

But that was 'fore I got the craze—She's back there "in the woods;"
She can't keep up with the parade—She can't "hand out the goods"
I do not care to drive her more, She's not the latest mode;
She's thrust aside forever from the "middle of the road."

Now, when I go to Chestertown to visit the "KENT NEWS"
Or turn my face toward Delaware to hit a little booze,
I hustle out to my garage—fill up with gasoline
Then 'bid farewell to every fear" as off goes "my machine."

I touch her up to "thirty-five and smile at neighbor Brown
As I rush past the bobtailed nag a 'jogging' long to town;
The Hayseeds all with much alarm pull off into the ditch,
And gaze at me a Croesus bold—affluent (?)—strangely.

But yestermorn I had a jolt—don't mention I pray—
That auto agent over there thinks now 'its time to pay
That little balance due last year for "burning" of the wold:—
But all my crops are gone and I am rather short of gold.

However, I shall go right home and find the old gray mare;
'Tis not so very far to Brown's—I'll jog her over there
And whot I've got to say, to him it surely gets my goat;"
But I will do my level best to get him on my note.

KENNEDYVILLE

Rev. F. D. Reynolds, of Baltimore, is spending sometime here with his friends. Mr. Reynolds was pastor here about seven years ago and is much loved.

Miss Eva C. Jewell, of Wilmington, is spending a week with her parents.

Mr. John McCabe and wife left last Saturday for Whaleyville, Md., where they will spend their vacation.

Mr. Jas. Weer and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. E. T. Othoson.

Quite a few from here attended the sale of Dr. Sudler on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. William Groves has been sick the past week.

Mrs. Hare, of Wilmington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones.

Miss Nellie Jones is visiting friends in Wilmington.

Mr. Bruce Dukes spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Wm. Bonwill.

Mrs. Caldwell, of Galena, spent Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Dempsey.

Rev. Peter Schauer and family spent part of last week in Balto.

Rev. Wm. Clews and Mr. Wm. Hurlock visited Baltimore Friday of last week.

GALENA

Miss Evelyn Fowler, who has been quite ill since the first of the week, is much better at this writing.

Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Prettyman, of Rising Sun, spent last week with their son, Mr. A. R. Prettyman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cockran and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Dyke visited Miss Ella Cockran at Elkton Hospital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Horsey have returned to their home in town.

Mr. Culley celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday on Sunday last. All of his children and grandchildren and some other near relatives were present and all spent a very pleasant day.

Galena M. E. Church is planning a full day on Sunday. A Sunday School rally in the morning and an Epworth League in the evening.

THE next session of the Farmers National Congress will be held in Indianapolis, Indiana, October 17-20. This promises to be a very interesting trip to a very interesting city. The Hoosier capital is the centre of population and the heart of trade, is America's largest city not situated on navigable water. The program this year will be exceptionally strong. The Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce will entertain the Congress. The Pitman-Moore Company will also entertain the Congress at the Moreland Biological Farm.

REGISTER!

We beg to call attention to the fact that October 3rd and 10th (Tuesdays) are the days set aside this year for the Registration days, and it is most desirable that every one in the county qualified to vote should assure themselves that their names are upon the Registration books of the proper district and precinct. This year the registration is intermediate only, that is to say, if your name is upon the books of the district and precinct of the county in which you now reside or will reside at the time of registration, it will not be necessary to do anything except appear at the polling place on election day (November 7) and vote for Wilson, Marshall, Lewis and Price; but if you have moved from one district to another, one precinct to another or one county to another since last election, it will be necessary to get a "transfer" to the place where you now reride, or you are liable to have your name "stricken off" and not be allowed to vote. It is also extremely important that the attention of those who have just acquired the right of franchise to the fact that in order to vote it is necessary to first have their names placed properly upon the registration books on registration days.

IT COMPELS THE ADMIRATION OF ALL

THE JAMES OLIVER No. 11 SULKY PLOW

By reason of its simple construction, light weight, easy draft, durability, and perfect work is

THE BEST PLOW YOU CAN BUY

SOME OF THE REASONS

The only sulky plow made with which you can turn either gee or haw equally well, leaving no hard spots, and avoid the necessity of plowing out corners.

It is the lightest draft riding plow made, due to the entire absence of landside friction and the even distribution of the load. The weight of the plow and driver is CARRIED instead of being DRAGGED along.

One share on the No. 11 will outlast four walking plow shares. It holds to the ground at all times, especially in dry weather. May be used with or without tongue. The turning and scouring qualities of the OLIVER PLOW BASES are unequalled.

Right after harvest you will be ready for your plow again. We have sold over 150 of No. 11 Oliver Sulky Plows within the last twelve months and will have what you may need for this Fall. Expecting another carload any day now
