ENGINES

Do You Consider Putting in an Engine For Pumping?

If you are now using a large engine for pumping, have you thought of putting in a small one just to do the pumping and save money in wear and tear and in fuel consumption. It will not take long to save enough to pay for a small engine. We have sold a number of small engines for this purpose this Fall. Our latest offer for 1½ H. P. engine with built-in Webster magnety, speed regulator and every other modern attachment is

$40.00

This price is good until Dec. 1st, as we have notice now of an advance on that date. You have to see this engine to appreciate it. Larger sizes in Throttling Governor Oil-burning Engines at correspondingly low prices. 5 H. P. at

$120.00

This is not a cheap line, but a good line at a low price.
We install Engines, Pumps, Tanks, Piping all at moderate prices. Let us estimate on your wants.

INCIDENTS OF NOTE

Mrs. Julia Crawford, a popular and attractive resident, of lower Kent, was stricken with paralysis Sunday at the home of Mrs. John E. Hadaway and is quite ill. Dr. Selby is attending her.

Mrs. W. E Peregoy, while on a visit to her daughter and sisters, in Baltimore, last Friday night fell on the street and broke a bone in her wrist. She was taken to Hopkins Hospital and broken bones set. Mr. and Mrs. Peregoy returned Monday evening and she is doing nicely and learning to use her left arm.

Mr. Walter Truitt, about 18 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Truitt, of Chestertown, while riding a motorcyle on the state road near Galena, Tuesday, was run into by an automobile and sustained a fracture of his left leg. He was brought to town and attended by Dr. H. G. Simpers. Walter is employed in Wilmington and was on his way home to spend a few days holiday with his parents. The auto which ran into him stopped and brought him to Chestertown.

Mr. William Walter Chapman when near Mr. J. B. Hossinger's last Friday evening met with an accident to his auto causing the machine to turn completely over. The steering gear got out of order causing the machine to run up the bank and topple over, Mr. Chapman escaped with slight bruises, but the auto was badly damaged.

Mr. Lois Rust had one foot badly bruised when the handle-bars of a motorcycle he was riding broke some miles from town last week.

OUTBUILDINGS BURNED

The barn, stable garage and other smaller buildings on the farm of Hope H. Barroll, Esq., near town, were burned early Tuesday morning together with a horse, pony, 8 tons of hay, corn, some implements, two rabbit dogs, terrier and other things. Mr. Jack Barroll was the first to detect the fire and he quickly removed a brand new Chalmers car and their old car. Constable Jack Jester, who had been on duty at a colored dance and about 1 A. M. was on his way home when he saw the blaze. He broke open the stable door and had saved three horses and was coming out with the pony when a fourth horse kicked him and knocked him down. He crawled out of the way of the blaze and was helped by Mr. Edw Robinson to a safe place. Mr. Jester says the pony ran back into the stable after he had brought him outside.

The Fire Co. responded nobly but had no means of fighting the fire. Only the direction of the wind saved the elegant home. The total loss will be about $1800, partially covered by insurance with Mr. Edgar Beck and a Pennsylvania company.

The loss of the Shetland pony is felt by the the children on Water street as well as by Mr. Barroll. He was brought to town for Master William Smith when but six months old and sold to Mr. B. who grew fond of him.

When first seen the blaze was up in the hay coming out from around the cupola and its origin is a mystery.

WEDDING NOTES

Mr. Ira Younger and Miss Catharine Langle, both of Worton, were married at the M. P. parsonage in Chestertown on Thursday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. L. Ward.

An engagement of interest just announced is that of Miss Valerie von Dorsner Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Marbury, to Mr. Lethered Barroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, of Chestertown.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Birnbach announce the engagement of their daughter, Jessie Vincent, to Mr. Cleveland Justis, of Boston. The wedding will take place at St Clement's Church, Massey, on Wednesday, Dec. 27th, at 2 p. m. No cards.

GRANGE DISCUSSES SINGLE TAX

The Maryland State Grange, at Easton elected Mrs. Acca V. Crew, of Kent, to be Secretary and a wise choice it is, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mrs. E. L. Hartshorne, of Montgomery county. Mrs. Crew has become one of the most popular woman in the organization and was elected on first ballot by a large majority.

The grange adjourned after the discussion of the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That we favor the abolition of the general tax and favor the taxation of the value of land irrespective of improvements.

"Resolved, That we favor the taxation of all land held out of use, at its full selling or speculative value.

"Whereas, There are in the United States more than 2 225,000 tenant farmers and the constantly increasing number bodes ill for the perpetuity of our republic: therefore be it

"Resolved, That as the remedy for this crying evil we favor the taxing of the annual rental value of land for fiscal needs for government. The effect of this would be to make it unprofitable use. This would at once enable working tenant farmers to acquire homes of their own and become indepedeot, self respecting citizens of the republic, and it would destroy land monoply." The NEWS will have an excellent article on this subject next week.

Local Notes

THE Hicks blacksmith shop has been rented to Mr. Everett Sheats, of Worton, Mr. Noble Gears resuming his position at the old Worton shop. Mr. A. J. Hackett will remove from Chestertown to Baltimore.

THE Maple avenue garage is being enlarged with a new two-story building front. Messrs. Bacon & Hackett are doing a fine business and giving satisfaction.

W. P. NEWNAM, of the Chestertown music store, will give victrola recitals as follows: Galena, Monday, Dec. 11th; Millington, Tuesday, Dec. 12; Betterton, Thursday, Dec. 14th. See adv. in this issue for particulars.

THE Fire Co. responded nobly but had no means of fighting the fire. Only the direction of the wind saved the elegant home. The total loss will be about $1800, partially covered by insurance with Mr. Edgar Beck and a Pennsylvania company.

THE first gunning accident of the year occurred in Kent Thursday, when Wm. Beck was accidentally shot by John Hawkins, both colored, in Mr. J. B Jaquette's yard, near Edesville, when a rabbit ran across the yard. The load took effect in Beck's body and he died about 4 o'clock Friday morning. The shooting was purely accidental.

THE Chestertown Boy Scouts are helping sell the Red Cross Christmas Seals. This is a fine thing. The Boy Scouts are always on the side of things that are for the aid or betterment of the county or community.

MR HOWARD STRONG has purchased the wood from a large tract of timber land from Mr. Miller Strong and Mr. J. W. Crouch, and will clear the land of the timber and wood.

THE Baltimore Sun of Sunday contained a good picture of Mr. Norman Crouch, of Chestertown, who is with Company I, Fifth Maryland Regiment, at Eagle Pass. Norman is becoming acclimated to the service and writes that he is well satisfied with the discipline. He has been stationed on a ranch with other troopers for some weeks and finds this work somewhat monotonous.

THE all-star football team made up by Sprague, of the Sun, puts Young and Schelburg, of W. C., on the first team, and Carey Jarman, of St. John's, captain of second team.

THE contractors began laying concrete the past week on the new road near Fannell's branch and hope to finish road so that the public can use same, at least as far as the bridge.

RESIDENT Engineer Gale has completed plans to paint the mileage on the culverts on the main State road between the various towns. Motorists going in either direction will be able to know the distance to the next town enroute by watching the ends of the culverts as they pass. The plan will be carried out from Elkton to Hurlock.

THE representative of the C. & P. Telephone Co., Balto., gave an interesting lecture Wednesday evening at the Grammar school entitled, "The Romance of the Telephone." Messrs J. A. Martin and A. F. Turner, of the Publicity department, had charge of the lecture.

THE cleaning of the streets of Chestertown by Mr. Edward Armstrong is appreciated by everybody. Now, let's have a garbage collection.

THE Woman's Club of Elkton entertained the Woman's Club of Chestertown Tuesday. Thirty five members from that club attending. The program included addresses by the President, Mrs. I. D. Davis, and the President of the Chestertown Club, Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard.

Miss Stoll and Mrs. Charles Warburton gave a most delightful reading taken from the Quarrel Scene in Sheridan's "School for Scandal."

A MEETING of the County Commissioners and road engineers of the Eastern Shore counties was held at Salisbury last week for the purpose of discussing the State aided road question and to adopt some unity of action for the future.

The meeting was called at the instance of the Board of Commissioners for Wicomico county, and President William C. Mitchell, of Wicomico Board, was made chairman, and H. Waldorf, road engineer of Caroline, secretary. Messrs. Carey Rinehart, John C. Woods, Benj. Crew, Sam'l Hicks and Owen C. Smith were present from Kent. Resolutions were adopted protesting against the alleged "drastic, prohibitory and discriminatory" rulings of the State Roads Commission regarding the construction of roads so as to entitle them to aid from the State, and requesting that the ruling be modified so as to permit shell construction when it meets local condition.

THE "Rainbow Kimona" will be given by the pupils of Kennedyville School this Saturday evening at 7.30. It will be a treat.

Lieut. O. H. Saunders, of the U. S. Army, now stationed in Texas, was a visitor to Kent this week. He visited the grave of his mother at Wesley Chapel an account of whose death at Cliff City was given in the NEWS last week.

LOCAL farmers who retail butter about town jumped the price this week without notice to 45 cents per pound.

THE barbers of Middletown and of Baltimore city have advanced the price of a shave to 15 cents. Next.

ON the 6 h page of the NEWS is an advertisement of a guaranteed Aluminum Cooker for $1—while they last. These grocers will feature the offer next week Herman Blackway, J. B. McIntire & Son, M. J. Lewis, S. E. Kirby, all of Chestertown.

TOULSON'S fish window won the prize this week. Mr. Speicher is a hustler.

1t COMMITTEE.

DEATHS

Mrs. George Venables died at her home in Wilmington on Saturday, December 2, after a long illness. She was 55 years old and leaves a husband, Geo. Venables, and the following children: Mrs. Elsie Walls, Beamer W. Lambert, Mrs. Lillian Jones, Richard E. Lambert and George D. Lambert. The remains were brought to Kent on Wednesday and interred at St. Paul's cemetery, Rev. Mr. White officiating. The bearers were Hero Kelley, Jeff. Redmile, Samuel Lecompt, Charles Adkins, Charles Shriver; O. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Maria A. Mettee, wife of M. Russell Mettee, died 12 30 o'clock Thursday morning at her home, 2213 Madison avenue, of heart trouble, from which she had been a sufferer for a number of years. Mrs. Mettee had been seriously ill for months.

Born in Baltimore, Mrs. Mettee was 59 years old and before marriage was a Miss Bottomley. She was a member of Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, Carroll R. Mettee. The funeral will take place at 2 30 o'clock this afternoon from the house. She also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Mary Healy, Mrs. Wm. R. Pippin and Mrs. R. Milby and one brother, Mr. Spear Brownley.

Mrs. Sarah A. Copper, widow of Joshva Copper, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Rote, on High street, Chestertown, Saturday evening, aged 81. The deceased was a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with a remarkably cheerful disposition and happy in the company of her loved ones and friends. During her long illness she has had the faithful and devoted attention of her daughters, Mrs. Rote and Mrs. Holleman and no expense was spared in looking after her needs. She leaves two sons, Thomas Harding and Robert Copper, besides two daughters. The funeral was held Wednesday, Dr. L. E. Barrett and Rev. T. F. Beachamp officating, interment in Still Pond Cemetery; W. H. Krusen, undertaker. The bearers were Messrs. Thomas Harding, Robert Copper, H. B. Rote, Dr. H. L. Dodd, W. B. and Jesse H. Copper.

In Chestertown, on Saturday evening, Dec 2nd, 1916, there passed from earth to heaven a rare and beautiful spirit in the person of Mrs. Sarah Copper. She was the widow of James D. Copper, who died in 1884, leaving the widow and four children, Thos. Harding, Mrs. Lee Holleman, Mrs. H. B. Rote and Robert W. Copper. Mrs Copper kept the children together with prudence, wisdom and tact until they reached their majority, and made homes of their own. Of late years she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Rote, in Chestertown, who, with a love and devotion that was as sincere and tireless as it was beautiful, gave her mother every comfort and convenience. The other children, grand-children and relatives visited her frequently and manifested their loving care for her every want. She was strongly attached to all the members of her family, and was fond of young company. Her bright, sunny disposition made everybody around her feel happy—the sunshine in her own soul was reflected in those with whom she came in contact.

She had her share of trouble and sorrow, but she never lost faith in God. In her young life she gave her heart to Christ and her name to the M. E. Church, and, as far as she could, occupied her place in the house of God, an attentive and appreciative listener to the Gospel. Her last days were brightened and cheered by the loving ministry of daughter and many friends. When the Messenger of Death touched her, without a tremor the wheels of life stood still, the gates of the celestial city opened, and she passed to her Heavenly Home. There are heart aches and tear-drops upon this side, but the crown of rejoicing upon the other side; there are shadowed homes here, but yonder eternal sunlight; here is the sad "farewell," yonder the joyous "All Hail!"

A FRIEND.
