ROCK HALL

A pleasant and surprising family reunion occured near Grey's Inn on Sunday last, composed of the following persons: Miss Daisy M. Ryan hostess, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Levy and son, Rulin, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Crew, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hague and daughters, Marjory and Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ryan, Jr., and daughter, Margaret, Miss Amanda Porter, N. G. Ryan, C. M. Ryan, Mrs. J. E. Lambert and Ryan, Sr. The remaining connections of the family Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Ryan and daughter, Hazel, and Mr. J. E. Lambert were unable to be present, being at a distance. A royal good time was the result, with a sumptuous dinner served that would have made "Hoover" sit up and take notice had he been present.

William Rich, of Jefferson, was a week-end visitor among relatives here.

W. G. Hindes, employed at Aberdeen Proving Grounds since April, was a Sunday visitor to his home here. He is highly pleased with employment and all therewith connected. He has been promoted from ordinary laborer to assistant boss.

Mrs. A. P. Levy, of the city, with her son, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hague for two weeks.

The garment factory had a temporary shut down this week owing to a mishap. It is in full speed again at this writing.

One of our boot and shoe merchants is quite hot under the collar from reports. He ordered $700 worth of boots, long and short, his dealer sent him a lot of long boots of inferior make. Upon complaint, he was notified that he must accept what was sent him or do without till January 1st. His case is only a sample of what everybody is doing along all commercial lines, with no remedy in sight. Who wouldn't knife the Kaiser if he had the chance. No one but a Hun.

Capt. C. E. Davis has landed about 100 tons of coal at this place which is being distributed to all who have the dough.

Tomatoes are being taken to the market at a lively rate. Many tillages have been considerably affected by the recent rains and heat waves.

Our transient residents appeared more loyal in church attendance last Sunday than the home folks. All were treated to a fine sermon by Pastor Smoot.

Messrs. Smith and Bryers have completed a new coat of paint to their dwellings, which adds very much to fine appearance of the property.

KENNEDYVILLE

Miss Kathryn Hessner, of Philadelphia, has been visiting her mother.

Word was received that our Kent boys had arrived safely overseas.

Miss Jerdie Hall has been visiting Miss Blanche Scotten. Miss Blanche returned home with her.

Miss Rebecca Moffett spent the week-end with Miss Kathryn Myers.

Mrs. E. T. Othoson has been very sick with the quinsy the past week.

Miss Helen Haggerty is entertaining her cousins from Baltimore.

Mrs. S. E. Barwick is spending sometime with Mrs. John Clendaniel.

Miss Kathleen Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Web. Hill, near Kennedyville, was given a birthday party on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6, on 13th anniversary. Among those present were: Mrs. Pierce, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Maroney, of Wilmington; Mrs. Harry Hill, of Kennedyville; Mrs. D. C. Kelley, of Kennedyville; Blanch and Helen Stack, Margaret and Mary Tarbutton, Margaret Skinner, of Crumpton; Della Ford, Eva Wallace, of Chesterville; Nellie, Elizabeth and Charles Maroney, of Wilmington; Florence Cleaver, of Pomona; Margaret Long, of Norristown; Helen Baxter, Helen Hackerty, Regina and Anna Rasin, Ethel, Mary and Nola Hill, Catherine Bolton, Catherine Kennedy, Cathleen Hill, Robert and George Kennedy, Irving Loller, Norman Pennington, all of Kennedyville.

GALENA PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Shipley and Mrs. S. E. Shipley, of Wilmington, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dempsey on Sunday.

Miss Bessie Parr, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Harry Todd and Miss Jennie Parr.

At the quarterly meeting last week at Locust Grove, a vacation was voted to the pastor, Rev. Frank White. The length of time and date of which was to be at the discretion of the pastor. Bro. White expects to go away about the last of this week and there will be no preaching service at Olivet M. E. Church next Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dempsey and infant son, Caldwell, of Kennedyville, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Searles, of Wilmington, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dempsey on Sunday.

Thieves visited our town last week, taking a new Dodge automobile tire from Dr. George R. Jones' garage and also jacked up his car and took a tire off one of the wheels.

Eugene Snooks, of Washington, D. C., spent Sunday with relatives in town. Mrs. Snooks and Miss Parr, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Harry Todd returned to their home on Sunday.

Miss Emily Caldwell, of Beacom's College, spent Sunday at the home of her parents.

Harry Stradley is quite sick at this writing.

Miss Eve McCauley, who has been visiting her brother, Granville McCauley, at Clayton, returned home on Friday.

Miss Mary McCauley, of Wilmington, is spending her vacaion with her mother, Mrs. Eva McCauley.

Mrs. Frank McCauley and daughters, Genevieve and Eleanora, of Philadelphia, are visiting relatives in and near town.

Mrs. Joseph Ghene and little daughter, Sophia, of Baltimore, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruth.

Official notice came to the parents here of the boys who left Camp Meade some weeks ago, saying they have arrived safely over seas. This was indeed welcome news to everyone in the town and community. The days of waiting for news since they were supposed to sail have been long, anxious days to all the friends of "Our Boys." We are so glad to learn of their safe arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. George King, of Wilmington, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Caldwell.

Lecture on Chautauqua by

DR. CAROLYN E. GEISEL

Dr. Geisel has been returned to Chautauqua this year because of the universal demand for her. Her lecture will be in the evening. She will give an entirely new lecture and yet one equally as timely and important as that of last year. Her whole heart and soul is in her work. She was considered by many towns as the star of last year's program. One town writes: "The claim that she is one of the most powerful personalities in America is correct. She is a slight, petite, graceful woman with a voice of wonderful carrying power and captures her audience from the very beginning of her address. Several men and women in our town declared she was the greatest lecturer they had ever heard. It is hoped she may return next year."

She has been connected with the Battle Creek Sanitarium, Michigan, for twenty-one years.

She has been described: "A perfect dynamo of power," "The biggest little woman in the world," "Womanly woman, a powerful speaker, a crystal clear soul." The latter expression came from former Governor Johnson, of Minnesota. The Chicago Journal writes: "She is one of the most remarkable women in America—sounding a call to battle from the hill tops of the new day—and her message is for an awakened world."

LAST DAY AT CHAUTAUQUA

Batting-Keniston Company

The program of this company is a varied one, consisting of monologues, songs, impersonations and musical sketches, and will be one of the most enjoyable on the program of the whole week. The Chautauqua Association is fortunate in securing them.

Chautauqua in War Time

By DR. FRANK CRANE

Chautauqua is peculiarly an American institution.

Nobody invented it. It was not devised. It just grew.

Its roots run deep into the American character.

Its idea is that of a free assemblage of a sovereign people, every soul a king, every man looking upon the problems of the world, its governments and its morals, with a disposing eye.

The American people are always at school. They conceive of Education, not as the privilege of the few, but as the duty of the many, not alone for gentlemen and scholars, teachers and the learned professions, but also for Every Man, Every Woman, Every Child.

In War Time Chautauqua may be of invaluable service. Battles are not only won by soldiers at the front, but also by the spirit of the people at home. Equipped by long preparation in times of peace, the Chautauqua camps all over the country are now prepared, as is no other agency, to "keep the home fires burning," to maintain that intelligent patriotism, that clear understanding of what we are fighting for, that indomitable resolution to win and that cheerfulness and courage which are needed in order to make America one hundred per cent efficient in her gigantic task of "making the world safe for democracy."

President Wilson justly terms Chautauqua "an integral part of the national defense."

Never before has Chautauqua meant what it is going to mean in 1918. Here, in the free air of discussion will be blown away the subtle poison gas of German propaganda. Here the great Common People will be lined up to support, not in blind subserviency, but in discriminating loyalty, the government. Here will all good causes find reinforcement. Here will the greatest Crisis that ever was imposed upon the world be made to fuse the hearts of our people into a sturdy loyalty.

The hosts of Chautauqua this year will come to their places of assembly, in no rhetorical sense, but with true and earnest reality.

"Marching as to War,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before."

An accident occured on the draw of Chester bridge on Monday. A motor cycle coming toward Chestertown ran into a team driven by Sam'l Cranor, of Queen Anne's, who was returning from the creamery. Mr. Cranor was thrown from his seat and rendered unconscious, his face badly bruised and both shoulders hurt. Two wheels of the vehicle were demolished. The horse became detached and ran home. Mr. Cranor was picked up by Foster Parker and carried to his home when Dr. H. Benge Simmons was summoned. The driver of the motor cycle

HAND OF DEATH

Horace F. Anderson, formerly of Still Pond and son of the late Frank Anderson, died suddenly Saturday in Washington, D. C., aged 48 years. His remains were brought to Betterton Tuesday and funeral services held from the home of his sister, Mrs. Wm. Sykes, conducted by the Rev. A. W. Goodhand. Interment in Still Pond Cemetery; Undertaker W. H. Krusen.

Robert T. Armstrong, aged 80 years, died Tuesday, August 6th, at 8 o'clock p. m., at Church Hill, after a lingering illness of more than two years, the immediate cause of his death, however, being appoplexy. Mr. Armstrong was one of the oldest residents of Queen Anne's county and had lived in or near Church Hill practically all of his life. He served as clerk to the Board of County Commissioners for at least one term and was Justice of the Peace at Church Hill for about twenty-five years.

He is survived by a widow, who is a daughter of the late Josiah Massey, two sons and one daughter, viz: W. R. and H. K. Armstrong, of Baltimore, and Philadelphia, respectively, and Mrs. Henry Appleford, of near Church Hill.

James Blackiston, aged 72, died Tuesday morning, near town.

MONEY IS PLENTIFUL

But It is Hard To Keep Without A Bank Account

¶ No matter how plentiful money may be, you cannot keep it if you fritter it away.

¶ And to carry money around in your pocket affords an ideal opportunity for frittering.

¶ Any man may spend a dollar foolishly from his pocket when he would hesitate to draw a check.

¶ Money is plentiful in this country—more so than in any other country of the globe.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To Friends and the Public:

Relative to my recent appointment by the Conservation Commission of Maryland as District Deputy Game Warden for Cecil, Kent and Queen Annes counties, to enforce the law and conserve the Game and Fish for the benefit of our people at home and those across the waters defending our country, it is my desire to briefly state for the benefit of all concerned, the obligations and duties incurred by me through this acceptance, desiring most earnestly the co-operation of friends and citizens of these counties in helping me to conform to the requirements and the enforcement of our Game, Fish and other laws. Realizing that it is the duty of each citizen to help enforce the State and county laws, if you are or wish to become a highly respected citizen of this or any State, it behooves you—First, to become a part of that State and conform with its laws. It is not my desire, because of empowered authority, to encroach on or encumber any one's rights, and I would like to end my term as State Officer without the prosecution of a single violator, but this can be accomplished only by the assistance of my friends, and the public at large familiarizing themselves with our laws and thereby become non-violators.

I most respectfully solicit your hearty support in helping me enforce our State and County Laws and sharing that which is due us—the world's highest respect.

In performing my duty in accordance with the solemn oath required which is the most binding obligation to the people of our State, I will, without fear or hesitation, enforce our State Game, Fish and other Laws under my jurisdiction, regardless of who the violator may be, and I sincerely hope my frankness of explanation will be sufficient to warrant the public's recognition of my duties and wishes and the State's power.

Believing it advisable for the benefit of those interested in our State's welfare and a protection for all, we will later publish in this paper the State Game and Fish Laws, enacted by our last General Assembly. Should there be any questions that you may wish to ask pertaining to game or fish, it will give me great pleasure to consult with you in person or by letter.

The Conservation Board has requested that I recommend a number of reputable citizens from the counties under my supervision for the appointments of Local Deputy Game Wardens. These appointments make the appointees, state officers, without a stated salary, the compensation being one-half of the fines imposed for violations. Those wishing to be more patriotic and loyal to our State in helping conserve our Game and Fish food, aiding materially in helping win this great war, will without delay inform me of their desire and I will consider their application for appointment. Information pertaining to the violations of our State Game and Fish Laws will be treated strictly confidential and informant's name will not be divulged.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear baby, Beatrice Louise Walbert, who departed this life six years ago July 30.

Six mournful years have vanished,
We think of you while tear drops start;
But the memory of our dear baby
Still is fresh within our hearts.
By Her Loving Parents.

SANFORD—In sad but loving remembrance of Carroll, who died one year ago August 16th, 1917.

Out in the silent graveyard
Beneath the sod and dew,
Never a moment forgotten
In silence I think of you.
By His Loving Mother.

We mourn for you dear brother,
But not with outward show
For the heart that mourns sincerely
Mourns silently and low.
By His Loving Sisters.
