ENGINES

Our Type "Z" Engines, 1½, 3 and 6 Horse Power, are giving splendid results.

We have sold a number of these engines this season and every user is a booster. Then think of the price. No other standard engine on the market at the price. 1½ Horse Power, with built-in magneto for only

$42.00

Horse power absolutely guaranteed to equal rating. It is the most compact and best built Gasoline and Oil Engine on the market. Why pump water by hand when you can get an engine for so little money?

DEATHS

MRS. LOUISA SPARKS.

Mrs. Louisa Sparks, aged 76 years, one of Crumpton's most estimable old ladies, died on Monday morning of last week at 6 30 o'clock, after having suffered a stroke of paralysis the previous Saturday. She had been in poor health for some months.

She was the widow of the late John Sparks and is survived by a son and daughter, viz: Mr. Bruce C. Sparks, a member of the Board of Election Supervisors for Queen Anne's county, who resides at Crumpton, and Mrs. James Archibald, of Kent county. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. John M. South, of Crumpton.

Funeral services were held in Crumpton M E. Church on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Starling officiating. Interment in Crumpton cemetery.

B. M. HAZELL.

It is with sorrow we announce the death of our friend and fellow citizen, Mr. B. M. Hazell, of Millington, who died suddenly after an illness of a few hours at his late home Sunday night, October 8th, in the 69th year of his age. He leaves a widow, a son, Dr. B. Woodward Hazell, of Baltimore; two daughters, Miss M. G. Hazell, at home, and Mrs. J. Reid Howze, of Waycross, Ga., to mourn his loss. He will be greatly missed by his many friends. Funeral services were held at the Chapel of the Holy Cross on Wednesday, October 11, at 2 p. m.

WILLIAM J. PRICE.

William J. Price died at his home in Centreville Monday afternoon. He was born in Queen Anne's county October 1, 1831, and for the last fifty years had been a conspicuous figure in the business world of the county. He was one of the founders of the Queen Anne's National Bank, of Centreville, was its first vice-president, and later president. He was active in business until a few years ago, when failing health caused his retirement. He leaves four sons, William J. Price, Jr., president of the Centreville Observer Publishing Com-Company; Thomas R. L. Price and H. E. Price, proprietors of the Centreville Ice Company, and E. Sterling Price, of Baltimore; Mrs. Anne E. Bryan and Mrs. W. V. Bryan, of Baltimore, are sisters of the deceased.

PERRY C. OREM.

After a week's serious illness Percy C. Orem died at his residence, 1423 West Lanvale street, Baltimore Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Orem had the distinction of being, in point of service, the oldest church organist in the city. He played his last service at First English Lutheran Church on Sunday, October 1, after a continuous service of 31 years.

He organized the Garland Musical Association in 1880, gave instructions to its 40 members and conducted their concerts for several years. Mr. Orem was a member of Concordia Lodge of Masons a Knight Templar, a member of the Royal Arcanum and the Elks. His survivors are a widow and three daughters. A daughter, Miss Beulah Orem, is assistant musical instructress in the public schools. He also leaves three brothers and two sisters (Messrs. Hugh S., Wm. H. and Howard P. Orem; Mrs. Wm. A. Webster and Mrs. Wm. H. Bordley).

He was well-known in Chestertown where he organized the Excelsior Cornet Band.

MRS ELIZABETH ROEDER.

Mrs. Elizabeth Roeder, widow of John Roeder, died at the home of her son, Thomas, in Church Hill, early Sunday morning, aged 79. She was a remarkable woman in many respects and wielded a good influence. She leaves a son and three daughters, viz: Mrs. Dan'l Jones, Philadelphia; Mrs. Alex. Mair, Betterton, and Mrs. William Copper, Lynch. The funeral took place Tuesday at the home of her daughter in Betterton, Rev. Mr. Clews officiating; interment at Still Pond cemetery, W. H. Krusen undertaker.

DANIEL JOYNER.

Daniel Joyner, husband of Mrs. Amanda M. Joyner, died at Raspbery, Baltimore county, on Sunday. The funeral took place on Wednesday, interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

William J. H. Reynolds died at his home at Alvada, Ohio, on Saturday morning, September 30. The deceased was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Reynolds, of Townsend. He was about 60 years of age and is survived by a wife and one grown daughter. Besides leaving his parents, who live in Townsend, he is survived by 4 brothers and 3 sisters, who are: Andrew Reynolds, of Golt, Md.; James Reynolds, of Townsend; Edward and Roland Reynolds, of Wilmington; Mrs. Edward Hart, Mrs. Richard Hodgson, of Townsend, and Mrs. James H. Wilson, of Smyrna.
