ROCK HALL

The Sons and Daughters of America, attended in a body, Divine Service at the M. E. Church on Sunday morning and listened to a wholesome discourse by pastor Prettyman.

The revival services continues this week, with increasing interest. A number have professed conversion. Rev. Mr. Jester, pastor of St. James Church has assisted Rev. Prettyman this week.

Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Kendall and daughter, Miss Rebecca, and Mrs. Kendall's sister, were motoring among us on Sunday. The presence of Mr. Kendall, who was one of us in the days of other years, in this section, was good to the sight of old acquaints. Come again Virgil and stay longer.

Mr. Wm. Biggs, Mayor of Grey Town for 16 years, has moved into town, occupying a portion of the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Walbert.

Yes, "we uns" spent Thanksgiving thankfully, notwithstanding the continual upward flight of living cost, but it compeled an effort, when we are told by our merchants that they are buying now for twelve months hence, in order that we may be able to keep body and soul together.

Mr. Thos. W. Burger was taken suddenly ill while on the oyster bar last week. He was alone at the time, but managed to reach the harbor and his home unassisted. He doesn't know how he got home. His illness seems to be paralysis of the brain, it is said. His son George, who lives up the county has been giving attention to the patient, who is now improving.

Mr. John N. Burger, of Baltimore, made a special trip in response to notice of his brother's illness.

The boys and girls, formerly of Rock Hall, that are spending Thanksgiving here, are very enthused over the enjoyable evening they spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Senger, on East Madison street, Baltimore, Md, Wednesday, November 22nd, the event being in the honor of Miss Ruth Whaland, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Whaland, of Rock Hall. Little Miss Hilda Senger rendered several selections on the piano. At a late hour they were ushered to the dining room where refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Ruth Whaland, Kathleen Urie, Anna Legg, May Parker, Amanda Hegan, Anna Keating, Nellie Wilkens, Margaret Harris, Hilda Senger; Messrs. Bennie Durding, Lewis Smith, Leslie Sewell, Arthur Watson, John Perkins, Grandville Davis, John Guckert, J. Michelson, and August Pahl.

CORNER STONE LAID

The corner stone for the new William Smith Hall at Washington College was laid at 3 o'clock last Monday afternoon. The address was delivered by William W. Beck, Esq., who in well-chosen and appropriate words gave the history of the college and told of its difficulties and triumphs. Dr. J. W. Cain, principal of the college, was master of ceremonies. Those witnessing the event were members of the Board of Visitors and Governors, the faculty and students and others.

On the front of the stone is the lettering: "Rebuilt in 1916," with the names of the Visitors and Governors. On the end of the stone is the name of the principal, vice-principal, the builder and the superintendent. Within the stone was placed a number of articles which includes the KENT NEWS and other papers.

The old corner stone of the building has been cleaned and replaced in its former position where it was originally placed in 1906 An interesting fact is noticed in looking at the old stone, of the list of Visitors and Governors on that old stone, twelve have died and two resigned making, fourteen in the short space of ten years.

I. O. O. F. RALLY

Under the direction of Wm. T. Medford, Special District Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Maryland, I. O. O. F., a rally was held in Cox Memorial Hall, in the town of Sudlersville, Md., last Thursday evening, Nov. 23rd, and the initatory and three degrees were conferred upon a class of 33 candidates, as fellows: M. E. Hudson, Massey; L. B Emory, Barclay; Frank S. Bottomly and J. B. Stevens, Millington; H. O. Brown, Geo. Usilton and J. Frank Scott, of Price; William E Lane, H. L. Donovan and H. W. Reed, of Chestertown; W. H. Temple, E. A. Lambert, N J. Brown, H. V. Gould, J. A. Jones and D. Edgar Hurlock, of Church Hill; N. A. Johnson, R Oscar Roe, C. L Roe, W. Walter Walls, T. Mason Baxter, J. L. Wallace, Jacob Weller, Foster Sudler, Wm. T. Green, H. O. Booker, J. W. Stafford, C. M. Grubb, J. Earle Gilfillan, Denver C Benton, W. Ralph Walls, J. Seward Barwick and Walter Stant, of Sudlersville. The degrees were conferred by Miller Lodge, No. 18, of Easton, Md and Monumental Lodge, No. 14, of Baltimore city. This now makes the roster of Massey Lodge, No. 157, of Massey, Md., to which lodge the new members are connected, with number 167, and had the weather permitted the class would have been much larger, as there were 67 elected to receive their degree at the rally for Massey Lodge alone. E. J. C Parsons, Grand Master, made the first address of the evening, and was very well pleased with the way and manner that the boys had worked and also the degree staffs. Other addresses were made by Grand Treasurer Plummer, George Harrisburg, member of Monumental Lodge, and Brother Medford, the Grand Master, presented to W. T. Medford, in behalf of the Grand Lodge, for his active work, a handsome collar of his rank in the order. Much credit is due our worthy brother, J. Thomas Nickerson, for his activity in this rally, as he presented 15 of the 33 members admitted. After all the routine work was completed, the hall was turned over to Brothers Charles B Chance and J. W. Paynter, members of the entertaining committee, who then served the 200 guests with hot coffee, sandwiches and ice-cream.

THE Road Engineer for Kent says it was a misunderstanding as to his department furnishing autoes for the supervisors. They bought their own cars and will simply be supplied with oil and gasoline These will carry a red flag, so that if there is a washout, a broken pipe, a hole in bridge or road, they will be obliged if the public will notify them. Engineer Applegarth may always be reached by phone also.
