Mr. Samuel Caldwell, Sr., who has been confined to his room for quite a long time, is now able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Duhamell and Mr. and Mrs Merritt Loller, of Earlville, were visitors in town on Sunday.

We are glad to report that Rev. J. M. Sutton is quite well again and able to resume his usual church duties.

Among those from town who attended the dinner given at the Du Pont Hotel on Friday were Messrs. H S Dempsey, Harry Bolton and James Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fowler spent one day last week in Wilmington.

Miss Carrie M Dempsey entertained her five neices and a few of their little friends on Monday evening to a little birthday supper. Later much sport was found in unrolling a stunt ball, hunting lost treasures, an advertisement mix up, etc.

Mr. Ernest Hicks, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is some better at this writing.

Mr. Jas. Hicks, Jr., is home for a few days assisting his father in the shop

Dr. E. A Scott and wife and Mr. and Mrs Holt Woodall attended a Grange meeting in Baltimore last week.

Mr. Irving Vansant and family, of Wilmington, are visiting his brother, Mr. L. R. Vansant.

Mrs. J. W. Latimer visited relatives in the lower part of the county last week.

MILD WINTER AHEAD

Charles Beackley, the Clevelandville weather prophet who has gained celebrity for the accuracy of his prognostications, says all signs point to a mild winter. The wet spring and dry fall are sure to be followed by a mild winter, he says. The corn husks are thin, there are few chestnuts and acorns, hornets' nests were built low this summer, chickens are molting late, crows are not collecting in large flocks, the fur on the caterpillar is very thin and the middle band across the back of the worm is light brown, while the end bands are quite dark—all of which means mild winter weather ahead, Beachley declares.

ONE of the bright lights reflected from the fires of November 7, was the reelection of "Ben" Lindsey, Denver's famous Juvenile Court Judge, who ran ahead of his ticket and won by a margin of 10,000 votes

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and everlasting memory of our dear daughter and sister, ELIZABETH HESSNER, who departed this life Nov 25, 1909.

Seven years have passed my heart still sore,
As time goes on I miss her more,
Her loving smiles, her loving face,
No one can fill her vacant place.

MOTHER.

Seven years have passed with us apart,
The wound has never healed,
The pain will never leave our hearts,
Since your lips in death are sealed.
Heaven retaineth our treasure,
Earth the lonely casket keeps,
And the sunbeams love to linger
Where our darling sister sleeps.

NEARLY 5000 Democrats from Delaware, Kent and Cecil counties, Md., participated in a parade held in Middletown Tuesday night, to celebrate the reelection of Wilson and Marshall. The line was headed by Mrs. C. Malcom Cochran and Miss Albert Cochran, driving a donkey. Edwin E. Shallcross, president of the Wilson and Marshall Club, was mashall; 300 horsemen under David R Rees followed and 300 automobiles followed in the rear. Three bands furnished music.

Mr. Watson, like thousands of other merchants, is saving moremoney by using a VIM. He writes in part as follows:

"Gentlemen:—I formerly employed a number of horses and wagons, but I am now making my deliveries with one VIM Truck. I should say it will easily do the work of two horse and wagon outfits, and costs about the same as one horse and wagon."

THOMAS WATSON, 324 N. 13th Street.

Mr. Watson is covering more territory, making more sales, developing more new business because he has a VIM.

He has a graceful, "classy" car that is advertising his business.

He has a sturdy, durable, economical car that stands hard work.

And besides he is saving real money. You can do the same.

Off The Hook

When you leave the telephone receiver off the hook, you put the line out of commission. Nobody on that line can make or receive a call.

This causes much annoyance and loss of time to all concerned and possible loss of money and life—all on account of somebody's carelessness.

Always put the receiver back on the hook when the conversation is finished.

When you telephone, smile.
