IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our little darling, CHARLES W. ROBINSON, who departed this life one year ago today, Jan. 23, age 4 years and six months.

He has crossed the shining river,
And has gained the radiant shore,
Where no hearts with grief can quiver,
And all parting scenes are o'er.
LOVING PARENTS.

Little brother was a darling,
Pride of all our hearts at home,
But the angels came and whispered,
Little brother do come home.
LOVING LITTLE SISTER.

Although one year has passed away,
Since from me you have gone,
Yet dear. I miss you every day,
And still for you I mourn,
Oh, if at times the strain of grief,
Upon my cheeks appears.
It is because my saddened heart,
Finds some relief in tears.

Roses of love in scarlet dye,
Buds of hope that bloom in the sky,
I gather them up in moments sweet,
And lay them at my darling's feet.
Faded on earth to bloom in heaven.
BY HIS SAD AND LONELY GRANDMOTHER.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son, CARL ASHLEY, who departed this life one year ago, January 30, 1917.

Oh, what a weight of sorrow
Must his lonely mother bear;
The silent rooms, the empty bed,
The lonely, vacant chair.

In memory I often see
The one we loved so dear;
His voice grows so clear sometimes
I feel that he is near.
LOVING MOTHER AND FATHER.

The night was dark and still
As I passed his lonely grave;
Where my darling brother slept,
Whom we tried so hard to save.
BROTHER GRANVILLE.

When the evening shades are gath'ring,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
For our darling to come home.
SISTER THELMA.

Uncle Carl, how we loved you,
Loved around your knees to play;
We miss your welcome footsteps,
Your kind and loving face:
We miss your visits to our home,
We miss you every place.
BROTHER IRVIN AND SISTER IN-LAW.

His memory is as clear to-day
As in the hour he passed away:
I did My best, God only knew,
To save his life I could not do.
BROTHER OLIN.

Oh, how much we have misse you
Ever since you passed away.
NEPHEW AND NEICE, LAWRENCE & VIRGINIA.

In sad but loving remembrance of our darling baby, WILLIAM CLAUDE BURRIS, who departed this life one year ago to-day, Feb. 2.

God needed one more angel child
Amidst his shining band;
And so he bent his loving smile
And clasped my baby's hand.

Claude's little cradle is empty,
His clothes all laid aside;
And loving hearts are weeping,
For the one we loved has died.
LOVING PARENTS.

Where Canned Goods Went

To whom it may concern:

Word has come to me from some of the boys at Camp Meade that they did not receive any of the preserves, jellies, pickles, or fruits that were sent from Kent county.

I immediately wrote to Major H. T. Teate, the Division Quartermaster at Camp Meade, and told him of the report and asked him to investigate and see how this mistake was made. The following answer was received:

Headquarters, 79th Division,
National Army,
Office of Division Quartermaster,
Camp Meade, Md.
December 22d, 1917.

My Dear Miss Hubbard: Your letter of the 19th received and in reply will say that we did receive your letter telling us you had shipped to us by the Chester River Line, Pier 8 Light street, a lot of canned goods that had been donated by the ladies of Kent county for our soldiers at Camp Meade, to be used by our boys on Thanksgiving.

We sent our trucks, as requested by you, for this canned goods, it being 8 barrels and 13 boxes. Six barrels and 12 boxes for the white soldiers and 2 barrels and 1 box contributed by the colored people for the colored boys, and they were so distributed.

Most of the Kent boys are in the 310th Field Artillery, and these goods were sent to the Artillery Brigade Headquarters for distribution to the three regiments. These particular goods may not have reached the Kent county men, but I feel sure that practically all the messes received some portion of the several donations made by the ladies of different sections to the men at Camp Meade.

I regret very much that the good women of Kent county are disappointed in this matter, but feel sure that they will understand the situation when the facts are explained to them and realize that there was no carelessness or neglect attached to the distribution of these goods.

Very respectfully,
H. T. TATE,
Major Inf. N. A.,
Division Quartermaster.

The goods from Kent were shipped in accordance with the directions received from Mrs. Oscar Leser, State Chairman of Uncle Sam's Shelf Week. The idea of the ladies who started this work was that every boy at Camp Meade should have some of the canned goods for Thanksgiving, and that not one would be neglected. For these reasons our directions were that we should send our stuff to the camp and not to our boys alone, so that no boy from other localities would qe neglected.

We were also directed to send a small portion of our stuff to Fort Howard, and we accordingly sent 1 barrel and 1 box there, which was most graciously acknowledged. One barrel went from Betterton and one barrel from Rock Hall to Camp Meade direct, shipped by the local committee from those points; the remaining 8 barrels and 13 boxes were sent to Chestertown and packed and duly forwarded to Camp Meade.

Besides the above, even larger quantities were sent from other counties of the State to Camp Meade, and still larger quantities from Baltimore were sent there, so it seemed no boy would be neglected.

Upon receipt of Major Tate's letter I went to see Mrs. Leser, in Baltimore, and she told me she had been very much worried because she had heard similar complaints from other boys at the camp, but was unable to get a satisfactory report about the stuff shipped to Camp Meade.

I then motored down to Camp Meade myself and called for Major Tate, who is in charge, and when consulted he stated the stuff had been received and he himself distributed it among the different companies. He further stated that if any of the boys did not receive any of the canned goods or frult, it was because the camp was so large that there was not enough to go around, regardless of the large quantities received.

We certainly hope that very few of our boys from Kent county were neglected.

Very truly yours,
MIRIAM W. HUBBARD,
Chm'n Uncle Sam's Shelf Week.
