ROCK HALL

C. S. Porter has been enjoying ripe tomatoes since the 5th of this month.

Mrs. Raum, of Woodlynne, N. J., is visiting her son, Rev. A. F. T. Raum, pastor of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Leary and children, of Ford's Store; were guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Leary.

Mrs. A. Alexander will have eretced on her farm an implement shed for the convenience of her tenant, Mr. Hague.

Mr. and R. J. Reed, of Cecil county, and Edgar Renn, of Sunbury, Pa., were Sunday visitors to Wesley Chapel parsonage.

Miss Daisy M. Ryan has returned from a short visit to the city. She now has as guests her sister, Mrs. Levy and son, of Baltimore.

Blaustein and Alexander have their mid-summer bargain sales now in full swing and are meeting with generous patronage.

Good speakers from the County Metropolis in the interest of the Anti Saloon League will hold forth here in the church tomorrow (Sunday) evening.

The stork made a flying visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Colyer on Tuesday morning and presented the couple with a fine baby girl.

J. R. Ryan, Jr., has accepted a local agency with the Metropolitan Insurance Company, under the supervision of Mr. Schwartz, the general agent of Kent.

The Official Board of the M. E. Church are having a commodious garage built on the parsonage ground for the convenience of their pastor. J. T. Taylor is doing the work, assisted by Rev. Mr. Smoot.

This town was well crowded last Saturday night with people and cars from all sections of the lower half of the county. There were a number of soldiers among us. Big business was done by the merchants.

Gardners and truckers in this section are troubled with the corn and tomato louse. Lima beans are swarmed with the louse and the exceeding dry weather has got on the nerves of all of us. The potato crop seems to be very short.

The Rock Hall Jr. O. U. A. M. Council will attend divine worship at Wesley Chapel this Sunday morning at 10.30. Everybody welcome. Sunday school at 9.30 a. m. and evening worship at 8 p. m. Kesley Chapel. Broadneck, Sunday school at 2.30, preaching at 3.30.

Among the week-end and Sunday visitors were noted: Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll, of Quaker Neck; Mrs. Fleming and daughter, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith and children, of near St. Paul's; Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Ryan and daughter, of near Chestertown; N. G. and C. M. Rayn, of Quaker Neck and Queen Anne's; Herman Jacobs, of Baltimore.

Miss Ada Colyer has received a letter from her brother, Noris Colyer, a draftee from Philadelphia, who is now at Vancouver in training. He writes interestingly of the doings of the boys and the scenes along the route of six days travel. He has sent home quite a number of photographic cards and folders showing prominent scenes of cities, towns, landscapes, etc. He says don't worry about him, he is well and getting along fine.

If one may judge by the large number of vacant seats in the M. E. Church Sunday morning, the changing of the Sunday school session from afternoon to forenoon was a big mistake. In as much as the "hope of the church lies in the salvation of the young," every effort should be made for the convenience of the young and their parents for the ingathering of the young into the Sunday school. Let's hope everybody will soon adjust themselves to the new order.

The Patriotic Order Sons of America held the semi-annual election of officers at their last meet, with the following result: President, A. A. Toulson; vice-president, W. T. Downey; master of forms, B. H. Coburn; conductor, C. L. Kendall; inspector, W. D. Downey; guard, G. S. Rodney. Delegates to State P. O. S. of A. Convention, B. H. Coburn and W. T. Downey. The convention will be held in Cumberland next month, but as the expense of the trip will be at least $17.00 per man, it's likely the local camp will place an embargo on the trip.

STILL POND

Mrs. Howard Atwell and sons, of Wilmington, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Sallie Jewell.

Master Cleaver Bolton, of Kennedyville visited his cousin, Master Henry Krusen, this week.

William Thompson visited Camp Meade on Sunday.

GREAT 4TH OF JULY AT ROCK HALL

Rock Hall is still talking about it and it will probably be Christmas before the merits of the various floats and cars is finally settled.

It happened on July 4th and it was some event. They started by appointing a delegation of gig-saw puzzle enthusiasts as a route committee. They acquitted themselves nobly, they covered the whole town, only duplicated one piece of road, only appeared on the main street three times, and only turned sixteen corners. They next appointed a marshal. He did not show up so they appointed another and then decided they did not need his help and rearranged the order themselves.

The fact that they isolated "Our Allies" which was one of the best floats, by placing it first and following it with a "tin lizzie" that did not represent anything, was a slight mistake of judgment.

The "Goddess of Liberty" and the Red Cross followed "Liz" and revelled in her dust. They were only walking part of the parade.

We had the Kaiser in a coffin and a wire muzzle on the "yellow dog". We had American cow boys and Belgium refugees. We had girl scouts and boy scouts, Senior Red Cross and Junior Red Cross, Food Conservation and Liberty Loan represented in elaborately decorated cars and floats. It is hard to discriminate but "Uncle Sam and Our Allies" deserves mention among the floats and "Food Conservation" and "Red Cross" among the cars.

Everybody deserves praise for a great success but especially is this true with reference to Mrs. W. O. Selby and Miss Estelle Biddle. Our town officer is to be congratulated upon the clear route and perfect order that maintained. The parade was followed by speaking and one of the boys from "over there" held the crowd,—held, did I say—he gripped them He spoke of what he knew; he spoke from the heart; he spoke briefly, all too briefly, but what he said went home and what he left unsaid went home too. We had the best 4th of July, the sanest 4th of July, and the most patriotic 4th of July we have ever had in Rock Hall and we feel better for it.
