Clover Seed

Our first shipment of Clover, Alsyke and Timothy for this season arrived this week. We think the seed are as fine as we ever had to offer. The market has been steadily advancing and if the demand continues the price will go still higher. Our prices now are lower than if we had to buy to-day. We think that those who place orders now for future delivery will not regret it, as all indications point to further advances. This year's crop is only 64% of a normal crop, and much seed is being exported, which is making the demand on this country very heavy.

Come in and see the seed, as they are in the sack.

Stand by the Flag!

Washington's Birthday, Friday, February 22nd—Legal Holiday

THIS INSTITUTION WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY

The inspiration of Washington's staunch Americanism has this year a wonderful timeliness.

Upon the birthday of the Father of our country may we each resolve to maintain, individually and collectively, ideals worthy of our Nation, and to support those ideals by influence and action to the limit of our power.

Like Washington, may we be loyal Americans—far-sighted, energetic, courageous, patriotic!

Money Talks

To be sure money talks, especially money that is actively employed. Money that is idle is money asleep, and money doesn't talk in its sleep.

The place for money is in a reliable bank like ours, safe but subject to check. Hoarding money takes it out of circulation, and it is constantly liable to be lost. Money on deposit talks and the things it says to you are "security comfort, satisfaction." We invite you to open an account at the

DEATHS

Milton Baker died at his home on Mill street Tuesday morning, after a long illness, in his 80th year The deceased had been confined to his bed since before Christmas during all of which time he had the faithful ministrations of his devoted wife, loving daughter and dutiful son. His parents died when he was about 14 years of age, about which time he was "bound" to Charlie Ringgold, a contractor and builder at Millington, to learn a trade. He remained with Mr. Ringgold until he was 21 when he returned to Chestertown. He worked with Wm. O. Smith, R. K. Pippin and other carpenters and his work may be seen at many points in town. The greatest monument to the skill of the deceased as a mechanic is the new Christ Methodist Protestant Church. He was the master builder on this splendid edifice and so pleased were the committee with his work that they succeeded in employing Mr. Baker as sexton. Since 1887 he has continued to care for this building in his inimitable manner. As a mechanic the subject of this sketch stood alone in his skill and remarkableability. He believed in correctness and neatness and in all his surroundings and work these traits were plainly seen. His motto was "a place for everything, and everything in its place."

He was one of the organizers of the Reed Rifles in 1856 of which Major E. F. Perkins was captain, and of the original 60 there are only surviving—James W. Chapman, James W. Lambert, Alfred I. Benjamin and Freeman Fiddis.

He was a warm friend, a splendid neighbor and a man of sterling worth of both heart and head. We knew him well and appreciate him for his genial smile and ready help in-secular and church work.

He was married in 1856 to Miss Martha Frazier, who survives him, with two children, Miss Fannie and Milton Elwood Baker. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at his late home on Mill street, Rev. J. L. Ward officiating, interment in Chester Cemetery, C. L. Dodd in charge. The bearers were Walter U. Lusby, Wm. F. Russell, Wm. B. Usilton, Dr. H. L. Dodd, M. A. Toulson and Thomas White.

A. Cecilia Laws died at her home in Sassafras on Friday, January 25, at 7 o'clock. She was the daughter of Louis P. and Susan Ellison, of Bohemia Manor. The funeral services were held at her home the following Wednesday morning. The body was laid to rest in St. Georges Cemetery.

FARM LABOR

Discussion By Prominent Speakers At Meeting In the Chestertown Court House, Wednesday, Feb. 20, 1918, 1.30 P. M.

Since entering the war we are hearing much about conservation and increased production of food crops. We are told by National Leaders that food will win the war. That bread bullets will play a more important part than lead bullets. That farmers who grow bigger crops and more farm animals are performing just as patriotic a service as the men who go to the front.

In the work of increasing or maintaining our food and feed production, one of the biggest problems before us is the Farm Labor Problem. The meeting at the Court House next Wednesday is called for the purpose of considering how we are to solve this problem in Kent county the coming season.

Mr. W. M. Hillegeist, Labor Specialist of Farm Labor Bureau of the Maryland Council, will tell of the work of Bureau, and will explain how they expect to assist this summer. L. L. Burrell, county agent, is advised that Mr. George A. Mahone, Director, Compulsory Work Bureau, will outline a plan for making the Work Law more effective, and keeping our help more steadily on the job.

A Specialist from the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, will address the meeting on the subject: "Better Organization for Speeding Up Production to Win the War." He will tell us how to make the most efficient use possible of our available labor supply.

Every farmer is vitally interested in all phases of the labor problem and should plan to attend the meting.

THE personalty sale of Jas. D. Davis, Jr., of Galena, last Wednesday, in lower Cecil county, advertised in the KENT NEWS, was attended by a big crowd of people from all parts of Cecil and Kent counties. The fine stock brought big prices, and in fact everything sold well. Mr. Davis is a firm believer in the old adage that "it pays to advertise."

STANDING BY UNCLE SAM

The Food Administration, which has recently been investigating the sugar trade of the county, addressed one of their letters to a merchant of Galena. From his reply, sent them this week, we quote in part as follows:

My motto is—has been and will be—
"Support the Administration, right or wrong."
I'm with you—
I've no use for the Germans nor none of their ilk,
To crush them I'm willing to eat mush and milk;
I now have for breakfast oats, corn flakes and leek,
And this I am doing seven days in a week.
Tomatoes—baked fully—I use 'stead of meat,
And our corn gems for supper you'll find hard to beat.
Our snow cream is sweetened with genuine honey,
And in purchasing war bonds I've spent all my money.
You may think I am stretching—but I'm serving it straight—
I shout for Old Glory both early and late.
I'm true as the blue whereon are its stars,
And feel most assured we'll awaken old Mars
To a realization of what the Old Flag
Will mean to the Germans. Their odious flag
Will trail in the dust, the grime of the street—
Be trampled and torn 'neath America's feet.

Three cheers for the good work! With assurance of co-operation,
I am yours truly,
