Poorly ventilated, drafty school rooms are a frequent source of colds. Contact with children who have colds is another cause.

Damp clothing and wet feet are often responsible for that croupy cough, sore throat and tight chest.

Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy for your children when they catch cold. Grown-ups like it too. For nearly 50 years it has been used in bronchial affections with satisfactory results. It quickly loosens the cough and checks the cold.

Your druggist has sold it for years. Try it.

GALENA

The third quarterly meeting of Olivet M. E. Church will be held in Chapel, Monday morning, November 20th, at 9.30 o'clock. Members please attend promply.

Mrs. Ella Whitaker, who visited her daughter, Miss Vera, at John Hopkins, Hospital last week, has returned to her home.

The Western Shore Corn Club Boys passed through town enroute from Chestertown to Cecilton. The school had a program for them but no notice had been given, therefore they went straight thru.

Mrs Walter Hadaway, spent the week end with her son, Thomas, in Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Camp, have moved on the Jones farm, near Cecilton. Miss Sophie Miller and mother are now occupying the residence vacated by Mr. Camp

Miss Lucy Ford, of Phila., spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs Merritt Ford

Miss Evelyn Fowler visited her friend, Miss Virginia Smith, of Crumpton, who is in Elkton Hospital, from injuries sustained while horseback riding last week.

Captain Walter Hadley spent Sunday at his home in Iowa.

Mrs. Gertrud Lewis visited her many friends in town last week Mrs Lewis was on her way to spend sometime with her parents in Philadelphia.

The fuderal of Mr. Wm. A Wilson, of Baltimore, was held in Olivet M. E. Church last Saturday morning. Rev. J W. Sutton being sick, Rev. J. M Mitchell, of Cecilton, had charge of the service. Mr. Wm T Hickes, of Chestertown was undertaker Pall bearers were: Messrs Theo Dempsey, Jas. and Thos. Caldwell John Walls, Jas. Hicks and Mr. Stradly, of Millington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moor have moved in the residence vacated by Mr Harry Brockson.

A FITTING TESTIMONAL

The following obituary is taken from the Methodist Protestant of one of Chestertown's beloved citizens:—

DAVIS.—Those who cherish memories of Chestertown, which run far back into the past, will distinctly recall two sisters, wholovingly homed with each other; who, every Sabbath sat side by side in God's "holy and beautiful house," and who, morning after morning wended their way together, with sunny faces, to their daily tasks. "The one has been taken and the other left" Mary, daugnter of the late Charles and Mary Massey Davis, ceased from earth March 19 1916 She was converted and united to Christ Church during the pastorate of Rev J. Thomas Murray, in her nineteenth year and till the close of her ong life "walked worthy of God unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work," In her private religious life she was devout; to her church and her pastors she was loyal to the core; in her daily occupation she was unselfishly faithful, in her attachments genial and affectionate, in her many cares and sicknesses trustful and patient. Simple, guileless, true she was in her meekness and confidence was her strength, and her "adorning was that meek and quiet spirit which in the sight of God is of great price."

As she wished the end came, "with no backward looking or sore amaze," suddenly the silver cord loosed, and she was with the Lord, "whom not having seen she loved" Her sister, "alone, and yet not alone," is also with the Lord, for what shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall life, or death?" Sorrow endears, death strangely unites; and separation, with its yearning tears, is "but for a moment" to those who are "one in Him." It is scarely worth while to say good night, so soon are we to say good morning!

D. L. GREENFIELD

GETS 25 CENTS A DOZEN THE YEAR ROUND.

In March, 1915, about 15 women organized the Clarke County Farmers' Union Egg Association. After electing officers, we decided to keep our eggs for one week to see how many we all were getting per week. We did this and met the following Saturday and shipped to a commission merchant.

Our secretary was fortunate in finding a cafe that would use a case (30 dozen) every other day for the year round at 25 cents. That was what we were trying to do—sell to the consumer as near as possible. We signed the contract with the cafe, also one among ourselves, agreeing not to sell an egg over seven days old in winter and none over four days old in summer, and no fertile eggs after May 1; not to offer for sale an egg that had stayed in the nest over night.

Each egg is stamped with "Clarke County Farmers' Union Egg Association" and each has a number on it.

Each member has a number, and if a bad egg is reported to the secretary the member whose number is on the egg is fined $1.

One member on each road packs the eggs, one person takes all the eggs to the packer one time and another the next time, so that it does not take much of any one's time. The one that carries the eggs to the packer takes them on to the express office. We have still the first contract made and are selling six cases per week now.

THE PENINSULA HORTICULTURAL MEET

The Peninsula Horticultural Society will hold its Thirtieth Annual Session, in Dover, Delaware, January 9, 10, 11, 1917. It will be attended by the most practical fruit growers of the Delaware and Chesapeake Peninsula who will discuss their problems of growing and marketing fruits and vegetables. The program has not been completed, but assurances have been received from Prof. J. C. Whitten, of Missouri, and Dr. J. P. Stewart, of Pennsylvania, that they will be present, and a number of other outside speakers have been invited to attend the meeting.

The workers in the Horticultural Departments of the Delaware Agricultural College and the Maryland Agricultural College will be present to read papers on their specialties and to answer questions.

The exhibit of fruit and vegetables to be made at the time of the meeting will be held in the State Armory, together with the exhibit of the Delaware State Corn Growers Association These exhibits are expected to fill the entire Armory and will doubtless prove very attractive and instructive.

The program for the Corn Growers meeting will follow the program of the Horticultural meeting and will be carried through Friday, January 12, when the meeting will close. More than $2000 will be awarded in prizes for the fruit, vegetables and grains that will be on exhibition; and upon the whole the occasion will be one of great interest and value to the farmers on the peninsula Admission will be free to all the meetings and all the exhibits.

FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

There are thousands of children who are bright but frail—not sick but underdeveloped—they play with their food—they catch colds easily and do not thrive—they only need the pure, rich liquid-food in to start them growing and keep them going. Children relish SCOTT'S and it carries rare nutritive qualities to their blood streams and gives them flesh-food, bone-food and strength-food.

Nothing harmful in SCOTT'S.
