IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, SARAH C. NEAL, who departed this life one year ago today, December 7, 1918.

Alone in the silent grave,
'Neath the sod and dew;
Never a moment forgotten,
In silence we think of you.
Oh, how we have missed you, mother,
More and more each day,
And our hearts have never stopped aching,
Since you have passed away.
We did not know the pain she bore,
As we sat and watched her die,
But we only know she slipped away,
Without bidding us good-bye.

BY HER CHILDREN.

CHURCH NOTES

The union evangelistic meetings closed Sunday evening with a packed house and a delightful service, Dr. Dow delivering one of his able sermons on "How shall you escape if you neglect so great a salvation." There were 12 conversions in the Sunday school on Sunday afternoon and 12 during the three weeks making a total of 24. On Sunday morning after communion service in both churches, opportunity will be given for those converted to join church on probation. The free-will offering to Dr. Dow amounted to $514.17, and Prof. Lawton was paid $120 and expenses. During the three weeks there was raised for all purposes over $1,000, proving that the people will give cheerfully for what pleases them.

The Third Quarterly Conference of Olivet M. E. charge was held at Locust Grove Church Monday morning. The pastor, Rev. Frank White, was cordially invited to return to the work here for another year.

The Lay election officers were elected as follows for Galena: Judge L. R. Vansant; tellers, Mrs. F. H. Ruth and Theodore Dempsey. For Locust Grove, Judge, Robert Bramble; tellers, Mrs. Henry Kelley and Cornelius Jarvis.

A full program has been provided for the M. E. Church tomorrow. throughout the day the revival note will be sounded, closing in the evening with a special evangelistic service. In the morning at 10.30 the Communion service will be held and an opportunity will be given to unite with the church. The Sunday school session will be held at 2.15. This being missionary day in the school a large attendance is expected and a banner offering will likely be made. In the evening at 7 o'clock the Epworth League will resume its devotional meetings. The topic will be: "Our League's Watchmen and Messenger" with Mrs. John Bennett, as leader. At 7.30 the public preaching service will be held. Dr. Alderson will preach from the subject "Profit and Loss or the Sale of the Soul."

Dudley G. Roe, of Sudlersville, will give a talk on the Nation-Wide Campaign of the P. E. Church at St. Paul's Church next Sunday at 11 a. m. All members and friends are urged to be present.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor. Morning worship, Holy Communion, 10.30 a. m.; Sunday school, Fred. G. Usilton, Supt., 2.30 p. m.; Christian Endeavor, 6.45 p. m.; evening worship, "What Shall the End Be?" 7.30 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday, 7.30 p. m.; Intermediates, Friday, 7 p. m. Everybody welcome.

In voting to admit women to full membership in the Republican National Committee, at its recent meeting in Chicago, that organization of the G. O. P. has again complimented the Democratic National Committee by a close, if somewhat tardy, imitation of a policy the latter adopted several months ago.
