PERSONAL AND SOCIETY EVENTS IN KENT COUNTY

Mrs. Mamie Wilkins, of Baltimore, is the guest of her mother at the Voshell House. She is looking finely after her trying experiences.

Mr. Joseph Parsons, of Middletown, is visiting friends in town. He is on his way home after a trip to Lancaster Fair, Gettysburg, &c.

Miss Maud Duyer is doing nicely at Easton Hospital and hopes to get home today.

Mr. Geo. Standsbury, wife and two children, of Baltimore county, Mrs. Wm. C. Kirwan, Mrs. Norvin Bartlett and child, of Baltimore, visited Mr. Bartus Trew and Miss Katie Trew last Sunday. They left Baltimore at 6 A. M. and were in Mr. Trew's yard at 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Noland, Dr. F. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Kilbourn, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smyth were among the Fairieeites who attended York Fair this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris have been touring in Pennsylvania during the past week.

Mr. Gus Startt and Miss Crouch, daughter of Mr. Emory Crouch, of Cliff City, were married last week in Queen Annes.

Miss Carmeta Russell returned to her duties at the Md. School for the Blind Monday and Miss Louise Russell will take another year at Peabody.

Mr. Charles Wheatley sold his motorcycle last week to Mr. John Hilyard, the efficient young clerk in the store of McIntyre & Son.

Mr. Stanley Porter is now coaching the Polytechnic football squad.

Mr. Arthur Legg, of Cliffs, who has been quite sick with tonsilitis during the past week is able to be out again.

Miss Louise Kendall, of Rock Hall, has been appointed teacher at Pittsville, Wicomico county.

At the annual meeting of the Southern Alumni Association of Pratt Institute, at the Pratt Club, Brooklyn, N. Y., Mr. P. M. Brooks, of Chestertowu, was elected viee-president. Mr. Brooks has been an active worker in the "Dixie Pratt" movement ever since its inception, being state secretary for Maryland. We are sure that the many members throughout the state will be glad to know that such an enthusiastic worker has been so honored.

Misses Pearl Short, of Kenton, Del., and Eunice Sutton, of Kennedyville, were the guests of Mr. Wm. A. Berry, of Felton, the past week.

Mrs. Harry Skirven has been visiting friends in Baltimore this week and attended the races at Laurel, Md.

Prof. and Mrs. Hiram Pearson are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a fine daughter.

Dr. W. R. Graham visited friends in town this week. He was feeling finely and reported his family all well.

Miss Clara E. Benton has returned home after spending some time with relatives and friends in Wilmington.

Mrs. J. Edgar Wilson, of Florida, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Beck, on corner of High and Queen street. Mrs. W. is well-known in Kent as Dr. Wilson and she occupied the M. E Church South parsonage at Chesterville for a number of years and met with great success among the people of that neighborhood and Millington. Dr. Wilson is now the editor of the church paper in Florida.

Mr. Wm. Ford, the faithful and efficient superintendent at the county home, celebrated his 85th birthday Monday. He was in town "as live as a cricket" and is certhinly a remarkable man.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony H. Johnson, of Massey, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Fannie, to Mr. Frank Huey, of Massey.

Mrs. Fannie Dennis is visiting her sister in Camden, N. J.

Dr. L. C. Weeks and wife, of Falmouth, Mass., and Mr. Richard Carlisle, of Springfield, Mass., spent several days in Kent this week the guests of Mrs. Carvil Maslin and daughters. They motored from Masschusetts and report the Maryland roads as the best they encountered on their trip.

Mr. James T. deCorse announces the wedding of his daughter, Grace Lola, to Mr. Henry Fowler Burroughs on Wednesday, Oct. 4, 1916, at Mechanicsville, Maryland.

Mrs. Annie Taylor, of Balto., is visiting her sister on Mill street.

Mrs. M. L. Tarbutton is visiting friends at Lafayette Hill, Pa.

JEWISH "CHRISTENING"

Unusual Ceremony Performed at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sachs, Chestertown.

The unusual ceremony styled "Brith Milho" took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sachs, on High street, Chestertown, at high noon Wednesday. The impressive "christening" took place in the presence of a "quorum" comprising Messrs. H. Sachs, Joseph Sachs, Abe Cohen, M. Sigman, Benj. Brown, I. Heller, A. Hollins, Nathan Lieberman, Drs. H. L. Dodd, H. G. Simpers and the NEWS man. Rev. A. N. Abramonitz, of Baltimore, was the officiating Rabbi, who performed the various details in a most dignified, impressive and professional manner.

It is a rule of the race never to name a child for a living person, therefore the two babies were given names of deceased relatives. Harrison Richard Hines was the name given Prof. and Mrs. Gabril Hines' son, while Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Sachs' boy was named Sydney Robert Sachs. After the ceremony light refreshments were served.

Local Notes

A. H. COVEY is offering 60 cents each for guineas!

THE milk stations in Kent are paying $1.80 for milk this month.

SPARKS' window is a beauty. Arlie is becoming an adept at decorating.

ALL restaurants and hotels are raising prices and even pickles are going up!

THE fishermen at Tolchester made the best catch of the season this week. Big prices were realized for rock.

HOWELL'S POINT FARM is shipping all kinds of canned gooda, including lima beans, stringed beans, pears, peaches, etc.

THE sale of cows, ewes and horses at Fairlee Saturday by Wm. R. Kendall was well attended and satisfactory prices offered.

THE wheat market is the highest in the memory of the NEWS editors, reaching $1 60 yesterday. Flour is soaring around $9.

GEORGE E. LANE, contractor, has begun the improvements to the residence of John E. George, of Sudlersville. They will consist of a massive porch—porte-co-chere and pergola—and will cost about $2,500.

VISITORS to Mr. Bartus Trew this week say the land about Steelton is bringing big prices. A farm of 180 acres sold for $90,000 last week and for another place of 18 acres, owned by a lonesome maiden, was offered $25,000.

DON'T forget the dates, October 16, 17, 18. At this time Mr. Nick Denney will have his Samples on display at Bordley & Sons and are ready to take your measure for either a winter suit or overcoat. Call and see this line of samples whether you buy or not. Also wedding and evening clothes.

A SHORT SPAN of the county wharf at Queenstown gave away one day last week and the wharf is now unsafe for use. William E. King appeared before the county commissioners Tuesday in reference to making prompt repairs on account of farmers getting their phosphate and shipping tomatoes. The commissioners said they would look it over in a few days.

THE road to Rock Hall has been surveyed during the past ten days and bids will be asked for the building of same in the near future. The McLain's Corner-Tolchester end will be a State-aided road and will likely be begun next spring. Contractor Schafer was in town last week making preliminary preparations to begin work on the new section of State road from Radcliffe Mill bridge to Baker's woods.

THE Wm. Hudson bungalow at Rock Hall has been sold to Capt. Travers, of Baltimore, price around $700.

AT the tournament held at Rock Hall Saturday Mr. George Lee won the prize and crowned Miss Kerr as queen of love and beauty.

THE number of new students at Washington College is about 30, running the total over a hundred. Prof. del Toro has been succeeded by Prof. Cayetano Panettiere as teacher of Spanish, mathematics and science, while an addition l teacher in the person of Prof. White, a graduate of Cornell, has been employed to help in the curriculum work. So rushed is the work at the college that Prof Ten Hoor has some of his classes at 8 a m. This hour makes the students from down town get up a little early.

THE Christian Eadeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church are arranging to have a social evening on Friday, Oct. 20. Fuller particulars next week.

Two negroes from upper Kent are in jail for shooting two other negroes last Sunday. Jesse Ringgold shot Peter Berry at Sassafras Sunday with a 32 calibre revolver. The bullet went through his thigh. He is in Delaware Hospital. Sheriff Hadaway and Deputy Sheriff Perkins arrested Ringgold in Wilmington, three-quarters of an hour after landing. August Warwick was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Perkins Monday night for shooting Charles Lewis in the back of the head and robbing him of $15 Sunday near Massey. Lewis is in a very dangerous condition, as the doctors are unable to locate the bullet. Warwick claimed he is innocent. Deputy Perkins, however, found several bullets in the jail toilet, where it is supposed that Warwick threw them. The bullets showed that the pistol plunger had struck them.

TO PRESENT THE OPERETTA "PRISCILLA"

Chestertown Choral and Dramatic Club during the coming season will present the operetta "Priscilla." The plot is one which every American is familiar and the music is of the best. The love adventures of the doughty Captain Miles Standish, the charming Puritan maid, Priscilla, and the gallant John Alden have made the Pilgrim Fathers famous. In this operetta the story is told in exceptionally clever dialogue with the incidents adapted to please the modern theatre patron. The music is sparkling, exceptionally tuneful and comprises solos, duets, and splendid ensemble numbers. The cast has not yet been selected but will be announced by the director at the earliest possible moment. Rehersals for "Priscilla" began Tuesday evening. The club is planning several interesting social functions during the year to supplement the more serious efforts of musical and dramatic production. The first of these is an oyster, scald, next Friday.

IN MEMORIAM

Ours the heartache, the sorrow and pain,
Thine is the glory, the infinite gain;
Thy slumber is sweet.
By her loving friends,
MR. AND MRS. JAS. H. BOULTER.

Farewell Myrtle, farewell Myrtle,
Peaceful be thy silent rest;
Slumber sweetly, God knew best,
When to call thee home to rest.
Farewell Myrtle, farewell Myrtle,
We must say our last farewell,
Till we meet beyond the river—
Happy there with thee to dwell.
By her dear friend,
MRS. ESTELLA JOINER.

Dearest Myrtle, thou has left us,
And our loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.
Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life is fled,
And in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.
By her friend, MR. WILBUR JOINER.

Wood's Seeds.

Seed Wheat.

The Seed Wheats we offer are from the best and most productive crops grown in the finest wheat-growing sections of Virginia, and are carefully recleaned by us to remove all impurities and small and inferior grains, so as to supply our customers only with plump and well-developed seed wheat, which should yield considerably more per acre than ordinary wheats imperfectly cleaned. All of our Seed Wheats are selected from good yielding crops, which with our methods of cleaning, makes the Seed Wheat which we offer very much superior to ordinary seed wheat.
