Local Notes

The closing exercises at the Chestertown Grammar school were of an exceptionally fine character. The presentation of "Hiawath" by Mrs. Robinson's grade was beautifully executed and would do credit to professionals. Saturday evening the elementary grades under Misses Inez Russell and Rose Duyer gave a lovely program on the school lawn. The day was ideal and the children happy as birds. Misses Fannie Stuart, Laura Thomas, Edith Harley and Sue Dunbracco also assisted in t e program.

Bud F. Potts, of Rich Neck, lost two valuable horses Wednesday night. County Agent Oliver C. Jones, accompanied by Dr. Aikenhead, of Maryland State College, visited Mr. Potts' farm Thursday afternoon in an effort to ascertain the cause of their death and reported that it was believed to have been due to lightning or forage poisoning.

The members of the Chestertown High School presented the play "Claim Allowed" at Newark, Del., on Monday evening to a large audience. About $200 was cleared for benefit of Red Cross at Newark.

Grover C. Hadaway, who has been conducting the Depot Garage for the three months will move to Central Garage July 1, the owner W. H. Waddell, who has been seriously handicapped by having his mechanics taken in the draft, has decided to discontinue the business.

A meeting was held in the Chestertown M. E. Church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. Red Triangle League, C. L. Gates, of New York, was present in behalf of the good work. Fred. G. Usilton was made chairman of the meeting, and Harry F. Jefferson, secretary. There were about 40 people present, and 17 signed to join and each promised to get two new members. A nominating committee was appointed as follows: Dr. E. J. Clarke, Mrs. Mark Creasy and Miss Hallie Toulson and will report next Sunday at a meeting to be held in the M. E. Church at 12.15 o'clock. The membership dues are $1. Everybody who want to help in this great contest are urged to be present.

Dr. J. E. Graham picked his first ripe tomato Tuesday and thus maintains his reputation as the early bird in gardening.

Leonard Price, aged 24 years, whose home was at Churchville, deserter from the National Army, was shot and killed Thursday afternoon by guards at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds.

Thos. Boyer, one of the drafted men, has been diligently at work on the farm, therefore he was withdrawn and in his stead John Bayard was chosen. The latter claimed to be a farm laborer but had been loafing on the job.

A deputy of the automobile commissioners arrested 52 persons in Centreville Tuesday night for violating the auto law. The fines ranged from $5.75 to $17.25 each.

The Middletown hotel was offered at public sale and withdrawn on a bid of $12,000. It sold for $55,000 a few years ago when the town was "wet."

Messrs. Will Wallace, John Hall, Wm. Story and Thos. Hurlock were fined in Middletown last Friday night for "auto violations" to the tune of $130. Middletown seems to know how to do it.

R. E. Ringer, of Baltimore, sold his house and lot containing 4 acres, more or less, on Fairlee Creek, to Frank Maline, of Philadelphia, for $2,100. H. C. Crew, worton, sold his property on Still Pond Creek, containing 10 acres, more or less, to A. C. Frost, Dama, Fla., for $2,800. Both sold by H. T. Jewell.

Among the farm changes we note that James H. Groves will vacate the Wilmer home farm and remove to the Lusby farm while Edgar Pennington will tenant the Baxter farm. Frazier Meeks will tenant the Wilmer farm, Mr. Malcolm, of Harford removing on the Fisher farm.

Dr. M. Bates Stephens writes as follows to Dr. Clarke in reference to the work of the schools of Kent in selling stamps: "I have your report on Thrift Stamps for the month of May amounting to $7,734.15. I note with a good deal of pride the total sales made by your schools are more than $16,000. I think it is a splendid showing."

Professor Orem of Talbot County has completed taking the census of school children in the county between the ages of 6 and 18 years, and it looks now like the county will sustain a loss in this respect of over 300. As the State's apportionment of the school funds to the county is based on the number of children, it will be seen that the shrinkage in money for the schools will be considerable. The number at present is recorded as 5,700 and the new census will show around about 5. 402.

TWO WIVES CLAIM MOTORMAN NO. 1923

Arrested While On The Car, Where He Wooed His Second Spouse.

Baltimore News, June 18.

While his two wives were agreeing that each made a mistake when she married him and also when she mended his clothes, Motorman Number 1923 of the Harford avenue line, who was referred to under several names in the Northeastern Police Court today, was held for the Howard County authorities on a charge of bigamy.

In this case it will not be necessary to refer to the wives as wife No. 1 and wife No. 2, because, according to the testimony, motorman 1923 married Miss Annie B. Broaders on February 24, 1913, under the name of August F. Lohoefer, and on June 6 of this year married Miss Ethel Mason of 1238 East Madison street, under the name of Edward W. Urie.

Motorman 1923 and Mrs. Lohoefer lived happily until early in May, when his car broke down and while waiting for assistance met Miss Mason, who had been introduced to him in Rock Hall under the name of Urie. A rapid courtship followed and on June 6 they went to Ellicott City and were married by Rev. J. Edward Snyder.

Mrs. Loheofer wondered what had become of the father of her two children—Fannie, 4 years old, and Carl, 1 month old. When she heard that he had been seen frequently at Madison street and Central avenue with another woman she went last night to investigate. In that neighborhood she inquired if anyone knew Motorman 1923 and was told that he had recently married Miss Ethel Mason.

Mrs. Loheofer complained to Patrolman Shertle, who stopped Motorman 1923's car at Madison street and Central avenue, but allowed him to proceed with the car to the end of the line, where Round Sergeant Plantholt placed him under arrest and sent him to the Northeastern Police Station.

This morning Mrs. Lohefer told Justice Rohleder that she first met Motorman 1923 under the name of Schaffer when he was a sailor in the United States Navy. Mrs. Urie told the Justice that both she and her mother first knew him in Rock Hall as Edward W. Urie. The two wives left the station-house apparently good friends, while the husband was being taken to Ellicott City, where he will be held for trial. Mrs. Lohoefer lives at 312 North Eden street.
