SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1918.

Georgia passed the Prohibition Amendment Wednesday making the twelfth State. There are but 25 more needed.

Loyalty demands that Uncle Sam be the great spender during the war; he knows what is needed to win. And do not forget that every time you buy anything you reduce by that much the supply of labor and materials which he needs for victory.

The next draft will be July 22 when 2,000 white men from this State are called. A call for 600 colored men has been announced for July 15th. Kent will furnish her quota when the number is made known.

This has been a great victory week. The Italians drove the Austrians back with a loss of 200,000 men while the American forces have shelled the woods at Ballieu The U. S. has one million men in France and a hundred thousand going each week. Hold the line, boys, we're coming!

Another sugar scarcity is on. Kent stores are notified to allow only two pounds to a customer in towns and five pounds to rural customers at any one time. The only exception to this rule is in the case of sugar purchased for canning and preserving, sold only on signed certificate in the form prescribed by the Food Administrator. The limits on such sales are 25 pounds to city customers and 50 pounds to country customers.

The Anti-Saloon League has secured the services of Rev. A. J. Williamson from New York, to take Dr. Levister's place.

A SPLENDID CONVENTION

The W. C. T. U., that noble band of Christian woman who are doing much toward winning the world for temperance, held its convention in Chestertown Thursday. The program was full of excellent talks, good music and all that goes to an enjoyable day. Mrs. Addie B. Parsels, of Philadelphia, spoke for an hour in the evening. She is a great speaker, strong in physique, splendid in diction and remarkable in presentation of facts of history. She used Master Allen Robinson to illustrate some of her points and also to take up the collection. When 25 cents was put on the plate the little man whistled once and when a dollar was put on he whistled four times. Over $13 was raised and 20 new members received. Mrs. Emma Shafer presided in her usual graceful manner. A full report will be published next week.

Are You Doing Your Bit

The Government is needing large quantities of COTTON DUCK to fit out the ships to carry on the war and every yard the mills can produce should be made and delivered at the earliest moment. Men have been taken to carry the guns and women must take their places. Wages, such as labor never got before are paid to meet this want and all those that can do the work should step forward. We have about 40% of our plant idle that can produce what the Government requires, if those that labor do their part. We are now paying women as:

Weavers from $2.50 to $6.00 per day
Spoolers - $1.80 per day
Spinners - $2.50 per day
Young men- $3.00 Per day and other work in proportion.

If you want to help, and at the same time be well paid for doing it; write to, or call on:
