Local Notes

The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company will elect delegates next Monday evening to the annual convention of the State Firemen's Association which is to be held at Salisbury on June 11-13.

Bolton & VanDyke, Galena, is paying 43 cents for eggs and all tobaccos 5 and 10 cents a cut.

Chestertown is to have a new lumber yard. The E. S. Adkins Co. of Salisbury has purchased two fine lots on Cannon street from J. D. Bacchus and Frank A. Hurlock where the new distribution yard will be located. They will also open yards at Hurlock, Berlin and Easton. They are preparing to manufacture auto truck bodies, cabinet work, etc., at the Salisbury plant.

Yesterday was a legal holiday because of Decoration Day. Today is another in honor of the arrival home of many of our soldier boys.

J. P. DeCorse, one of Chestertown's early gardeners has one of, if not the best gardens in the county. They have been enjoying from it beets, cabbage, peas, onions, lettuce. His corn, string and lima beans will soon be in full swing.

Edward Goodman, had his head badly lacerated on Thursday night last. Mr. Goodman was cutting wood and in raising his ax got it caught in the clothes line, which bounced back and cut his head. Dr. H. G. Simpers dressed the wound and was compelled to take five stitches.

Allie Elliott and friend were thrown from the motorcycle upon which they were riding on Saturday last while on their way from Baltimore, to visit the former's mother. The accident was caused by the skidding of the machine, which knocked both men off and painfully bruised Mr. Elliott. Upon being brought to town, Dr. C. W. Whaland rendered medical aid.

H. Sachs has purchased of Mrs. Finley Collins, of Millington, her 7-passenger Studebaker.

Howard D. Rees purchased an Oakland touring car from the local agent Herman B. Massey, the past week.

Walter B. Strong received by registered mail last week the fine pair of field glasses loaned to the Navy Department.

In June Chautauqua program many features hertofore presented here are included. Chestertown's treat takes place in September.

County Agent L. L. Burrell has decided to retain his position and remain in Kent. The county commissioners on Tuesday granted him an appropriation of $705, for equipment and expenses to counter-balance a reduction in allowance made by the national government.

Judge Adkins on Monday rendered a verdict in the V. C. Boggs case in favor of the defendant, Wm. D. Boggs.

Goodman, the shoe dealer, has asked for benefit of bankruptcy. His creditors from the city claim he owes several thousand dollars.

Andrew Wilson, of Georgetown, with other large investors in fishing outfits suffered much damage the past week to their nets because of a cloudburst up the Susequehanna. Logs and lumber floated down the river and tore the nets badly.

Frank Kline is now opened in the Blaustein store on the corner. He will keep an up-to-date store. Watch the Kent News for particulars.

The building lot on Broadway, Centreville, adjoining Foreman & Mason, which was recently purchased by John A. Friel from the C. and P. Telephone Company, has been sold to Claude F. Parks, of Chestertown. Mr. Parks will build an office there as an adjunct to his Chestertown office.

WEDDING NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Springer, of 2526 St. Paul St., announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Geraldine Vickers Wilmer, to Wilder Malcom Lahy, of Brooklyn, N. Y. No definite date has been set for the wedding but it is expected to take place in the early summer. Miss Wilmer is the niece of Mrs. Dr. Frank B. Hines Philip G. Wilmer and Mrs. Alice Wilmer, of this town, and has but recently returned from France, where she went as a Red Cross nurse.

The marriage of Miss Rebecca Wallace, daughter of the late Robt. Wallace, and Mrs. Nettie Wallace, of Washington, will take place at the home of the bride's mother, in Washington, on June 19.

James Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman, narrowly escaped losing the sight of his left eye, when he ran into a piece of wire which penetrated the ball of the eye very close to the pupil.
