ROCK HALL

The fine spring weather of the early week was an incentive to gardeners to get busy preparing ground and planting for the summer harvests in this section.

James Rowe, on the Davis homestead, has erected a substantial wire fence on the road line of the property and gave the dwelling a fresh coat of white wash, which makes a decidedly improvement to the home.

Mrs. Alexander has also erected a wire fence along the old Kendall lot, tenanted by Elmer Hague.

F. C. Wilkins has got in touch with the outside world by telephone connection.

Walter Sutton is doing some repairing to his dwelling.

The R. C. Society has very greatly improved the interior of the dwelling tenanted by Edgar Hague by replastering and papering and other improvements are contemplated to the property. In fact, improvements are everywhere evidence here about, except on the public roads. They are still a disgrace to the county.

J. M. Collison, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is now able to be out and about with the assistance of an "extra leg."

J. R. Ryan, Jr., now a member of the automobile fraternity, has purchased a Ford car and Max says he is going to join the auto ranks just as soon as he is sure of his ability to spell able.

Mrs. A. Alexander is spending a season with relatives and friends in the city.

Mrs. Millard Carter after suffering illness, died on Monday last. The funeral service taking place on Wednesday afternoon at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, conducted by Elder Androth, of New Jersey. The bearers were W. T. Carter, American Carter, Bartus Carter, Hynson Carter, Charles Sewell and Russell Sewell; C. L. Dodd, undertaker; interment in Wesleyan Cemetery. The deceased leaves besides a husband her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sewell and several brothers.

Wm. H. Taylor, a former resident of this place died at his late home near Fords Store, Queen Anne's county. His remains were interred in Wesleyan Cemetry on Wednesday.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Urie Jones and Mrs. Thomas Jones have been very sick with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Redmile, Mrs. J. W. Urie, Mrs. Shafer and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Othoson motored to Baltimore on Sunday to the M. P. Conference.

Private Boyd Primrose and Miss Eva C. Jewell spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gill spent Sunday with Miss Nellie Othoson.

Mrs. McCauley, of Wilmington has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kennedy.

It is reported that Jack Redmile has bought Mrs. Joe Weer's home and Robt. Young has bought the hall. We welcome Mr. Young to our little town.

Rev. Peter Schauer, ex-pastor here, will fill the pulpit this Sunday morning.

Rev. J. K. Wooden, the newly appointed pastor will fill his pulpit Easter Sunday.

A special meeting of Fairlee Grange will be held Wednesday, April 19, at 7 p. m. Subject of discussion led by Worthy Master, "Shall We Disband."

GALENA

Mrs. Robert Morgan who has been in a hospital in Philadelphia, has returned, and is spending sometime at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mae Woodall.

Mrs. Horace Gambrill, of Easton, spent a few days of last week with her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Pennington.

Mrs. Gertrude Lewis, of Baltimore, spent a few days of conference week with Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Walters.

Mrs. L. R. Vansant is spending a few days at Newark, where her daughter, Miss Annie M., is attending Womans College.

Miss Edith White had a painful accident on Friday evening. She with others were riding on their bicycles, and just a little below the town limits in making a short turn she was thrown off cutting her left hand badly on a broken bottle. Dr. Jones dressed the wound and it is doing well.

Every one in town, whether members of the Methodist church or not were made happy by the return to us of Rev. Frank White and his family for their third year, and all join in giving them a hearty welcome.

Epworth League service Sunday evening was in charge of Mrs. Harry Clark, Scripture Lesson was Ninety-first psalm and topic was "Trust."

Leo. Gale, who has been ill for such a long time, in a hospital in Wilmington, is well on the road to recovery and expects to come home sometime this week.

Miss Annie Hayes is having a new roof put on and other repairs done to her home on Main street.

Miss Sallie Prettyman is quite sick at her home at this writing.

We hear that the new firm on the corner is composed of the following members. James Davis, Sr., of Sassafras; and James Davis, Jr., Olin Davis and Harry Todd, of Galena.

A number of "auto speedsters" were taken up here last Sunday and fined for going beyond the speed limit.

It is reported that W. Holt Woodall will join the ranks of our merchants going in with Pierce & Bolton.

The stork brought a fine little boy to Mrs. Amos Harrington one day last week.

Henry Gray, of near town, who has been quite sick, is some better at this writing.

A delegation of the Galena Daughters of America attended a class initiation of the Charter Oak Council, Chesapeake City, on Thursday evening of last week. A most enjoyable evening was spent. A splendid supper was served about midnight.

Mrs. William K. Thornton, of Warwick is spending sometime with her sister, Mrs. Walter Hadley.

Read Bordley & Sons new adv. in this issue and you will find where to get all the new designs in waist line, slash pocket effect now so popular with the young man. Also now to have your measure correctly taken, and how to get a perfect fit, if you prefer your suit made to measure.

Looking Backward

¶ In the course of the last year how many dollars did you spend uselessly and foolishly that might better have gone to increase your savings account?

¶ If it were possible for you to follow those dollars you would find, sooner or later, that many of them reached the BANK all right and were there credited—not to your account but to that of some other fellow.

¶ These dollars had once belonged to you. They deserved better care.

¶ Let THE PEOPLES BANK of Chestertown, take care of your surplus dollars.

¶ This Bank accepts deposits under three distinct forms of accounts—making no charge whatever for any service rendered—viz:

(1) Active or Commercial Deposits—subject to check at all times.

(2) Ordinary Savings Deposits—upon which 4 per cent. interest is paid compounded semi-annually.

(3) Special Deposits—for which Certificates are issued for a stated time at an agreed rate of interest.

¶ Whether already a customer, or not, you are cordially invited to call and consult us about any matter of Banking or Investments upon which you may desire information.
