DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For Representative in the 66th Congress
JESSE D. PRICE
of Wicomico County
ELECTION TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Today is a legal holiday.

The Turk is doomed to his just reward—annihilation.

The influenza epidemic is an awful and terrible trial upon the individual and nation.

Good news continues to come from the battle front. The Germans are running for home.

There will be no peace with Germany even talked of until the criminals get out of France, Italy, Belgium and all other alley territory.

One of the principal objects of the U. S. treasury in the Fourth Liberty Drive is to secure the widest possible distribution of the bonds and to increase to the largest possible figure the number of individual holders of the bonds.

Unconditional surrender would be our answer to Germany's peace feeler. We have no faith in the murderous and robbing Huns and think that hanging is really too good for the Kaiser and his crowd, but we are willing to leave to the good judgment of President Wilson who will give the right answer.

The Senate refused to grant the request of the President that the woman suffrage resolution be passed as a war measure. After five days of bitter debate, the Susan B. Anthony Federal Amendment resolution, enacted by the House last January received on the final roll call six votes less than necessary two-thirds majority. Fifty-four Senators were recorded for it and 30 against it, with 12 absent and paired.

CONGRESSMAN TALBOT DEAD

Congressman J. F. C. Talbott died last Saturday night at 7 o'clock at his home, in Lutherville, Md., after a critical illness of 10 days, which became worse after the death of his old political friend, Dr. George Wells, of Anne Arundel county, a week ago.

Mr. Talbott had been unconscious for several hours before his death, and before night it was realized that he could not last the night out. The members of his family were all with him when he died. He was 75 years old.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END

American hopes are running high as a result of the withdrawal of Bulgaria from the war, because the significance of this action cannot be underestimated, and must mean the beginning of the end. With Bulgaria out of the war, Turkey and Austria threatening to with draw, and serious internal troubles existing at home, Germany finds herself in a terrible plight. Her dream of world domination is fading as does the mist before the rising sun—a dream which threatened the base-rock of civilization, but which now can never be realized.

The end is now only a question of time. It is true that Germany can, and probably will, fight on until she drops from sheer exhaustion—but there can be but one end to the conflict. America and her allies are waging a war of justice, and justice is bound to triumph.

The people of the allied nations, however, should not under-estimate the task that still remains, before the victories of our armies have brought the war to a close. There is yet much to be accomplished, much fighting to be done and many sacrifices to be made. The strong turn of the tide in favor of the Allies, as evidenced by the withdrawal of Bulgaria and the onward march of our armies in northern France, should but spur us to greater efforts and greater determination to make the victory one that will close the pages of war history for all times to come.

NEWSY TIDINGS FROM OUR BOYS

The "News" Will Be Glad To Mention Any Items of Interest You May Send About Your Soldier Lad

Mrs. Harold Curry, of Chestertown, visited her husband at Camp Lee, Va., this week.

Capt. G. Allen Jarman has been ordered to Camp Wadsworth, Spartansburg, S. C., and left his home in Chestertown this week for that place.

Relatives of Lieutenant Joseph A. Wickes, a son of former Judge and Mrs. Joseph A. Wickes, of Chestertown, have received word that he has been promoted from second to first lieutenant. Lieutenant Wickes is in the Marine Corps and is stationed at Galveston, Texas. Like the sons of so many other prominent families, Lieutenant Wickes got into the war game early. He had finished his course at Princeton University only a short time when war was declared, and he practically passed from school to the service. He has been at Galveston, where a number of other Marylanders are stationed, for some months.

The following letter was received this week from Arthur R. Cooper, a former employe of the Kent News:
Dear Mother:

Will drop you a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope that this will find you and all the same. Time surely is flying, September already. I haven't received any mail from any one yet, except forwarded mail from Camp Meade, but guess I will soon. We went on a hike yesterday and just came back today. About 13 miles each way and I feel fairly good, only am a little tired. The weather is surely good now, only it is warm in the day time, I guess it will be getting cold when this gets there. If the American girls and women or some of them could see the way the French women work they would surely think it funny, but it is good that they do, for if these women did not work some of them would go hungry, and you would laugh to see them washing clothes, a piece of stone for a wash board, but they get the clothes clean and generally wash in a ditch too. Give my love to all and tell them to write for sometimes mail gets lost. I guess some of mine has been lost. Well, be good to yourself, and take good care of yourself, as I am. Will close now, with love to you and all, remaining as ever, with love. Your loving son,

A. R. COOPER.

The pictorial section of the Baltimore Sun of last Sunday contained a photograph of Rolph Townshend, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney P. Townshend, now in the Quartermasters Department at Camp Holabird.

Private Allen Stevens, brother of Glanville, who died at Boston several weeks ago with pneumonia which followed influenza, is ill of the disease at Camp Humphreys.

Corp. Wm. Sterling Kelley spent a seven-day furlough from Camp Humphreys with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kelley.

Private Joseph Downey has been quite ill for some time following his last visit home. He is now able to be out again.

Philip Kratzer, of near Chestertown, left Wednesday for Gettysburg, Pa., to enlist in a U. S. Tank Service Unit. Word has been received from Henry Kratzer that he had arrived in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ashley, of Tolchester received a letter from their son, Corporal Olin Ashley, 32nd Reg., Field Artillery, saying that he is enjoying camp life very much, but feels anxious to go over to France.

The many friends of Shreeve Stevens were pleasantly surprised when he dropped into their circle on a five-day furlough. Shreeve has seen something of foreign lands during his nine months in U. S. N., but he says theres no place like U. S. and dear old Kent.

HEROES NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN

Marylanders who die in the service of their country in the great war are not to be forgotten.

The Publicity Committee of the Liberty Loan Committee is compiling a complete record of all who give their lives for liberty. This record is to be turned over to the State of Maryland for permanent preservation, and it is further designated that it shall be embodied in a lasting memorial of some sort, plans for which may naturally not assume definite shape until the conclusion of the war.
