VOL. 79. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, MAY 17, 1919 No. 51

ALL THE YEAR ROUND

I am on the job the year round to give you such assistance as you need to keep your life insurance in shape.

ASK THE MAN who has a Continental policy what he thinks of his contract and the treatment he receives.

OVER A MILLION DOLLARS

of life insurance in force in the Continental Life in Kent County. There is a reason. When you think of life insurance think of FRANK SIMPERS.

Freighting!!

Tomatoes are going up and I will pay my growers the same as Baltimore packers.

I have purchased the power barge "Dahlia" of Capt. Riggin and will be better fitted than ever to do freighting.

The General County Committee for the Victory Loan Campaign, just closed, desires to express its appreciation and thanks for the hearty co-operation and assistance given by all local committees, both ladies and gentlemen; by all who assisted with the music; by all the speakers, and for use of the various Halls and Churches. To the newspapers for the generous space contributed and to all other co-workers.

It was only by the efforts of all and the generous response of our people that the splendid showing of $440,050 for the county was obtained. Over the top by $32,300.

We feel assured that all who took part feel repaid by the knowledge that "Old Kent" has gone "Over The Top" in splendid style as a Thanksgiving offering for the VICTORY that we now enjoy.

REAL ESTATE DEALS AT FEVER HEAT

Difficult To Separate The Real Sales From Those Rumored—Double Value In Ten Years—Mr. Clothier Building Stone Road And Bungalow

Woodland Derringer, of Spangler, Pa., has sold his Turner's Creek farm known as the Wethered farm, to Morris E. Clothier, of Philadelphia. The consideration is reported to be $35,000. Mr. Derringer paid about $15,000 for this farm about two years ago. Mr. Clothier is of the firm of Strawbridge and Clothier. He recently bought the Wm. R. and Harry Price farm which adjoins this Turner's Creek place. It is the purpose of Mr. Clothier to make a game preserve here, He has awarded a contract to Walter T. Pippin, of Chestertown, for the erection of a handsome bungalow to cost $18,000. Mr. Pippin begins work on the building Thursday.

A proposition was made to the County Commissioners Tuesday by Mr. Clothier whereby he is to furnish 500 tons of stone for building a road from Warner Geary's gate to the Derringer farm and the commissioners to haul same. It was promptly accepted.

Dorchester county men have been given an option on the two John Schauber farms, near town, and the deal will likely be made today. It includes 700 acres, together with a herd of 100 dairy cattle and growing crops, for $47,000.

The Spry farm, near Crumpton, has been sold to George Powell, of Philadelphia, the price being around $25,000. It has a wharf on the river and good buildings.

Rev. G. A. Morris has sold his four acres of land near Salisbury at $300 per acre, to Wm. J. Ennis, who will improve it by the erection of a bungalow.

Claude F. Parks has purchased the Arthur Reed farm in Queen Anne's, near Church Hill, tenanted by John P. Crossley. It contains 254 acres. The price is said to be $19,000.

H. W. Vickers, Esq., trustee, sold on Tuesday the Capps property in Still Pond to John W. Robinson, Jr., for $925.

Two valuable farms were sold at Centreville, last Tuesday afternoon. The first was the "Noah Clough Home Farm" located on the Clough Road from Clannahan Shop to Hayden, purchased by Dorsey J. Robinson. The farm contains one hundred and sixty-eight acres, and sold for $94.75 per acre. The second farm sold was the "DeRouchbrune or Mullikin Farm," situated on the road leading from Ashland to Hayden, containing two hundred and twenty acres of land. This farm was the property of the heirs of James and Emily Mullikin, and was purchased by James C. Mullikin, the present tenant and one of the heirs. He paid $76 per acre.

Commissioner John N. Bennett has sold his splendid farm near Still Pond Station to the present tenant, Wm. L. Ford. This fine tract of land contains 303 acres and has excellent buildings, good fencing and in a high state of cultivation. The price is about $34,000 including all crops. Mr. Bennett paid about $18,000 for the farm some years ago.

NAVY BALLOON SEEN HERE

The big balloon which was seen over Kent county last Monday was one of the four navy balloons that left the naval flying field at Akron, Ohio, on Sunday afternoon. These balloons were having a test race. The one seen over Chestertown was the Goodyear balloon and carried C. W. Seiberling, the millionaire rubber manufacturer, and it made a safe landing at Millsborough, Del. One of the balloons with Lieut. Howarth in it was fired upon fifteen times at Beaver, Pa., and the balloon had to land. According to the police, the shooting occured near Bever, Pa. The first bullet struck Ensign White's cap, then a fusillade of bullets tore the gas bag, but the pilots opened the safety valves and succeeded in landing near Baden without accident. The Naval Bureau in Washington and the Akron station have been informed of the shooting, according to Lieutenant Howarth. The winner of the balloon race will be announced just as soon as the records of the flights can be tabulated.

"MICKEY"

No photoplay has yet been produced so filled with adventure and thrills as "Mickey." The novelty and intensity of the thrills are indeed remarkable. Fatalities seem to be avoided by a hair's breadth—with a reality that is tremendously convincing. s

There is thrill upon thrill, and each thrill in these suspense-exciting incidents is just a little bit better than the last, until at their climaxes the audience is fairly brought to its feet out of sheer enthusiasm and excitement.

"Mickey" is the picture you will never forget. See it at Lyceum Theatre Friday and Saturday, May 23 and 24.

Work has been started on the grading of the roadbed on the new section of the Rock Hall-Chestertown State road. There are three miles of this road to be completed before there is a continuous stretch from Chestertown to Rock Hall, and it is expected the new link will be completed by fall. The three miles will cost $76,000.

MILLION DOLLAR CAMPAIGN

Methodist Protestants Meeting With Great Success In Raising $250,000 In Maryland Conference—Kent Reaching Toward Goal.

There is much rejoicing over the progress of the million dollar campaign now on in the Methodist Protestant Churches. St. James has her quota of $2500 already pledged. Kennedyville has over $500 of its $1200 and Wesley and Kesley Chapels have $800 of their $1200 in sight. Christ Church, Chestertown, has $4350 of its $5000 and hope to get the balance in a few days.

Monday reports showed that two churches—St. John's, Baltimore, of which the Rev. Dr. James H. Straughn is pastor, and the Rhode Island Avenue Church, Washington, D. C., the Rev. G. L. Humphries, pastor—were tied for the best showings, each raising $7,500, and their quotas were $5,000 each. First Church, Newark, N. J., reported $8,000; Starr Church, the Rev. Dr. George W. Hadaway, pastor, reported $6,400, while Hampden Church, the Rev. E. D. Stone, whose quota was $4,000, passed the $6,000 mark. Alnutt Memorial Church in East Baltimore, one of the largest congregations of the denomination in the city, and of which Rev. Louis Randall is pastor, tendered a banquet to its members after which the drive was launched with the result that the church raised $5,646, or nearly a thousand more than its quota. West Baltimore Church, Rev. Dr. John M. Gill pastor, has reached a total of $6,000, or $2,000 over its quota.

The other churches in the Maryland district that went "over" Sunday were: Amelia, $683; Broadway, $1,240; Brooklyn, $2,000; Calvary, $1,130; East Baltimore, $1,800; Eutaw, $1,500; Evergreen, $740; Lauraville, $500; Lowe Memorial, $3,200; Payson Street, $4,000; South Baltimore, $2,000; St. Paul's, $1,000; Violetville, $600; West Baltimore, $4,100; Wilton Heights, $2,072; Baltimore Circuit, $1,200; Crisfield, $4,000; Lawsonia, $300; Cumberland, $2,000; Finksburg, $2,500; Hurlock, $2,200; Pocomoke City, $3,130;; St. James, $2,500; Trinity, Baltimore, $526; Cherrydale, $1,800; First Church, Washington, $2,025; Georgetown, D. C., $2,500; Mount Tabor, $1,253, and Wilmington, $500. More than 250 churches are yet to be heard from.

A big haul of rock was brought to Betterton Monday amounting to nearly two tons. They weighed from 12 to 20 pounds. Shad was bringing 28 cents per pound Tuesday. While the catch has been poor this season the total receipts have equaled any other year perhaps. One buyer alone has paid out $30,000 while the total will amount to $100,000.

The Commissioners did a fine thing when they inaugurated the "Clean-up" system. The scores of piles of dirt on the side look unsightly but they mean a lot to the health of the town in getting them hauled away. One man had 14 quart bottles on his pile while another had a demi-john on his but each declared they belonged to neighbors! It would be well to have a fall cleaning also.

The summary at the Public School Athletic meet in Chestertown last week was as follows: Chestertown High School 118, Rock Hall High School 77, Chestertown Grammar 37, Massey 31, Kennedyville 10, Millington 5, Betterton 4.

Any discharged soldier who has not received a traveling mileage of 5 cents, if they will communicate with the Home Service Section, at Chapter House, in Chestertown, on Tuesdays from 2 to 4, they will be given assistance how to obtain same.

The Floating Theatre will be in Chestertown next week with a company of 30 people to give a week of entertainment. Band concert every day. This show boat is a unique affair and the managers are all affable gentlemen.

H. L. Reubsam, road engineer for Kent county, tendered his resignation to the County Commissioners at the last meeting of the board, on Tuesday of last week, to take effect June 15th. Mr. Reubsam will engage in business with his brother in Washington. Mr. Christopher and Captain Applegarth are spoken of for the vacancy.

The Elementary school of Chestertown will give a Mother Goose May Party on Thursday, May 22, by primer, first and second grades. In addition to this the boys of the school will give a minstrel show. The proceeds will be used for athletics and play ground equipment. It is desired by the teachers that the patrons of the school will continue to give their hearty support. Don't forget the date, May 22.

Kent has many ardent workers for Red Cross and other branches of war work but to Mrs. Wm. G. Trew is no doubt entitled the honor of the best record when age, etc., is considered. She has knitted 90 sweaters, 18 scarfs, 4 pairs of wristlets and 2 helmets.

Columbus C. Beck, Sr., died at his residence in Newark, Del., on Sunday morning May 4th at 10 o'clock from a complication of diseases, aged 62 years. He leaves a wife, two daughters and one son, Columbus E., who is still in France. His remains were brought by auto to Piney Neck, Wednesday and interment therein. R. L. Jones, undertaker.

Bolton & Vandyke are offering 47 cents for eggs at Galena.

W. R. Pippin has a contract to build a drug store at Cecilton for Mr. Blackiston.

Still Pond raised $20,400 for the Victory Loan. Initial payments on this loan were due last Saturday.

Noland-Bennett-Russell have sold 5 Fordson tractors and have three carloads booked for July delivery. They will have their machine shop ready for business next Monday.
