DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For President:
WOODROW WILSON.

For Vice-Pressdent:
THOMAS R. MARSHALL.

For United States Senator:
DAVID J. LEWIS,
Of Allegany.

For House of Representatives:
JESSE D. PRICE,
Of Wicomico.

THE Federalsburg Courier tells a Western paper that their 11 feet 5 inches tall corn is like Mutt and Jeff compared to Caroline's 14 feet and 9 inches corn. Well, Queen Annes with her 16 feet 4 inches corn can show Caroline some corn. Kent has not only the stalk but can show the corn also. Some farmers about Massey expect a hundred bushels to the acre!

MASS MEETING OCTOBER 23

A big Democratic mass meeting will be held in Chestertown on Monday, October 23rd. Governor Emerson C. Harrington has already agreed to be present and deliver an address, and Hon. David J. Lewis and Hon. Jesse D. Price will also speak. The full details of the meeting have not yet been announced, but the members of the State Central Committee will perfect plans for the rally. The mass meeting will mark the official opening of the campaign in the county.

THREE WEEKS TO ELECTION

People Are Beginning To Awake To The Fact That The Day Is Drawing Near.

The most important election of years is only three weeks off next Tuesday. The politicians are now at work for their party candidates and it behooves every Democrat who wants to keep this country OUT OF WAR to get a hustle on him to get votes in Kent county for Wilson and Marshall and Price and Lewis. Work and Vote for EVERY ONE of them. United they stand, divided they fall. If you elect Wilson and cut the House and Senate away from him, you tie his hands and prevent him from doing the good things he otherwise will do. Vote the entire Democratic ticket. Not only that, but from now to election day be a patriot and work for the candidates that stand for PEACE and PROSPERITY.

The ballot will be a long one, but easy to vote. It is necessary to put on it all the tickets of the various parties, but it is not necessary to vote for all the Electors.

A cross mark in the square opposite the name of Wilson and Marshall will count as though you had marked for all the eight electors of your party.

For President and Vice-President of the United States:

Wilson and Marshall	Democratic	X

For Electors for President and Vice-President:

Frank A. Furst	Democratic
J. Royston Stifler	Democratic
L. E. Williams	Democratic
Albert C. Tolson	Democratic
Forest Bramble	Democratic
William M. Burnett	Democratic
Dr. George Wells	Democratic
George Stern	Democratic

One cross (X) mark votes all the above.

Then three more squares are to be marked in, one for a Senatorial candidate; one for a Congressional candidate; and one for or against the Budget Plan, an Amendment to the State Constitution.

IS IT RIGHT?

Is it right to build churches to save men and at the same time license shops that destroy men?

Is it right to license a man to sell that which will make a man drunk and then punish him because he is drunk?.

Is it right to license men to make paupers and then tax sober men to take care of them?

Is it right to license saloons to teach vice and then to tax people for schools to teach virtue?

Is it right to derive a revenue out of a traffic which no decent man defends?

Is it right to teach your boy to be honest and then to vote for the saloon where he may be taught to gamble?

Is it right to take care of your own boy and vote to license a place which will ruin your neighbor's boy?

Is it right to preach justice and charity and then vote to license a thing which robs the widows and orphans of their bread.

Is it right to spend five times as much money to ruin people as there is spent to save the people?

Is it right to have 29,000 more liquor sellers in this country than we have churches?

Is it right for the Legislature of any state for the sake of revenue to barter away the public morals and the public health?

Is it right to wait until the millennium comes before we stop selling whisky, brandy and rum?

Dr. C. P. Kemp, of Stevensville, for twenty-one years a practitioner of Kent Island, left Thursday for Baltimore, where he will continue his profession. He will be located at 2427 St. Paul St. Aside from his professional duties, Dr. Kemp was also active in the business world. He was one of the founders of the Stevensville Bank of Maryland, and served as a member of the Board of Directors since its establishment.

DAVID J. LEWIS

Those voters of Maryland who delight in casting their ballots for self-made men; men who have mounted the ladder of success and honor, rung by rung, over apparently insurmountable obstacles and difficulties, should take particular delight in participating in the election of the Democratic party's candidate for the United States Senate.

Never did the path of duty seem more clear, and never did a candidate for the United States Senate from Maryland present stronger claims for support from every voter who has the interests of the people of the state at heart than the Hon. David J. Lewis, who served so well during the last and previous sessions of the House of Representatives.

It is unnecessary to dwell on the splendid example of his life to other poor and struggling young men; of how he arose from the obscurity of a coal miner through sheer grit, courage and perseverance to one of the most honored positions within the gift of the American electorate. It is useless to reiterate the story of how he weilded the pick and shovel day by day to earn a livelihood, and studied hard at night to obtain an education. Or of how he steadily mounted step by step until he engraved his name in the National Hall of Fame by the conception of the Mammoth Parcel's Post project, which has been in operation for several years and which has met with such nation wide success.

These things are all, more or less, familiar to the voters of Maryland. They know that the sobriquet of "The Little Giant of the House of Representatives" has been honorably and fairly won and his ability, honor and courage are, therefore, beyond question.

His record as a sterling Democrat can be impugned no more than can his record of faithfulness to the state and nation. He has been an indefatigable worker in Congress and has contributed largely to the success achieved by the Democratic administration during the last four years by the passage of progressive and greatly needed legislation. At all times he has been a conscientious and consistent party man, working for the success of his party in Maryland and helping build up a reputation of fairness and honesty for Democracy in the Nation.

In the recent Senatorial primaries David J. Lewis exceeded the expectations of his most sanguine friends, and proved conclusively that the people of Maryland are with him and for him. With only slight assistance, outside of Baltimore city, single handedly he defeated one of the most powerful political combinations ever hurled against a candidate. His victory did not reflect upon the ability of his opponent, but served to demonstrate the great popularity of the man who may be expected to sweep Maryland this Fall.

The result of the Senatorial primary shows that Mr. Lewis stands clear of any entangling alliances that might be injurious to his conscientious fulfillment of every public duty. His bitterest enemies cannot advance a single argument to show that he is not worthy and does not deserve the suffrage of the people of his state.

He is the people's candidate for a high and exalted office. And the people will elect him.

WALL ST. WOMEN TOUR FOR HUGHES

"Silk-Stocking, Poodle Dog Brigade" Carries Doctrine of Plutocracy to West.

MAKES SUFFRAGE PRETENSE

Many of Party on Train de Luxe Repudiated by Leaders of Woman's Movement—Paid Speakers to Do Talking.

Wall street is too busy harvesting Democratic prosperity to go campaigning—but it is sending its womenfolk. The greatest aggregation of wealth and social distinction ever represented by fuss, feathers and femininity left New York on Monday, Oct. 2, by special train de luxe, to tell their sisters of the West how to vote. Many of these women, claiming to be equal suffrage workers, are repudiated by leaders of that movement.

Stopping at Albany, Utica and Syracuse on their first day, the itinerary takes the women's campaign train through the principal cities of the north route across the continent and brings them back through Colorado, Nebraska, Missouri and Kentucky, a tour lasting until November 4. The expenses are paid by and the tour is conducted under the auspices of the Women's Committee of the National Hughes Alliance.

"Women's Hughes Alliance" sounds innocent and harmless enough, until one examines the personnel of the organization and discovers that it represents the feminine side of the organized and Morganized wealth of Wall street.

The treasurer of the Women's Committee is Mrs. Mary Harriman Rumsey, daughter of the late Edward H. Harriman, railroad magnate and "practical man" of the days when Theodore Roosevelt received campaign funds from the "crooked business" which political exigency later led him to denounce.

These Provide the Funds.

With Mrs. Rumsey on the Finance Committee are Mrs. Robert Bacon, whose husband was translated from the House of Morgan to be Roosevelt's Assistant Secretary of State, and later Ambassador to France; Mrs. Bernard H. Ridder, wife of one of the proprietors of the New York Staats Zeitung, leader of the German propaganda against President Wilson; Mrs. W. H. Crocker, widow of the California mining and railroad multimillionaire.

On the Train Fund Committee are Mrs. Daniel Guggenheim, of the Smelter Trust; Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, representing inherited millions of railroad capital; Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, daughter of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt; Miss Maude Wetmore, of the wealthy Rhode Island family of that name; Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, daughter of Theodore Roosevelt, whose husband is Nicholas Longworth, in Congress from Ohio.

Many of the junketers who are going along to do the speaking are professional women, who could not afford the luxury of special trains nor the diversion of campaigning without pay. But back of them, with their money and the glamour that attaches to their gilded names, are the women standing as financial sponsors for this greatest society show that ever was put on wheels.

Some of these wives and daughters of the super-rich will go along on this mission and with their presence, if not with their oratory, will warn the women of the west—who are already voters—that their country cannot be "saved" unless the women cast their vote for the candidate of plutocracy.

The letterhead from Republican campaign headquarters gives only the names of the Train Fund Committee as above, but besides them there is an additional committee in charge of this feature of the Hughes campaign.

Others in on the Junket.

On this committee appear in addition to the foregoing members, the following:

Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury, whose husband is a Philadelphia partner of J. P. Morgan & Co.; Mrs. H. O. Havemeyer, wife of the Sugar Trust and Standard Oil magnate; Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, mother of William Randolph Hearst, owner of millions in American mines and Mexican plantations; Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, who has undertaken to raise half a million dollars to defeat President Wilson; Mrs. John Hays Hammond, wife of the multimillionaire mining man; Mrs. Mary Dreier, New York society leader, of a wealthy German family with strong antipathy to President Wilson.

A leading attorney of Pocatello, Idaho, writing to the Democratic National Committee, says:

"I read with deep interest of the preparations of the Silk Stocking, Poodle Dog, Feminine Brigade that is soon to start on its million dollar special across the continent to awaken the enthusiasm of the mothers and women who carry the burden of our national greatness on their shoulders, to vote for their idol, Hughes.

"It will not be difficult for the rank and file of the common people to see the hypocrisy of this movement."

CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVED

The KENT NEWS is ready to receive Campaign Fund. Any money sent us voluntary contributions to the Wilson will be forwarded to the proper committee. The following letter will explain the necessity for financial help:

W. B. Usilton's Sons, Editors
Kent News, Chestertown, Md.

Gentlemen: In the next few days the Presidential race of 1916 will turn into the homestretch. There is a feeling of confidence among the managers of the campaign in behalf of President Wilson. Recent indications have been favorable. Encouraging reports have come from every section. Reason and logic are on our side. There is just one fear—Republican money.

The Republican campaign is being conducted with a disregard for expense that has not been witnessed since the days of Mark Hanna. How effective will be this power of money cannot now be approximated.

We cannot hope to match dollar with dollar in the struggle, but we do need money with which to meet proper and legitimate expense. The collection of a campaign fund, therefore, is a matter of immediate necessity

Help us to get 150,000 individual contributions. Do not let up in the canvass until election day.

Very sincerely,
H. MORGENTHAU,
Chairman Finance Committee
Dem. National Committee.
