A BIG DAY IN WORTON

A Splendid Tournament And Exhibit —Big Corn, Potatoes, And Lovely Work, Etc.

Saturday afternoon was a lovely day for the Tournament. Only six knights took part as follows :

First Prize, Eddie Fowler, Knight of Chestertown.
2nd Prize, George Lee, Knight of Fairlee.
3rd Prize, Thos. Fowler, Knight of Flatland.
4th Psize, Elwood Fowler, Knight of Fancy.

The charge to the knights and the coronation address were both given by Mr. A. Hanson Stavely in his most estimable way Mr. Eddie Fowler crowned his wife. Mr. Geo. Lee crowned Miss Anna Jones. Mr. Elwood Fowler crowned his wife.

After the tournament came a most interesting game of baseball. Still Pond being champions were given their supper. We prepared for a crowd, but the crowd far outnumbered our anticipations. The exhibits were fine and were worthy of praise as it was our first. The children prepared exhibits and then got cold feet about bringing them to the hall. The few who were brave hearted were well repaid. The ribbons were awarded by Mrs. Wilber Morris, Mrs. Robert Kennedy and Miss Comstock.

The whole affair was a success and everybody had a most enjoyable time. Now, grangers, all pull together to have a better one next fall with more exhibits, more amusements, more supper and more charity one toward another to help boost our community and make it a better place for our boys and girls to live in.

"WILSON MOVED CAPITOL BACK FROM WALL STREET"

"Thank God He Is a 100 Per Cent Man," Declares Leader of Women's Movement.

In contrast to the Hughes junket of Wall Street's womenfolk, comes this indorsement of President Wilson from a woman who has achieved great things, and is a leader of the real feminist movement.

By Helen Ring Robinson
(State Senator of Colorado.)

I am not with the Woman's Party. My opposition to its propaganda is based on the fact that I am working, twelve months in the year, to get the ballot for all American women. My experience of practical politics has taught me, among other things, that the Congressional Union is being used, at the present time, as a tool by the forces in this country which have fought, and will continue to fight, equal suffrage.

I am for Wilson because, throughout his Administration, he has continuously made his appeal from the jingling of dollars to the rights of man.

I am for Wilson because he moved the Capitol of the country from Wall Street back to Washington, and because he has withstood the forces, now back of Hughes, who have sought to remove it to Berlin.

I am for Wilson because he has indeed shown himself "more interested in the fortune of oppressed men and pitiful women and children"—whether in Mexico or in America—than in his own personal fortune. Thank God he is not "a hundred per cent candidate," but a hundred per cent MAN!

I am for Wilson because, whatever his fortune at the coming election, his achievements have given him a supreme place in the list of American presidents; because his voice, during all those burdened years, has been the clear, old-time voice of America—the voice that to some of us had seemed muted and overborne by class hatreds and racial hatreds, and the snarling scramble for dividends.

However the coming election may turn, the pages of American history which President Wilson has written these past four years will be forever illumined with the white light of stars, and our children and grandchildren will indeed have cause to thank God for Woodrow Wilson.

The Republicans don't like the prevailing prosperity. It's Democratic and therefore taboo. Give them a chance and they'll put it out of business.

"HARVEST HOME AND HOME COMING"

Kennedyville M. P. Church.

Knowing that a great many were unable to attend the service last Sunday, and thinking they might be anxious to know something about the day's service, I will endeavor to give a reproduction of the sermon pr ached by the pastor, Rev. Peter Schauer.

The text was from John, 4th chapter, 35th and 36th verses: "Say not ye, there are yet four months and then cometh the harvest. Behold, I say unto you, lift up your eyes and look on the fields; for they are white already to the harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages and gatherethfruit unto life eternal, that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together" When Christ spoke these words He was referring to the harvest of souls.. The fields (which is the world) are white and ready to harvest; souls are to be brought into the fold, and God has given all Christians a work to do and that work is to gather in those who are seeking salvation, which was accomplished by the death of Christ on Calvary's cross. Oh, that Christians may be awakened from their slumber and go out in this great harvest to work for the Master, so that the church, which is Christ's bride, may soon be completed. As we look upon the good things which have been brought from the fields through man's labor, we can only find that without God's help nothing could be grown, as He who gives the increase watches over every seed that is sown and nourishes every sprout as it breaks through the ground, and after several months we have the beautiful grain. May we be ready then to gather in that which God has given and so He has given His precious word for His children to sow in good ground, and may we be about our Father's business, even as Christ said. Our work will not be in vain, as a reward is in store for those who do not grow weary in well doing. May we not pass by on the other side, as did the Priest and Levite, but take the part of the good Samaritan and bind up the wounds of the needy and help those who are in need of spiritual food. What great rejoicing there will be when the day of "home coming" arrives and the result of our labors are seen in the great home of our eternal rest, where the ransomed hosts of God are gathered around the throne of Christ, when we shall clasp each other's hands and receive that glad welcome home from One who loved us and gave Himself for us.

In the evening Mr. W. T. Hague had charge of the Christian Endeavor Rally. Some very appropriate music was sung and some very fitting remarks were made by the pastor and Mr. Hague. Misses Mabel Norris and Helen Silcox recited beautiful recitations at the close of the service. The male quartette, Messrs. Pennington, Bramble, Hague and Othoson, sang "Sometime, somewhere, God will make all things right."

ROCK HALL

The R. C. Society's festival and supper on Saturday night was a grand success. The weather was ideal, the crowd was there, the set-out was ample and largely patronized, the managers and assistants were on the job—hence the big success.

Contractor French, of Annapolis, has completed repairs to East Neck Island bridge. The structure is now in first-class condition for any emergency.

Our registration officials are compelled to make a bad showing for this Fifth district. It is reported the number of voters will be decreased at least one hundred, owing to the removal of about 150 families from the district; and still other families are going. Among the latest is Mr. Raymond Hersch, who removed from here last Friday.

Among our best beloved friends Mr. Daniel Joyner, who in his younger days was a resident of this section, died at home in Baltimore this week. Many here mourn his going, but mourn not without hope. "We shall meet beyond the river." Capt. Joseph Downey, an octogenarian of this place, is a half brother of the deceased.

Parson Prettyman has been initiated into the automobile fraternity. We poor sinners will find it difficult to escape his effort to bring us head to the wind now, sure.

CHURCH NOTES

Sunday was "Home Coming Day" in Christ Methodist Protestant Church and a red letter day in its history. Rev. J. L. Ward preached to fine congregations, his morning theme being the "Model Home" and in the evening "The Many Mansions," both of which were impressively and forcibly presented. A duet "Sweeter as the years go by," was sung in the morning and at night Mrs Wm. Speilberger sang "My Sheppard Leads" in a most effective manner. The Endeavor service was led by Mrs. C. N. Satterfield, the speaker being Mr. W. R Huey. Misses Catherine Nickerson and Helen Maslin sang a pretty duet.

A novel feature of the program in the Sunday School was the return of the "Homers" which had been distributed several weeks before A gilt edged card bearing a picture of a homer pigeon with these words "I am no——Please bring me home to Christ Church Sunday School, Chestertown, Md., Sunday, Oct. 8, 1916 at 2 30 p. m., This is "Home Coming Day," were distributed two weeks before Sunday. There were 235 "Homers" given out and 191 found their way to the "loft" at Christ Church Sunday School. Lessons from the Carrier pigeon were presented, and when these "card birds" were let fly it made an interesting picture. Mrs. J. P. Wilson, of Florida, formerly of Kent, spoke on the importance of child training. The musical features included a beautiful duet by Messrs. Arthur Bacon, Cornet, and Foster Cannan, Trombone, Miss Clara Usilton, accompanist; solo by Miss Harriett Reed; solo (chorus) Miss Miriam Smith; violin solo, "Home Sweet Home" Mr. Merritt Twilley, while the school sang the chorus. It was missionary day also, the collection being over $29 Mr. W. W. Hubbard's class of young men won the banner which was presented by Mr. J. W. Russell. The Floral decorations in church and sunday school included large and handsome chrysanthemums raised by Mrs. Harry Cannan and Miss Flora Wheatley.

The youngest (old) scholar was Mrs. Sarah Rollison, who will be 91 her next birthday. She is in the Bible class and a regular attendant.

The Young Men's Club of Christ Church were entertained last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R Huey. A debate as to whether a young man raised in the country meets with greater success than one raised in the city was decided in the affirmative. The winners were Messrs. J. N. Wheatley, C. C. Jones, and Frank Elburn. Refreshments were served.

The singing Evangelist, Miss Minnie Shay, of Baltimore, will be present at Union M. E Church, Worton, next Sunday, Oct. 15, and assist the pastor in a series of meetings during the coming weeks.

St. James M. P. Church, Rev. H. B Jester, pastor. "Rally Day and Harvest Home" at 10 30 a. m. All members and friends are requested to attend this service and bring a basket of vegetables for "Our Church Home" at Westminister. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. led by Rev. H. B. Jester, subject "Go Work in My Vineyard." Lynch Sunday School at 2 15 and preaching at 3 p. m.

The two week's revival meetings held at Piney Neck M. E. Church closing October 8th, were very successful, as not only our own people attended but they came from far and near and at times the crowds were so great we could not find room for them and many were turned away. We had twenty-six conversions and twenty have joined our church. The Rev. H. J. Magonigal's singing and preaching was very inspiring and helpful, and his searching appeals to the sinners caused some to come out of the congregation and present themselves to the altar, as seekers of the truth and Christ, which was so beautifully and earnestly presented. Mr. Magonigal is truly a great power for good and the writer recommends him to our churches. We take pleasure in thanking Revs J. W. Prettyman and A. C. Smith and their congregations for their co-operation and help! Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. Psa. 133-1.

The Still Pond Methodist Church is arranging a Harvest Home observance. Services will be held morning and evening and will be marked by good addresses and special music. It is expected the Rev. B. S. Haywood, D. D., of Washington, D. C. will be the morning speaker. Look in this column next week for announcement of program. A hearty welcome is extended to all. The church will be open Thursday, Friday and Saturday preceding to receive corn, apples, pears and other harvest decorations.

Chestertown M. E Church—Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, pastor. Services Sunday October 15th, as follows: 10 30 a. m. preaching by the pastor, subject, Genuine Discipleship" ; 2 15 p. m., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible class ; 7 p. m Epworth League song service ; 7 30 preaching by the pastor, subject, "Bidding For Souls.." All invited.

The Christian Endeavor social to be held in Christ Church lecture room next Friday evening promises to be an interesting event. Prof. Walter Gale, of Baltimore, will be the speaker, and there will be music and other features. The committee comprises Misses Fannie Baker, Mary Knight, Flora Wheatley, Clara Usilton and Mrs. C. N. Satterfield. Everybody invited.
