VOL. 80 CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, MAY 31, 1919

ALL THE YEAR ROUND

I am on the job the year round to give you such assistance as you need to keep your life insurance in shape.

ASK THE MAN who has a Continental policy what he thinks of his contract and the treatment he receives.

OVER A MILLION DOLLARS

of life insurance in force in the Continental Life in Kent County. There is a reason. When you think of life insurance think of FRANK SIMPERS.

Freighting!!

Tomatoes are going up and I will pay my growers the same as Baltimore packers.

I have purchased the power barge "Dahlia" of Capt. Riggin and will be better fitted than ever to do freighting.

Harvesting

Hay season is with us and as for the past 12 seasons so again this year we offer you the old favorite McCormick Mower.

Those of you who have bought the New 4 Mowers were well pleased with the service rendered but those who have bought the No. 6 McCormick for the last three seasons have found that it was possible to make even a better mower than the New 4 was. The horses can step slower but the knife will run faster than it did on the New 4. Makes no difference how heavy the grass you can stop and start as often as you like.

Binders

You have begun to think now that the straw is so heavy that there is doubt about your old binder going through the harvest. Makes no difference what your old binder was. When you buy this new one you want the best. Take it, point for point, we do not honestly believe there is a better binder made than the McCORMICK.

This is not a conclusion hastily arrived at but is the opinion of several hundred of users of it and other makes of machines. Has every modern improvement and is backed by the largest company in the business.

We have a few that are unsold. Place your order as soon as you can so that we may have time to set them up.

Repairs

Don't forget that when you want repair parts for these machines we have them. The largest stock of repairs in this section. Buy machines you can get repairs for when needed.

The General County Committee for the Victory Loan Campaign, just closed, desires to express its appreciation and thanks for the hearty co-operation and assistance given by all local committees, both ladies and gentlemen; by all who assisted with the music; by all the speakers, and for use of the various Halls and Churches. To the newspapers for the generous space contributed and to all other co-workers.

It was only by the efforts of all and the generous response of our people that the splendid showing of $440,050 for the county was obtained. Over the top by $32,300.

We feel assured that all who took part feel repaid by the knowledge that "Old Kent" has gone "Over The Top" in splendid style as a Thanksgiving offering for the VICTORY that we now enjoy.

REAL ESTATE CONTINUES TO CHANGE HANDS

The reconstruction period seems to have struck the land market with unusual vigor and the number of changes is unprecedented as is also the big advance in prices.

Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., as trustee, has sold at private sale to Frederick Toulson and wife the Sarah C. Wilson property, near Fairlee, at $210.00.

Claude F. Parks has purchased from E. W. Keeler the fine farm located near Chester bridge in Queen Anne's county, known as the Anthony or Hynson farm. Consideration $20,000. The tract contains 140 acres and was purchased about two years ago by Mr. Keeler for $12,500. J. T. Anthony, the former owner, paid $5,500 for the farm a few years ago.

Mr. Keeler became dissatisfied because of the sale of their home with nothing better in prospect, and on Monday went to Mr. Parks and offered him $1,000 advance if he would return the property. Mr. Parks complied.

John C. Redmile has sold his farm situated near Kennedyville, and containing 150 acres, to Wilmer Ford at $15,500. It is stated that Mr. Redmile paid $4,000 for the farm a few years ago.

The J. W. Russell Realty Company has purchased from George P. Hendrickson the fine farm located near Brice's mill, and owned for many years by the latter's father, the late Victor Hendrickson. The tract contains about 300 acres and the purchase price is said to be $24,000. Mr. Hendrickson paid $18,000 for the farm subsequent to the death of his father.

By the installation of a 75-horse power Fairbanks-Morse Type Y oil engine, The Chestertown Ice Company now has one of the best equipped ice plants in Maryland. The machine was started this week and is now running continuously, night and day. The engine weighs 15 tons and the improvements cost $7,500. Despite its gigantic size, the machine runs as smoothly and evenly as a clock. It is mounted on a strongly reinforced concrete base, and the general sturdiness of the equipment would indicate that the company will be able to give maximum service and efficiency to its patrons during the summer season.

Uncle Sam is bringing the boys back home by the thousand. Among the recent arrivals are Frederick W. Ford, Laurence B. Russell,, Jr., of Chestertown; John M. Comegys, Jr., of Blacks, connected with the 110th F. A.; Colin Duyer, of the 112th Machine Gun Company; Loice Rust and Bryan Newton, of the 115th Infantry; Wm. B. Stafford, Murrell Dunbracco, Edw. Blackway, George Walbert, W. F. Leaverton, Sergeant Merritt Brown and Wm. Goss. M. A. Toulson and family went to New York last week expecting to meet his son Lieut. Dr. Houston Toulson, but were greatly disappointed to learn that at the last hour before sailing Lieut. Toulson was ordered to remain in France for further service.

Maxwell Blakeney, another Chestertown boy, who had expected to sail for home last week, was, just prior to sailing, selected as one of a number of automobile drivers to be sent into Germany.

Capt. Carey Jarman, who is in the regular army, is attending school in England; as is also Sergt. T. Herbert Skipper and Capt. J. Thomas Kibler.

In addition to the Rock Hall boys mentioned last week, H. Bernard Willson, Ralph McGinnis, Charles Kelley, Elliott F. Boulter, Edwin Urie and Robert Creighton are on this side of the Atlantic. Adjutant Joseph Ayres and Bernard V. Rich reached Newport News on Friday. Clarence Kelley and Reuben Kastner came earlier in the week.
