SATURDAY. NOVEMBER 25, 1916.

LET all the people give Thanks to Him from whom all good gifts come.

THANKSGIVING Day! Everyone can find something for which to give thanks. Count the many blessings, then be grateful.

MR. Hughes evidently has given up the idea of returning to Washington as his house there has a "For Sale" sign on it.

THE official inauguration of President Wilson will take place on Sunday, March 4th. It has not been decided whether to have the big parade on the following Monday or to discard it as is the case of the big ball.

SUNDAY was observed as a day of rest in Chestertown and no one was inconvenenced nor suffered because of the denial (?.) Now, why not continue. It is the lawful thing to do as well as the right thing. The good example is already bearing fruit. Mr. Schauber announces that he will hereafter deliver milk Saturday afternoons during the winter, instead of on Sunday. He wants a rest too.

THE Adamson eight-hour law was held unconstitutional, Wednesday, by Judge William C. Hook, in the United States District Court. A prompt decision was rendered to expedite a hearing before the supreme court. The railroads and government plan to have a final settlement before Act goes into effect at beginning of next year.

TUESDAY was a great day for labor and two important events had their origin in our home city, Maryland. Mr. Schwab announced that the Sparrows Point works would ultimately furnish employment for between 15,000 and 20,000 men, with an annual payroll of $20,000,000. The United States Steel Corporation announced an increase of 10% in the wages of its employees—an increase affecting 200 000 people and adding $20,000,000 to that corporation's payroll. Announcements of increases in the wages of New England mill hands indicate that probably $10,000,000 will be added to payrolls there, and New York city has made increases amounting to $1,147,180 in the salaries of 18,400 employes,

President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor speaking in Baltimore shouted a "declaration of war" to capital, crying, "Lay on Macduff, and damned be he who cries 'Hold! Enough!'"

THERE were 383 guests at the Schwab dinner at the Belvedere Tuesday night and the cost was $20 per plate. Here is the menu:

Buffett Russe. Romanoff Caviar.
Cocktails, etc
Chesapeake Oysters.
Celery. Pecans and Almonds. Olives.
Maryland Diamendback Terrapin.
Hot Maryland Biscuits.
Canvasback Duck. Havre de Grace.
Hominy Brasier.
Salad
Romaine. Casaba.
Old Baltimore Country Ham.
Fromage.
Camembert. Roquefort.
Ices. Petit Fours. Bon-Bons.
Cafe.
Louis Roderer. Brut 1906 (English Market.)
Special Cuvee. Duff Gordon 1876.
Chambertin Chauvenet 1904.
Liqueurs White Rock.
Cigars. Cigarettes.

We wager that most any mother in Kent can beat this menu as well as cost. Most any church or grange festival provide a bill of fare which at the Belvedere prices would cost from $10 to $15. Kent countians live high.

THE Emperor of Austria-Hungary, Francis Joseph, died Tuesday night. He has been but a figure head in the struggle so that there will be no change in the attitude of this empire toward the war. It is doubtfull if in all history there has been an active, authenticated reign longer than that closed by the death of Francis Joseph, At 19 years of age he ascended the throne of Austria upon abdication of his uncle, Ferdinand I, December 2, 1848, his death ending an active reighn of nearly 68 years, all but the first 20, which he was also Apostolic King of Hungary.

In his own country he faced internal dissension and external aggressions from the moment he came to the throne. By the war of 1859 with France and Saradinia he was forced to cede Lombardy to Italy; by force of arms and treaty he lost the Duchy of Holstein to Prussia and Venice to Italy; and by the revolt of Kossuth, the Hungarian patriot, he barely escaped having his dual empire cut in two.

THERE isn't a more satisfied man in the world than the man who darls himself in Adler-Rochester clothes—Sold everywhere by the best dealers—Local agents Bordley & Sons—The Men's Store. See their show windows.
