PERSONAL AND SOCIETY EVENTS IN KENT COUNTY

Ex-Judge James A. Pearce was a Baltimore visitor last week.

Judge J. Henry Thompson and wife, Mr and Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mr. Frank Parsons made a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Gale at New Freedom, Pa. They report fine corn crops and Wilson sentiment.

Mrs. Hope H. Barroll has been quite sick at her home near town, but is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Crouch, Miss Angie Strong and Mr. Miller Strong are autoing in New York State this week.

Capt. Carey Jarman returned with the First Maryland Regiment Monday.

Chief Judge Albert Constable caught cold while attending Court at Chestertown last week and has been quite ill for several days, but is now greatly improved.—Cecil News.

Messrs. William and Samuel Sachs, of Philadelphia, was a guest of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sachs, for the week-end.

Mr. Herman Ireland, of Baltimore, has been a guest of his sister, Miss May Ireland.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lecates and son, of Philadelphia, are guests of his sister, Mrs. Walter Bennett. Mr. Lecates had a finger broken and one badly mashed last week while engaged in his occupation as brakeman on the railroad.

Mr. J. Thomas Kibler, who was operated on recently for hernia, will return home next week from Baltimore. He is getting along very well.

Mr. Randolph Waddell is home from the hospital and is convalescing rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Pyle are receiving congratulations on the birth of a fine little girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson and Miss Hallie Cooper were week-end guests of relatives at Middletown, Md.

Miss Jeanette Gooding has been in Pennsylvania visiting a sick relative.

Col. Charles E. Woods, carrier on Rural Route No. 3, has been confined to his home with a severe cold during the past week. Mr. W. M. Maslin has been substituting for him.

Mrs. Rosalie M. Schuyler, artist, whose studio is in New Castle, Del, has recently visited Kent county, stopping with relatives at Stoneton Manor and friends in the vicinity of Still Pond and Lynch. She had a fine collection of water color paintings, views and scenes, sketched from nature, while visiting Europe before the great war. Many of these pictures represent the old streets, cathedrals and villages in Holland, Belgium and Northern France, which warring armies have almost now destroyed. Mrs. Schuyler sold quite a number of these scenes to art lovers in Betterton and Still Pond, some purchasing five and six of them each, and ordering others to be done for Christmas.

Mr. Louis K. Stam is quite sick in a hospital in Saute, Georgia, a letter to that effect having reached Chestertown on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Harland Houston, of Seaford, Del., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lillian Strong.

Miss Katherine Lowe, of Baltimore, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Chas. R. Twilley.

Miss Lida Davidson, of Bowers Beach, Del., has returned home after spending the past week with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson.

Mrs. J. K Gladden, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Coleman, was called home to Annapolis on Friday by the sickness of her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Waters Russell visited relatives and friends in Baltimore last week.

Miss Virginia Maslin, daughter of Mrs. J. Carvil Maslin, left Chestertown yesterday for Salt Lake City, Utah, where she will engage in professional nursing.

Mr. Harry Barnett has been visiting friends in town this week. He was driving a new Ford limousine.

Mrs. Earl Strong has disposed of her furniture at private sale and moved to Baltimore Wednesday Mrs. Howard Goodrich, of New York, assisted her mother as did her son, Mr. James Strong, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Josephine Walters and Charlie Crouch are convalescent at their homes in Piney Neck from an illness of typhoid fever.

Mr. Columbus Beck, Jr., of Newark, Del., spent the week-end visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. Lemuel Crouch motored to Newark, Del., and carried a car load of people on last Sunday.

Miss Esther Beauchamp is a guest of friends in Wilmington.

Mr. John M. Toulson and family have been the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson.

Mrs. Physick is sick with Pneumonia at her home on Water street. She was somewhat improved at this writing.

Mrs. Flesh, of Piqua, Ohio, and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Wilmington, have been guests of their sister, Mrs. Russell, on Spring avenue.

Mrs. Hiram Brown, of New York, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Copper.

Prof. Johnson has accepted a position with Truslow Brothers at the depot.

Dr. H. B. Martin returned home from St. Louis on Monday evening.

Miss Evelyn Peacock of Massey, fell from her horse last Saturday and dislocated her shoulder.

Mrs. C. N. Satterfield fell down the parsonage steps on Queen street Monday night and injured her hip.

Mr. James H. Smith, who moved from Broad Neck to Philadelphia last week has disappeared. His wife notified Sheriff Hadaway this week of his sudden disappearance and asked him to inform her if he came here. He is 80 years old and his mind is said to be affected, and it is thought that he has wandered off, the hospitals or police stations having seen nothing of him.

Mrs. Marian Skirven and Mrs. Wm Anderson, of Baltimore, have been guests of Mrs. Gale and Mrs. Hatcherson in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Rubsaman, of Atlantic City are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Fennimore, at Crumpton.

Mrs. John Brown, of Kent Island, is the guest of Mrs. George Harrison.

The "Fifteen Dollar Week" initiated last week by Bordley & Sons, clothiers, of Chestertown, proved so successful they will hold these prices for one more week. Among these suits is the famous No. 4264 Blue Serge Suits. Absolutely everything guaranteed to be fast colors and pure wool, and competitors marvel how they can do it with the woolen and dye troubles at their worst. Read their adv. on page 5, and see that big front window just crammed full of value for the "Fifteen Dollar Week."

The annual meet of Kent County Chapter of the Eastern Shore Society was held last Thursday night at the Hotel Emerson, Baltimore. The meeting was followed by a buffett luncheon. The following officers were elected: Dr. Henry P. Hynson, president, and Walter R. Gale, secretary.

The Derrickson farm of 42 acres located near Edesville was offered at public sale Tuesday by Walter Hadaway, attorney, and withdrawn at a bid of $2,000. It may be bought at private sale either from Mr. Hadaway or Hope H. Barroll, Esq.

WEDDING NOTES

A wedding took place on the stage of the Chestertown Lyceum last Friday night after the regular performance, which was witnessed by the audience of about four hundred persons. The interested parties were Mr Kent Philip Dumont of San Francisco, and Miss Helen Kelley, of Boston, members of the Edna May Stock Co. who were at the Lyceum Theatre for a week's engagement. The stage names of these two parties are Paul Bond and Helen Kent, respectively. Some little difficulty was experienced in securing a minister to perform the ceremony. Dr. Dickinson, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, performed the marriage ceremony, which was beautiful and impressive. The best man was Mr. Jack Gould, his wife acting as bridesmaid. Miss Elsie Whitely officiated at the organ in a splendid manner. The stage was beautifully trimmed for the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. E. R Anthony, florists, who are experts in this line, and they used many colored leaves in the decoration, as well as potted plants and cut flowers.

Mr. Norman E. Darch and Miss Ruth Swavely, both of Allentown, Pa., were married at the parsonage of Christ M. P. Church Monday afternoon, by Rev. J. L. Ward. Mr. and Mrs. Larch will make their future home in Allentown.

Mr. Leroy H. Wilkinson and Miss Pyle, both of Wilmington, Del., came to Chestertown on Thursday morning and were married at the M. P. Parsonage by Rev. J. L. Ward. They returned to Wilmington on the afternoon train, where Mr. Wilkinson holds a position with the City Railway Company.

Mr. Wm. J. Sparks died at his home, Deep Landing Tuesday, Oct. 24, 1916, age 67 years. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Emma Sparks; a daughter, Mrs. Harry Jones, Sudlersville, and a son, Mr. Clinton Sparks, Crumpton.

DEATHS

Edward E. Woodall died at his home in Morgnec on Tuesday last, aged 59 years. The deceased was born near Galena in 1857 and there his whole life was spent as one of Kent's influential farmers. From early manhood he was closely connected with St. Dennis' Church, Galena, and was always one of its most active and faithful supporters. Mr. Woodall was a man of sterling qualities, a staunch friend, loving father and a devoted husband, and his influence for good will long be felt throughout the community in which he lived. He leaves a widow and three children: Edward E of Dover; Mrs. Chas. Bedwell, of Worton, and Miss Lorine, of Virginia. The funeral took place yesterday morning from St. Denis Church, Galena, with interment in Galena cemetery. Rev. Father Daly, assisted by Rev. Father Urner, of Chestertown, officiated; W. T. Hicks, undertaker. The bearers were Wilson Groves, James Groves, J. E. Sutton, W. Holt Woodall, Cayot Beaston and Ernest Hicks.

Mrs. Sadie Calhoun died early Friday morning at her home on her farm "Fox Hole," near Sassafras. Mrs. Calhoun was a guest here only three weeks ago of Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, of whom she was a relative. She was about 84 years of age. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with interment in Sassafras.

Mr. John H. Wheat died at his home in Wichita, Kansas, on Saturday, Oct. 14th, aged 74. The deceased leaves a widow, Mrs. Mary E. Wheat, who is a sister to Messrs. Samuel G. and William Lee, and eleven children. The deceased went West from Kent about 1870 and engaged in stock raising. The Odd Fellows officiated at the funeral.

The Clothing Situation

Woolens are 33% to 50% higher
Trimmings are as high as 300% to 400%
Silks and other linings have advanced 100%
Pure woolen worsteds almost off the market
And then labor is absolutely out of sight

Last week our customers marveled how we could offer such a showing of suits and coats at $15.00. We not only sold regular $15.00 goods, but sold $16.50, $18.00 and $18.50 grades all at $15.00.

The most marvelous value we have is the No. 4264 Blue Serge—about a dozen suits left—special price this week $14.75

Absolutely Guaranteed Fast Color.

In spite of the war prices we will continue another

"Fifteen Dollar Week"
