LOCAL NOTES

Set your clocks up one hour next Saturday night.

S. C. Walls, Price, Md., is offering $18 per ton for tomatoes. This is equivalent to 30 cents per basket. The cannery is owned by Swing & Co.

A flying machine from Aberdeen arrived in Chestertown Tuesday morning. In landing at the college the machine was damaged somewhat but the flyers escaped unhurt.

Frank Lambert received a valuable package last Saturday from his son who is in France. The package contained souvenirs of various kinds made of shells. A German army spoon and fork were the greatest curiosities.

Nearly every seat for the evening performance of "Hearts of the World" is now sold. We advise immediate reservation of seats for the matinee performane.

The Canning factory of the Longwood Canning Company advertised in the News was sold at public auction Wednesday for $9,100. The purchaser was A. W. Murphy, one of the partners of the old company.

Dr. William Burdick, Supervisor of Physical Education for the State of Maryland, addressed the Kent teachers at its meeting last Friday. The athletic meet will be held early in May, in order to carry out the school law and the State Board's directions in this respect.

James G. Metcalfe has bought of Miss S. Elizabeth Scotten a lot of land and house at Kennedyville, on the railroad for the purpose of building grain elevator. This building will be started in near future. Mr. Metcalfe has also purchased of Geo. R. Rasin the house and lot adjoining the Scotten land for $2,300.

Don't forget to turn your clocks forward tonight (Saturday) one hour. All Sunday services will be regulated by the new time. Beginning Monday, March 31, all business will also be regulated by the new time. Train schedules will be governed by the new system, and all business enterprises will be regulated by the day-light saving plan.

Harry R. Graham, Jr., of Chestertown, was accidentalyy shot in the upper lip last week by a young colored boy. They were playing with an air rifle and the colored boy aimed the rifle at him and pulled the trigger. He says he did not know it was loaded. Boys cannot be too careful in playing with these rifles.

A most interesting meeting of the Kent County Teachers' Association was held in Chestertown Friday night. Dr. Burdick and Prof. Holloway were the lecturers on health and sanitation, each lecture being illustrated. Both were fine but the attendance was very disappointing to say the least. Wake up, patrons and trustees.

A Local Unit of the Milk Producers Association at Millington, has the following officers: Warner Mallalieu, president; McCosh Walls, vice-president; Harry Higman, secretary and treasurer.

Capt. John Downey has purchased the store and dwelling of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Satterfield, of Rock Hall, and will take possession of same next week. Mr. and Mrs. Satterfield expect to move to Chestertown.

J. Franklin Baker has decided and in favor of baseball and the Yankees. The hard-hitting third baseman will be scooping them up or lining them out when the fun begins on April 23. Herzog will also play with the New York Americans at a salary of $10,000. Babe Ruth has signed up at $9,000 for each of three years. Not bad for a sport, eh?

The Civic Study Class will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred. G. Usilton at 3 o'clock.

Claude F. Parks has purchased of J. Frank Baxter the Geo. W. Smith farm in Queen Anne's, near Chester bridge, for $17,750 including crops. This farm contains 191 acres along the State road in a fine state of cultivation. Mr. Parks says he was offered $1,000 for his bargain a few hours after he bought.

At a special meeting of the directors of Chester Cemetery held Saturday Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., was elected secretary and treasurer in place of John H. Simpers, deceased. The Board visited the cemetery and ordered a new fence to be put up on the south side and other needed improvements. Edward Newton, supt., has been making a number of changes for the better in the place. Mr. Perkins takes charge April 1st.

The following Kent names are enrolled as those who paid the supreme sacrifice during the late war:
Private Walter Luik, Betterton.
Wayman Parker, colored.
John Scott, Millington.
Alwyn Hanson Stavely.
Thomas Kemp Bordley.
Maxwell Ryan.
Edward White, Worton.
Henry Dahlfield, Chestertown.
Henry Doshfield, Chesterville.
James Dukey, Chesterville.

W. Harry Bishop, of Carmichael, and Jack Bishop, of "Briston," near Centreville, sons of Register of Wills, William T. Bishop, have purchased the Queenstown ice plant and will make extensive improvements. W Harry Bishop, who is now conducting a Creamery at Carmichael, will move same to Queenstown, where he will engage in the manufacture of ice cream. The plant is already equipped with all necessary machinery for the manufacture of this product. Queenstown will construct a pole line to Centreville and depend on the plant there for electricity.

It is stated that the Chestertown Electric Light Co. will furnish day current beginning June 1st.

Noland-Bennett-Russell Co. sold six Fords last week.

Dr. H. Benge Simmons received on Monday a new King "Eight" car.

Capt. Jack Johnson caught a fine roe shad in Chester river Saturday, the first of the season to be taken in local waters.

Wm. E. Reed has greatly improved the dwelling opposite the M. E. Church, recently purchased by him, with a coat of paint.

Julian Carter has been appointed automobile police for Kent, Queen Anne's and Caroline counties and is in Baltimore this week learning his new duties.

The Kent County school athletic meet will take place in Chestertown on Thursday, May 8th.

Claude F. Parks purchased a "Nobby" Ford truck from The Noland-Bennett-Russell Motor Company this week, he will use the same in his seed and fertilizer business.

The Maryland Society of the Sons of The American Revolution in Baltimore recently presented to the Chestertown and Rock Hall High schools, "The American Creed," in an attractive frame. The creeds were presented to the respective schools by Wilbur W. Hubbard Tuesday, Maryland Day, with appropriate exercises.

R. Hoover and H. Stockton Startt have purchased from County Commissioner Carey W. Rinehart and mother the farm owned by them near Fairlee. It is well known as the Hulmn farm and the price is said to be $15,000. These gentlemen are said to be acting for another party.

W. H. Chaffin, near Crumpton, sold his farm of 100 acres to J. J. Ayres, Elkridge, Md. Price 55,500. Sale made by H. T. Jewell.

Arbor Day, by proclamation of the Governor, comes early in April, On this day, many memorial trees will be planted for those who made the supreme sacrifice in the great war, and surely there could be no more fitting memorials. Not only will individual trees be planted around the home, but there will be extensive planting along the roadsides. What could be more fitting than plant memorial trees along the State Highway from Worcester to Garrett, passing thru Baltimore and seventeen counties, covering about 400 miles of roadway of which, eliminating the wooded portions and stretches where planting is impossible, would leave approximately 175 miles suitable for planting?

Officials of the State and of the concern which is to operate the ferry boat between Claiborne and Annapolis on Saturday signed the formal contract, and the ferry will be put into operation on May 1 and will run for three years under the contract. The State will pay $18,000 a year subsidy to the ferry concern, and the latter will receive the revenues from operation. The charges will be 50 cents single trip and 75 cents round trip for passengers and $2 per automobile, including the fare of the driver; other passengers in automobiles paying the regular passengers fare, of course. It is stated that the ferry will make three round trips daily in summer and two in winter. The ferry concern, which will incorporate under Maryland laws with a capital of $300,000, will be known as the Claiborne-Annapolis Ferry, Inc. H. D. Mepham will be president, E. L. Smallwood vice-president and C. W. Harrison general manager.

Announcement.—The weather permitting, we will do practical plowing and discing with the Fordson Tractor on the Isaac Gibbs' farm, adjoining the town of Massey, Thursday, April 3rd, 1919. This demonstration will last the entire day and one and all are most cordially and respectfully invited to attend.

A Great Lecturer.—The Chestertown Literary Society has arranged for A. Hunt Vautier to lecture in Firemen's Hall, Tuesday evening, April 15th. A few lecturers who have come from overseas have had such wide and interesting experiences as Mr. Vautier. He was in the thick of things since the beginning of the end, and is probably the only competent lecturer now in America who observed the closing days of the war and the preparations for the Peace Conference. Mr. Vautier is competent to discuss Current Events, European politics, the problems of the settlement, and the reconstruction and readjustment necessary in Europe and in America.
