In another column a visitor to Chestertown makes a kindly and practical suggestion as to a better parking system in Chestertown.

The News of Chief Judge Albert Constable's death was received in Kent with profound sorrow. He was greatly admired in this county and the people as a whole had for him the warmest regard. He was a judge in the true sense of the word—fair and impartial, intelligent and filled with common sense. Socially he was a favorite also his presence on the bench will be sadly felt throughout this judicial circuit.

STILL POND

Wallace and Clarence Ford also Wm. and Elwin Ford attended the Wilmington market this week with their produce.

Mrs. John M. Kinsey and daughter, Florence, are visiting her daughter Mrs. Walter Wyble in Baltimore.

Mrs. Wm. T. Stanley who has been quite sick is a little better at this writing.

Oliver Jervis and family have moved from Philadelphia to his farm near Still Pond which he recently purchased.

Tomorrow will be Missionary Sunday, so all be sure to come out. The speaker for the day will be Mrs. Edna T. Hill, of Baltimore, of the Waman's Foreign Missionary Society. She will speak at the morning and evening services. The Sunday school will have their annual Missionary Anniversary in the evening.
