Democrats—put your X mark in the box opposite the letter C in Democratic.

The big St. James supper held last Friday evening was enjoyed by 300 and a splendid menu was served.

Henry S. Deford's shops and carriage emporium will remain in his possession the deal heretofore reported being called off.

A trucker from Queen Anne's county was in town Saturday selling fresh strawberries at 35 cents per quart. These berries were far better than usually are ripe at this time of the year.

The report from New York says, "The dollar a dozen egg is here." Fresh white egg, now as scarce as the proverbial teeth of the hen, were quoted Tuesday at 90 cents a dozen wholesale. Retailers, it was said, probably will ask $1.05 a dozen for them in the future. In Chestertown they are 64 cents, at Price's they are 65 cents and in Crumpton they are 70 cents.

See that you put your X in the box opposite the last letter C in Democratic. See?

Regular monthly meeting of the Chestertown Union of the W. C. T. U. at the Red Cross Chapter House on Wednesday, Nov. 3rd, at 11 a. m.

The Y. M. C. A. of Washington College cordially invites the public to attend a discussion Sunday evening, November 2nd, at 6.30. Dr. A. S. Hall will be the speaker. His subject will be "Evolution and What It Means." Dr. Hall is the head of the department of science at Washington College and will no doubt present the subject in a highly interesting and instructive manner. There will be special music.

Athletic instructor J. Thomas Kibler, of Washington College, has invited the business men of Chestertown to join an indoor class for athletic instruction and exercise. The first meeting will be held next Thursday evening in the Washington College gymnasium.

Democrats—put your X mark in the box opposite the letter C in Democratic.

Two more meat markets will be added in the near future at Rock Hall. Romie Scoone's is nearing completion and Walter Sutton is preparing to open at the former Wheatley place.

The Ridgely Sun says, "The First district has registered a colored man who has affiliated himself as an Independent. This is the first case of its kind on record in Caroline county." Kent is proud to say that there is one colored man who is a real Independent—he is registered a Democrat. This is one out of 1290!

The Carribean Timber Corporation, largely owned by Queen Anne's county people, delivered during the past week a carload of lumber to George Moore, at Queen Anne, and a carload to Howard Turner, at Betterton, Kent county. In addition to this there was a carload delivered each to dealers at Easton and at Elkton. Mr. Turner is a director in this big concern.

It is always interesting to note the prices in other towns during these times. Walls & Dewing in Centreville advertise round steak at 30 cents a pound, sirloin steak 32, liver 18, picnic hams 28, plate beef 18. Fresh sausage was selling in Smyrna, Del., at 35 cents. Chestertown meat dealers look for a drop in prices soon as some of this cheap pork arrives here.

The census will be taken beginning in January. Officials will be named in a few weeks by Francis G. Wrightson, of Easton, who has this District to count. Two weeks are alloted for the work. They ask how old you are, the name of your wife, the number of children you have, whether or not there is a mortgage on your house, and even count the cows and chickens. And this is exactly what is going to be done over again.

John H. Moffett, poultryman, of Lynch, received an order from the Pennsylvania Poultry Farm, Robertstown, for six of his early hatched Rhode Island Red pullets and six of his early cockrels, at a fancy price.

A measuring social given under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society and Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church was held at the parsonage Wednesday. The feature of the evening was a mock breach of promise case for $25,000. The jury awarded the plaintiff $7,084.34. Fried oysters, pickles, beat biscuit and coffee were served.

Don't forget to put your X in box opposite C.

The employes at the Chestertown cannery carried about $4,000 away with them as their earnings.

The Chestertown cannery had some sugar left over at the close of business this week and distributed same to his customers as far as it would go.

S. G. Caldwell's sale of cattle on Wednesday amounted to quite a fine sum. The stock was bought of Bruce Massey, of near Sudlersville, and prices ranged from $125 to $170. It was a fine lot of cattle.

T. W. Eliason, Jr., has purchased of The Peoples' Garage, Galena, an Essex touring car, enclosed. It is a beauty.

The Kent County Branch of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association began its year in June, not having a nurse, activity was not begun until August when the nurse came, since then membership cards have gone out, our membership dues, a car bought and kept running, supplies for the nurses work, printing and all necessary expenses. There are now 92 members enrolled. Balance on hand $92.87.

A number of shade trees on High stree are being removed under supervision of Deputy Forester, C. D. McCleary.

A. S. Turner & Son have rented the Eliason store room now occupied by the Noland-Bennett-Russell Company for 1920.

Democrats—put your X mark in the box opposite the letter C in Democratic.

Metcalfe Bros. are buying wheat, corn, and selling grains, mill feeds and flour. Read their adv. in this issue. "A square deal and guaranteed satisfaction," is their motto.

Mrs. Charles E. Embert has rented from W. W. Hubbard a room in the basement of the Eastern Shore Inn and has opened up a shoe repairing shop, having employed a workman from New York.

Twenty big army trucks enroute for Camp Holabird, used for motor transport school purposes, parked in the public square over night, Saturday. The accompanying officers, about 35 in number, registered at the Voshell House.

Workmen are busy preparing the ground and digging the cellar for the erection of a modern dwelling on the lot on High street, recently purchased by Mrs. Ida M. Blyman. Same to be erected by her son, Harvey G. Blyman.

Trainer John Mallalieu, who has been campaigning several good ones the past season, stopped in town over Sunday with four of his string of trotters and pacers, on his way to Sudlersville, where he expects to winter. He will likely have some of his speedy "ponies" at the Worton Matinee, on Saturday, November 1.

Capt. J. Thomas Kibler has taken an interest in the grain and coal business with his father and brother, the firm now being C. W. Kibler & Sons.

A poultry raiser in this section said the other day that his flock of 400 fine chickens is costing him about $30 a week for feed, but when they start to lay he expects to reap a harvest from the sale of eggs.

The members and friends of Bond Chapel enjoyed a feast of good things last Sunday, it being the 68th Anniversary of the Church. The sermon of the morning was preached by Dr. L. E. Barrett and he was at his best. Dr. G. T. Alderson gave a great sermon in the afternoon that proved to be a spirited uplift. Preceding this sermon, the pastor read a number of thrilling incidents in connection with Methodism at old Hynson's Chapel and in Quaker Neck. A large audience filled the church in the evening expecting to hear a sermon by one of the expastors. At a late hour word came that he could not be present, and so the pastor had to preach. The music by some members of the Choral Club was rendered in a splendid manner. The selections were "Victorious King" and "The Recessional." Miss Miriam Louise Gardner sang a solo in her characteristic style which was greatly enjoyed. Everybody seemed to think the whole day's program could not be excelled.
