Storage Batteries! Repaired

We are now repairing storage batteries of all makes, and having great success.

Having installed a complete repairing outfit and had a special course in battery construction we feel confident we can give the same results as city repair stations, saving delay in shipping, and can give you a report on the condition of battery while you wait.

Will test your battery and give advice free. Have this done once every two weeks.

Carriages

Our line of Carriages is full and complete. We have a good rubber Top Carriage, well made throughout for $85.00.

A Better Job, with fine leather top and leather trimmed throughout, a dandy, for $110.

Special—as fine a job as one wants to ride in. Either cloth or leather trimmed, has the easiest riding spring of any job we have ever sold. We have a few of these jobs left and they are now worth $140, but while this lot lasts they go at $125.

Runabouts

Nice job, in either red or green gear, at $50.00.
A better job at $70.00.

Dearborns

For the first time in 2 years we have been able to get ahead a small stock of Dearborns.

Our Dearborn is better than it has ever been, it has a fine Sarven wheel which is the part of a dearborn that has the hardest wear. If you have an old Dearborn you wish to trade in bring it along.

Wagons

Our Wagons need no introduction to you. We are using now the Staggerd spoke wheel, and if you could hear all the favorable comments you would decide that your next Wagon would be one of these. We have a few of these Wagons now ready for delivery.

HAND OF DEATH

Robert Temple Jarrell, one of Kent's well and best known young farmers, died at his home near Kennedyville Thursday morning in his 35th year. He had only been ill about a week with the "flu" and his demise is sad indeed. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Anna May Ruth Jarrell and three children. He was the son of Joshua R. and Emma Jarrell and leaves also a sister, Hettie Sparks Jarrell, now a red cross nurse in France, a brother, Oscar, in Canada, and another brother, Fred. W., of Kent. The funeral will take place this Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment in Still Pond Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Collins, formerly of Still Pond, officiating, C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers will be Henry George, Wm. Anthony, Linwood and Harry Redmile, Herbert Walbert and Charles Hague.

James Rayfield Morris died at the home of his father-in-law J. Romie McCauley on Mt. Vernon street on Thursday after a short illness of pneumonia, aged 20. His wife died about a week ago. He leaves a mother, Mrs. Emma S. Morris. The funeral will take place today, Saturday, at 10 a. m. at Sacred Heart Church, Rev. Father Earner officiating, C. L. Dodd undertaker. The bearers will be Wm. Clough, Marion Dixon, Joseph, Frank, John and James Quinn.

Mrs. Rachel Catherine Clayton, widow of the late Capt. John Clayton, died at the home of her son, Eugene Clayton, at Smithville, near Worton, on last Wednesday afternoon after a short illness of pneumonia, aged 69 years. She leaves two sons and one daughter. Funeral services were held at Shrewsbury P. E. Church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock p. m., Rev. S. S. Hepburn officiating. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining. Undertaker W. H. Krusen.

William Nelson died at the home of Lewis Price near Lynch, Tuesday morning of kidney trouble, age 69 years. Funeral was held from his late home on Thursday morning. Rev. S. S. Hepburn in charge. Interment in Chester Cemetery, Wm. H. Krusen undertaker. The deceased was a brother of the late Charles Nelson.

Thomas B. Elliott died at his home on High street Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after a two weeks illness of Brights disease, aged 63 years.

The deceased leaves his widow who before marriage was Miss Mary V. Baker, and the following children: Miss Zoa V. Elliott, of Chestertown; Allie, of Baltimore; Mrs. Clarence Wise, of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. Frank Lewis, of Baltimore. The funeral was held from his late home on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. L. Ward, interment in Chester Cemetery. The following acted as pall-bearers, Thomas Holdson, Miller Maslin, Wm. M. Lusby, Wm. J. Elliott, John Bartley and James Allen. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Francis, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finley Thawley, died Saturday at 1.30 o'clock at the home of its parents on High street of pneumonia following influenza, age five years. Funeral was held on Monday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. L. Ward, interment in Chester Cemetery. C. L. Dodd undertaker. This is the second child Mr. and Mrs. Thawley have lost the past week with pneumonia.

James Ralph Roe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Roe, of Queen Anne's county, died Tuesday of last week at Monravia Sanitarium, Cal., after a lingering illness from tuberculosis, aged 26 years. The deceased was a graduate of Washington College.

M. E. CONFERENCE IN SESSION HERE

Splendid Beginning In Chestertown Church Of The Wilmington Conference—Homes Provided And Room To Spare

Tuesday was a big day in Chestertown when three air planes visited the town as if celebrating the arrival of ministers. One of the machines even stood on its head. It was a busy time at the depot, many of the guests arriving at noon and were met by the Rev. T. F. Beauchamp and his reception committees. Numerous automobiles in waiting soon carried the visitors to their conference homes. Upon the arrival of the evening train there was somewhat of a crush for a time, and the committee had its hands full sorting out the ministers and assigning them to their homes. Everybody was good-natured and soon the seemingly impossible task was accomplished and no one was left unprovided for.

Although it had been customary to hold a regular service the night preceding the annual session of the Wilmington Conference, the general lack of interest and failure of a majority of the ministers to attend has caused a change in the regular program, the social hour being substituted. If the number in attendance at the social held in the Methodist Episcopal Church is any criterion the change in program is a success and one that may become a regular feature.

The social Tuesday night, which was in charge of the local branch of the Epworth League, was a most pronounced success. There was an utter lack of formality and every visitor was made to feel that for the time being the church in Chestertown is his home. At the close of the social hour refreshments, prepared by the Epworth League, were served to all present.

The regular conference session opened Wednesday morning with the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in charge of Bishop Wm. F. McDowell, D. D., L. L. D.

Only those who have been fortunate enough to attend this service at the beginning of Conference can appreciate its depth and feeling. Coming from all quarters of the Conference, burdened with the cares of the past years, this service affords the opportunity for laying aside the burden and facing the world, with its trials and tribulations, endowed with fresh strength and encouraged to continue to battle for Christ and His Church.

Following the sacramental service the regular business session of the Conference was held.

At 7.30 p. m. the anniversary of the Board of Education was held. Rev. Henry G. Budd, of Dover, was chairman and the speaker of the evening was Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, of Madison Avenue Church, New York. It was a great address.

Changes Slated

As soon as conference meets the speculation as to changes in pastorates start and even before. It is a pleasant pasttime for many. Indications point to changes of fully one-third of the ministers of the conference, owing to unexpected developments, and it is freely predicted that the number will be much larger before Monday.

The Rev. James Y. Colona, of Dover, conference treasurer, announced that owing to ill health he will resign as treasurer. The Rev. O. E. Jones, of Lewes, was elected to succeed Dr. Colona.

The Rev. W. E. Habbart, of Mt. Salem, is said to be slated for Harrison street and the Rev. Leonard White, of Centreville, for Mt. Salem.

The Rev. W. A. Wise, superintendent of the Easton district, announced Tuesday night the following changes in his district: Cecilton, Centreville, Chestertown, Greensboro, Smyrna, Townsend, Concord, Sudlersville and Smyrna Circuit.

The statement that Doctor Watt may be retired from the Wilmington District and assigned to Denton, Md., has been the principal topic of conversation, and while some few are inclined to think his retirement not unlikely, owing to the fact that he has held the superintendency of the Wilmington and Easton Districts for terms aggregating fifteen years, while few are accorded that honor for longer than six years, the greater number seem to think that Doctor Watt can remain on the district so long as he wishes, and so far Doctor Watt has given no one reasons for believing that he is tired of the work of the district.

Announcement was made that Rev. R. P. Nichols, pastor of Epworth Church, Wilmington, has been invited to go to Smyrna and has accepted the invitation; Rev. George C. Williams, of Smyrna, is to go to McCabe; Rev. J. W. Jones, of McCabe, is suggested for the pastorate of Epworth.

Rev. T. F. Beauchamp is slated for Mt. Salem, Wilmington, while G. T. Alderson is fixed for Chestertown. Mr. Alderson is leaving a six years successful pastorate at Harrison Street, Wilmington.

J. T. Prouse was unanimously elected conference postmaster.

Rev. G. T. Alderson called attention to a "bill before the Delaware Legislature to legalize prize fighting" and urged that the conference take some action in the matter. Revs. G. T. Alderson, Alfred Smith, and L. E. Barrett were appointed a committee to draft resolutions of protest.

The following were named as members of the Board of Conference stewards: Dover—F. C. McSorley; Easton—E. H. Derrickson; Salisbury—W. O. Hurst; Wilmington—E. W. Jones.

The following members who have been admitted to the conference since the last session, as well as several who failed to secure an introduction last year, were called to the front of the church and introduced: Revs. J. W. R. Sumwalt, S. W. Williams, H. W. Holter, F. R. Vandyke, H. W. Ewing, Carlisle L. Hubbard and Frank Herson.

Standing committees were named.

Reports Read

Rev. W. A. Wise, superintendent of the Easton District, read his annual report. Rev. W. R. Mowbray, superintendent of Dover District, presented his annual report, while on Thursday Revs. Vaughn S. Collins and Robert Watt each read their district reports. All were finely composed, splendidly visioned and told of great achievements in Church work on this Peninsula.

Rev. L. E. Barrett was changed from effective to retired relation. Rev. J. D. Reese was changed from effective to retired relation. Rev. W. W. White, J. P. Otis and J. W. Easley were also retired on request.

Dr. J. W. R. Sumwalt extended an invitation for the conference to meet at Grace M. E. Church, Wilmington, next year "without money and without price" and it was unanimously accepted.

The following were elected trustees of Wesley College: F. C. MacSorley, Clinton T. Wyatt, Edmund L. Hoffecker, R. K. Stephenson, Joseph T. Herson and Walter E. Gunby.

The other business of the session was of a most interesting character. The addresses were splendid while the whole tenor of the sessions have been of a most pleasant character.

Mrs. Merrick Clements had charge of the music at the evening meetings with Miss Mabel Toulson organist.

Rev. T. F. Beauchamp and the local Board of Stewards looked after the needs of the conference in a fine manner while plenty of homes were provided for all who came.

The session will close with the reading of appointments on Monday noon.

WEDDING NOTES

Miss Mary Bowers, youngest daughter of J. Ray Bowers, of near Chestertown, was married on Saturday, March 22, 1919, at noon to Lee H. Mast, of Hydes, Md., at the parsonage of Bethany Methodist Church, by the pastor, Rev. R. N. Edwards. The bride was handsomely attired in a dark blue traveling suit with hat of Georgette crepe to match. She wore a corsage bouquet of white sweetpeas. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Violet Bowers. The ceremony was witnessed by a few and most intimate friends of the bride. After the ceremony the young couple left for a trip to New York and Atlantic City. Upon their return they will reside at 222 N. Carey street, Baltimore.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place in Baltimore on Tuesday afternoon, March 11, when Eva Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Copper, of near Chestertown, became the bride of Frederick William Roerentrop, of Baltimore. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Washington and other points, upon their return they will make their home in Baltimore, where the groom is a professional violinist.

On Tuesday evening, March 5th, a large crowd of people gathered in the Assembly Hall of Rock Hall High School to participate in a "Maryland Tea Party." Various booths prettily decorated in black and gold were the centres of attraction. A buffet luncheon consisting of Maryland biscuits, chicken salad, olives and tea was served by the junior and senior classes. A delightful program entertained the crowd during the evening. Its numbers included instrumental duet by Mrs. Robert Shallcross and M. Taylor, vocal solos by Mrs. A. F. T. Raum and C. F. Elmore, recitation by James Rodney, piano solo by Miss Anna May Ayres. The evening brought forth much enjoyment and all went home pleased with this unusual affair. The net proceeds amounting to $51.00, will be used for the benefit of the school.

The Federal Government has discontinued the Salisbury end of the Wilmington-Centreville motor truck parcel post route. The north bound truck will leave Easton at 5.30 a. m., arriving in Middletown, the terminus of this end of the line at 11.45 a. m., and will leave Middletown for the return trip at 12.15 p. m. This line will make connection with the truck line to Wilmington and Chester from Middletown.

At the Anderson sale at Cecilton next Wednesday some specially fine registered cattle will be sold. See adv. elsewhere.

ENTERTAINMENT.

Worton Grange will give an entertainment in Worton Hall, Thursday, April 10, 1919, beginning at 8 o'clock. Two short plays, "A Perplexing Situation" and "Waiting for the Trolley" will be given. Instrumental music will be a feature consisting of piano, violin, banjo, baritone horn, and cornet. Admission 35 cents, children 25 cents. If stormy, next night.
