VOL. 80 — CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, NOVEMBER 15, 1919 — No. 25

A LIVING ADVERTISEMENT

There are widows and children in Kent county that are living advertisements of the benefits of protection from life insurance, also there are some that you see received no protection, for the Father and Husband either forgot, or didn't give the snap of his finger what became of his people when he checked in. The chances are it was the latter. Many a poor widow is working day in and night now, that her offspring might live. While you are reading this advertisement twenty-three men died in the United States and left widows and children who will be dependent on charity. How can YOU provide for your widow and children? Ask FRANK SIMPERS. Strength or ability to carry out its promises is the first consideration when selecting the institution to place your life insurance with. The Economic World, one of New York's leading business papers, speaks of the Continental Life (whom I represent) as being, proportionately speaking, in a financial sense perhaps the strongest life insurance company in the country. Want more details? Ask FRANK SIMPERS. Give me a chance to handle your life insurance. I have nearly one thousand policy holders in Kent county. Ask some of them how I handle their business.

RITCHIE WINS; PLURALITY 165

Attorney-General Ritchie, Democrat, was elected Governor of Maryland in Tuesday's election by 165 plurality over State's Attorney Nice, the Republican candidate. Mr. Ritchie's vote in the whole State was 112,240, and Nice's, 112,075. In the city Mr. Ritchie's vote was 54,203 and Nece's 52,397.

The result in the fight, which has racked the nerves of candidates and politicians of both parties since the polls closed Tuesday, was not known definitely until between 3 and 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when the official canvass in the city was completed, after the returns began coming in.

About 7 o'clock Chairman Tait, of the Republican State Central Committee, gave out a statement that the Republicans would ask for a recount of the ballots. The Democrats, who have considered the possibility of this move, are not disturbed. They say that fraud must be shown to warrant opening the ballot boxes, and that no fraud has been brought to light anywhere in the Gubernatorial fight.

The official canvass of the city vote also confirmed the election of Alexander Armstrong, Republican, for Attorney-General, over Thomas J. Keating. Mr. Armstrong's plurality will be around 100.

When the excitement subsided somewhat Mr. Ritchie made the following statement:

"Tonight, after the hardest and closest fight for Governor which, I believe, has ever taken place in Maryland, but two thoughts are in my mind—gratitude to all who have placed their trust in me and determination to be as worthy fo their trust as I can.

"I am genuinely and sincerely grateful to those who have worked so hard, so unceasingly and so unselfishly for the success of our ticket. No one ever had such friends. With all my heart, I thank them. I am grateful, also to all the people of this State, who by their help and support, have shown their confidence in us. And I am glad, too, that everyone on our side can feel pride in the fact that our fight never for one moment departed from what was clean and fair and above-board.

"My only regret at this moment is that the figures seem to indicate the defeat of Mr. Keating.

"I can but repeat what I said at the Lyric just before the campaign closed: 'I pledge myself to render as Governor to the people of Maryland the best that is in me; this means service uncontrolled and untrameled, and as high in efficiency and in honor as within me lies.'"

The Constitution makes the House of Delegates the body which shall pass upon claims for a contest over the Governorship, and the body which shall conduct the recount, if one is granted. The body is Democratic.

New Enterprise At Kennedyville

Dr. J. W. Urie, the hustling owner of Urieville Mills, is preparing to install an electric plant at the mill by which he expects to furnish light and power to Kennedyville and the surrounding country. The water at the mill will be utilized to furnish the power with which to drive the motors. In Cecil county the telephone company allowed their poles to be used on which to string the wires and permission will be asked here for same purpose at a nominal rental. The outfit will likely cost about $10,000.

REAL ESTATE SALES

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Lynch, of Betterton, have sold their farm of 22 acres to W. R. Widdup, of Spartansburg, S. C. The sale includes stock and implements. Price private. Mr. Lynch has purchased the Wm. Duyer property, Chestertown, Corner Kent and Cannon streets, and will remove there January 1, 1920. J. E. Barnes made the sales.

J. H. Sides has sold to A. S. Turner & Sons the big garage on Cross St., possession at once. It is reported that the Ford Agency will rent this garage, Mr. Turner having rented the Eliason store room near Queen St.

Arthur Bradley has sold the store property on High street occupied by the American Stores Co., and W. H. Waddell to A. S. Turner & Co. for $13,000. This property runs thru to Cannon street where there are three tenant houses. These stores are rented until August 1, 1920, and Jan. 1, 1921.

R. H. Collins has purchased from Hope H. Barroll, Esq., the property on Court street adjoining the latter's office and will build a printing plant in the near future.

Claude F. Parks has sold to Abraham Robinson the property on High street, now occupied by the latter, including also the McWhorter stables in the rear.

Jacob F. Allen has sold to Mrs. Amanda V. Elliott the dwelling on High street occupied at present by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coleman. Possession to be given January 1, 1920. Price $1200.

Representatives of the Paige Automobile Company, of Baltimore, are negotiating for the purchase of Mrs. Harriett Hill, of Baltimore, the property, corner of High and Queen streets, now occupied by the Greek candy kitchen and Arlington L. Sparks, dry goods merchant, together with the Red Cross Chapter House and dwelling.

SUFFUAGE BANQUET

Public Meeting In Court House Addressed By Mrs. Donald Hooker, Miss Martin, Dr. G. T. Alderson.

Friday night was suffrage evening in Chestertown. A splendid banquet was spread in the Rest Room of the Red Cross Chapter House and served in splendid manner by Miss Annie Copper. The newly elected lawmakers were invited to the feast and all accepted, but at the last minute the two legislative candidates found it impossible to be present. The other guests were Mrs. Donald Hooker, Miss Maria F. Martin, Senator William F. Russell and wife. The subscribers were Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Simmons, Mrs. Chas. W. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Perkins, Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. G. Usilton, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clendaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield, Miss Emma Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Smyth, Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes, Mrs. Jane Robinson, Miss Rogers, Miss Mary Knight, Mrs. D. B. McMenamin, Mrs. Robert Horris, Miss Ida Crow, Miss Leanore Wilmer, Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Harris, Mrs. Henry Brown, Miss Ruth Clendaniel, Miss Mamie Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Copper, Mrs. Frank M. Satterfield, Mrs. Frank Clark.

A public meeting in the Court House followed the banquet at which Dr. G. T. Alderson introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Donald Hooker, in a most elegant manner. He heartily endorsed the suffrage movement and thought the name "Just" Government League most appropriate. Mrs. Hooker spoke for 45 minutes in her convincing style giving strong reasons for the cause she espoused. Mrs. Hooker is a strong speaker and delighted her audience. Miss Martin also spoke. The following resolutions were adopted at the meeting:

Whereas, nineteen states have already ratified the Federal Suffrage Amendment, and

Whereas, Woman Suffrage will be forced upon the people of Maryland unless she is one of the first thirty-six states to ratify the amendment, and

Whereas, The people of Kent county desire the ratification of the amendment, and

Whereas, The National Democratic Committee has urged the immediate ratification of the amendment, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this meeting, under the auspices of the Just Government League of Kent County, go on record as urging the Kent County members of the Maryland Legislature to vote for the ratification of the Federal Suffrage Amendment.
