Local Notes

Don't forget the Farmers' Field Day at Tolchester today.

Don't forget the Chautauqua on September 2nd.

Mrs. L. Letz has bought of J. Waters Russell the property at Catts Corner, now occupied by Mr. Solloway.

A great game of baseball was played on Tuesday last at Kennedyville between Kennedyville and Centreville. The latter won in ten innings by score of 1 to 0. Horsey pitched for Centreville and Gordy for Kennedyville. A big crowd was present. Kennedyville will play at Millington today.

There is a good prospect for oysters in the waters of Kent. Reports of deputy commanders of the oyster police force to Conservation Commissioner Shaw show that oysters on beds of the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries, awaiting the tongmen and dredgers in September, are in good, healthy condition and of fine quality. This is gratifying information to householders who will welcome an addition to the list of foods. There will, however, be no realization of the hope that the oyster will be a lever that will help pull down the prices of table foods. Oysters will be high because labor is high and scarce and because there is no prospect of an -oversupply. If properly prepared, oysters have a value in nutrition as compared with beefsteak in proportion of 70 to 50, the oyster having the higher food value.

Horace B. Derrick, the new county agent, is here to serve the people especially the farmers, and will spend much of his time in the near future visiting some of the farmers of Kent county. He would also appreciate having all farmers visit him in the county agent's office in the Court House.

Read "How to Prevent the Spread of Typhoid Fever" elsewhere in the News by Dr. Geo. H. Jones, Secretary of the Kent County Board of Health. Now is the time to take proper precautions to protect your family from this disease.

Vansant & Newsome are having their annual August sale of summer suits. They advise to buy now and save money.

Alonza Foreman, on the Francis farm near Tolchester, considering the wet weather has a good crop of tomatoes and corn.

H. F. Jefferson & Bro. are preparing to open their fall and winter millinery department next week. Miss Sallie Causey, expert trimmer, of Parksley, Va., will be in New York and Philadelphia next week and buy stock. Look for the new adv. of Jefferson Bros. next week.

The work of tearing down the old Sparks' building, corner High and Cross streets, has been completed. This work has been under the supervision of C. A. Rawleigh and has been accomplished in quick time and without a single mishap.

Polk T. Bramble, the "over the river" poultry man has erected a fine new chicken house for brooders and is preparing to go into the chicken business on a still larger scale than ever. He is a hustler.

The Noland-Bennett-Russell Garage is nearing completion under the direction of Contractor G. H. Cannan.

John W. Barnes, clerk of the Modern Woodmen of America, received this week an order for $1,000 to be paid to Mrs. Daisy Reinhart, which was the amount of insurance carried by Carey W. Reinhart in the Modern Woodmen. The clerk has paid to beneficials $15,000 in the past ten years.

Thursday, Claude F. Parks called at the postoffice in Chestertown and paid deferred postage on a small parcel which had been collected from one of the street letter boxes without the necessary postage. Upon opening the parcel, Mr. Parks discovered that it contained a handsome watch and diamond ring, valued at between $400 and $500, which had been stolen from his home. No writing or clue of any kind was on the parcel to indicate the name of the sender. The one who stole the valuables are known.

Water Front Farms WANTED

To the water front farm owners of Kent county. I have a large number of buyers who desire to locate in Kent or other counties on the Eastern Shore, and who want to do business with a man who can give them the desired information in Baltimore. These people are very busy and do not have time to wander around looking for water front farms. If you have any water front farms for sale and list them with me I will sell them at the usual rate of commission which is 5 per cent on selling price. Prices quoted to me are quoted to prospective buyers. No inflation, no profiteering, I specialize in water front farms and homes.

DAYLIGHT LAW REPEALED

The daylight saving law was repealed this week over President's veto. The clocks will be turned back to normal time in October and thus will end the daylight saving law.

Agitation for repeal of the daylight saving law first came from farmers, but was backed by labor unions, mothers' clubs, rural school authorities and many other interests.

Loss in time in farm labor was the principal objection raised to the law. Farmers said that with the clock advanced an hour, work could not begin as early in the morning as under the normal time schedule and must close an hour earlier. This was because the dew on the ground in the early morning prevents farm labor.

Farm hands, it was contended, would not work after 6 p. m., clock time, or at most 7 o'clock.

Mothers' objections to the daylight law were based upon confusion of conditions in the home and, fundamentally, loss of sleep by children.

Protests against the law from labor unions and workingmen were based upon the requirement for earlier rising. Wives of workingmen, it was said, often were compelled to prepare breakfast by artificial light.
