Camel Cigarettes

They Win You On Quality!

Your enjoyment of Camels will be very great because their refreshing flavor and fragrance and mellowness is so enticingly different. You never tasted such a cigarette! Bite is eliminated and there is a cheerful absence of any unpleasant cigaretty after-taste or any unpleasant cigaretty odor!

Camels are made of an expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos and are smooth and mild, but have that desirable full-body and certainly hand out satisfaction in generous measure. You will prefer this Camel blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

Give Camels the stiffest tryout, then compare them with any cigarette in the world at any price for quality, flavor, satisfaction. No matter how liberally you smoke Camels they will not tire your taste!

cents a package

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

WEDDING NOTES

Smith—White

St. Peter's Episcopal Church was scene of a very pretty wedding last Thursday, at high noon, when Miss Louise White became the bride of Dr. Charles F. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, of Chestertown.

The bride was a charming picture as she walked up the aisle leaning on the arm of her father Dr. E. Riall White, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, where awaited her the bridegroom, attended by his best man Dr. W. Hill, of Baltimore.

The English marriage service with ring followed. The Rev. Herbert Cone officiating, in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives.

The bride was attractively gowned in blue traveling dress of Tricotine, with small hat of brocaded blue and silver cloth and wore a corsage bouquet of orchids.

Dr. Smith, formerly of Chestertown is a rising dentist having worked up a large practice since establishing offices here.

A reception was held at the bride's home immediately after the ceremony. The young couple left for a short tour on the 3.04 p. m., train, followed thru the main streets by the gay company keeping up a constant din with their auto horns.

Visitors from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, of Chestertown, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Price, of Centreville. Mr. and Mrs. James H. Willis, Phillip and Edward Willis, of Oxford, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Froth Kent, of Trappe, Md., Miss Ethel Macklin, of Wilmington, Miss Margaret Steim, of Westminster, and Dr. W. Hall, of Baltimore. — Salisbury Advertiser.

Davis—Goodman

In the presence of a few relatives Joseph N. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Davis, of near Centreville, and Miss Mattie R. Goodman, of Chestertown, were quietly married Saturday night at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Centreville. Rev. Melvin E. Wheatley, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and bride-groom were driven to the home of the groom's parents, near Centreville, where they are now making their home.

Reed—Thompson

Miss Hallie Marie Thompson, only daughter of James Thompson, of near Church Hill, and Thomas Edward Reed, of near Centreville, were married Saturday, October 18th, at the M. E. parsonage, Chestertown, by Rev. G. T. Alderson, pastor of the church.

The bride wore a heavy blue tailored costume with hat and gloves to match. They were accompanied to Chestertown by Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar Chambers and Miss Marguerite Reed. After the ceremony the young couple was driven to the home of the bridegroom's parents, where they will reside until January 1st, when Mr. Reed will move to the "Garfield" farm, near Centreville.

Jones—Boggs

Miss Pearl E. Boggs, daughter of Mrs. Mary Boggs, of Smyrna, and Harvey C. Jones, also of Smyrna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Jones, of Still Pond, were married at 8 o'clock Saturday morning by the Rev. George C. Williams in the parsonage of McCabe Church, at 703 West Twentieth street. They will live in Smyrna where the bridegroom is in business.
