Local Notes

THE "White House" Shoe store proprietor has opened a store in Bristol, Tenn, and is said to be doing a good business.

MY, my, what fine weather! Kent has the best of everything, sure.

THE Champion hog was killed in town Friday by Messrs. J. Gale Usilton and Jake Wilbur. It weighed 625 pounds.

A RESIDENT of Rock Hall came to town this week and said it was his second visit in 10 years! Who says we do not need a State road to the oyster town?

As a tourist enters Betterton he reads in large letters, "Betterton," and below this the word, "Welcome." As the tourist leaves, he reads on the back of the sign: "Good-bye, Come Again." Centervillians saw this and have done likewise. Old Kent shows the way in many things.

TEN young men took the examination for mail carrier in Chestertown Saturday. The arithmetic seemed to puzzle the most of them. Only one from the three highest will be selected for the present.

OFFICER PERKINS captured Joe Downs, the jail breaker, in Cecil county on Friday. Deputy Perkins put his gun on Downs while the latter was in the act of getting into a carriage and handcuffed him and brought him back to Chestertown.

THE dedication exercises at Kennedyville will take place this Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. A fine supper will follow. Everybody invited.

CONTRACTOR CANNAN has been awarded the contracts to build a home and poultry houses on the Skipper farm recently purchased by Truslow Bros.

CONTRACTOR PIPPIN is engaged in enlarging the storeroom of Mr. C. E. Kirby. When completed, the storeroom will be about twice as large as at present and will be a great advantage in Mr. Kirby's large business.

CONTRACTOR PRICE begun digging a cellar for another dwelling on Queen street. The removal of the fence in front of the Power home makes a big improvement to the whole neighborhood.

THE Road Engineering Department of Kent county has purchased three automobiles for the supervisors of roads. These will carry a red flag, so that if there is a washout, a broken pipe, a hole in bridge or road, they will be obliged if the public will notify them. Engineer Applegarth may always be reached by phone also.

THOSE from Kent who won prizes at the Maryland Week exhibition in Baltimore last week were: Canned vegetables, Miss Ida C. Crew, Chestertown; Mrs A. L. Harris, Betterton. Fruits and vegetables, Mrs. A. L. Harris, Betterton. Preserves, Mrs. A. L. Harris, Betterton; Miss Ida C. Crew. Apples, Mrs. W. B. Harris, Worton. Corn, yellow, James E Morris, Worton. Cow peas and alfalfa, J. T. Anthony, Chestertown.

KEIFFER pears netted Kent farmers who shipped same about 25 cents per basket.

THE yield of corn on the Pearce-Chapman farm was about 55 bushels per acre; on the Wickes-Lusby farm the yield was over 60 bushels.

THE annual meeting of the Kent Automobile Club was held Monday evening at office of Mr. James G. Beck. The following officers were re-elected:

President—Philip G. Wilmer.
Vice-President—Thomas W. Perkins.
Secretary—James H. Coles.
Treasurer—Merrick Clements.
Board of Managers—Allan A. Harris, W. B. Copper, P. A. M. Brooks.

The club hope to have an oyster scald at an early date so as to rally all members.

BETWEEN eighty and one hundred rabbits were killed the first day of this season on the farm of Mr. Arthur L. Harris, near Betterton. Over fifty rabbits were killed one day last week on a farm near Worton.

The regular meeting of the Still Pond Grange will be held in the Grange Hall Saturday afternoon at 2.30. Every member is requested to be present.

P. M. BROOKS, Chestertown, Md.

THE Derrickson place, near Edesville, has been purchased at private sale by Messrs. Walter and John Hadaway.

ROSES, the last of the season, were cut this week from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Lambert's yard on Kent Circle.

SPORTSMEN bagged 53 rabbits in Still Pond Neck one day recently. Capt "Bun" Taylor says they nearly cleaned up the breed in his neighborhood.

THE outlook for tomato contracts in 1917 is fine. A packer on a visit to Kent friends this week says the farmers can get at least 25 cents per basket for tomatoes next season. He expects to can and thinks he can readily sell his pack in advance on a 25-cent basis.

THE National Grange meeting in Washington was a big affair. Mr. J. T. Anthony, of near town, was among those on the stage when President Wilson spoke and had the pleasure of shaking his hand.

PROF. MILTON MELVIN profited by the advice of our State College authorities this year. They advised to plant tomatoes in the same place as the previous crop owing to absence of potash so as to get the benefit of all the potash in the soil. He did this and reaped a crop of 7 tons to the acre.

SOFT COAL is selling at $6.50 per ton at the mines. If this price continues it will seriously cripple factories, electric, gas, laundries and all manufacturing concerns.

THE Choral Club met as usual Tuesday evening. A letter of sympathy was ordered sent to their leader, Prof. Ten Hoor, and Mr. Alwyn M. Culp selected to direct the rehearsals until his return.

THERE will be a meeting at the Eastern Shore Inn, Monday at 3 P. M., for the completion of the organization of the Kent County association for prevention and relief of tuberculosis; also to arrange for the sale of red cross Christmas seals. It is hoped that every part of Kent county will be represented at this meeting. 75 per cent of the proceeds from sale of the stamps is to be retained for use in this county.

LOCAL buyers are paying 30 cents for turkeys.

WEDDING NOTES

Miss Nan M. Willson, of Rock Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willson, was quietly married to Mr. Louis E. Pumphrey, of Marley, Anne Arundel county, at St. John's Catholic Church, Wednesday, November 22, at 12 30, Rev. Father Urner officiating. A bounteous dinner was served to a few friends on the eve of the wedding. The bride wore a suit of dark blue broadcloth and carried white carnations. Mr. and Mrs Pumphrey left for a trip to Norfolk and Richmond, and after their honeymoon will reside at Marley, Md.

Emerson R Crothers gave his friends a genuine surprise Saturday evening by taking unto himself a wife. The bride was Mrs. Maud Holt, of Philadelphia, formerly Miss Maud Hague, of Elkton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hague. Mr. and Mrs. Crothers will make their future home in Philadelphia. After the wedding the couple left in the groom's automobile for a trip to Atlantic City.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Alderson was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding Wednesday evening, November 15, when their daughter, Mary Rickards Alderson, was married to Mr. John Albert Redding, of near Georgetown, by the Rev. J. A. Mitchell, only the immediate relatives of the families being present. Mr. and Mrs. Redding were tendered a serenade Friday evening, attended by guests from Betterton, Galena, Fredericktown, Georgetown, Cecilton and Still Pond.

The Whatcoat M. E. Church, Snow Hill, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday morning at 11 30 when Mr. George W. Vincent and Miss Miriam Pool were married. Rev. L. E. Poole, father of the bride, performed the ceremony.

The bridal party entered the church from the East entrance and proceeded slowly down the aisle to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march which was rendered by Dr F. B. Manchester, the church organist. The ushers were Messrs. Chas. Clarke and Walter C. Turner. During the service "O Promise Me" was softly rendered by the organist and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the couple left the altar. The bride was attired in a blue traveling suit with hat to match, gray gloves and shoes. She wore a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. On their return from wedding trip they will reside temporarily with the bride's parents. Mrs. Vincent is an accomplished musician and well known in Kent where her father was stationed a few years ago. Mr. Vincent is the popularly known Jeweler.

FIRE ON BARKMAN FARM

A fire started in the fodder shed on the Barkman farm about noon on Wednesday and did considerable damage. The stable, cow shed, fodder rick and straw rick were destroyed together with some machinery, $150 worth of hay and other items. The property belongs to Mr. A. J. Bolin and was partly covered by insurance with the Kent Mutual while the total loss will double this amount.

SEEK MISS RANKIN'S HAND

Since her election to Congress Miss Jeanette Rankin, the first woman lawmaker, has been showered with proposals of marriage from all sections of the country. Her pictures also are being sought by scores of firms and agencies for advertising purposes.

One Oklahoma lawyer, "temporarily employed at picking cotton," asks Miss Rankin's hand. A tooth paste company offers $5,000 for a photo of her teeth. An auto company wants to present her with a new machine if she will consent to advertisement of her ownership.

THE hotel proprietors down the Peninsula have raised the price of dinner and supper to 75 cents each.
