Cow Sale!

We will sell at our stables in Centreville, Maryland, on Tuesday, July 22, 1919

beginning at 1 o'clock P. M., sharp, rain or shine,

A Carload of Fresh Cows and Close Up Springers

Also a Few Stock Bulls

We have been six weeks buying this load of cattle and have picked the best. You will find that a fresh cow will be hardest cow to buy this fall and winter that you have ever heard of before.

As you all know, the French Government has given this country an order for 75,000 milking cows, which must, of course, make them scarce in this country.

This is your opportunity to get winter milkers, as they are going to be higher than you have ever seen them.

Farmers can look for higher prices in milk as the demand is great.

Don't miss this sale as we will sell every cow for the high dollar.

ROBERT COURSEY.
