Mrs. Thomas Godwin has been visiting Mrs. E. T. Othoson.

John C. Redmile, mother and sisters have moved to the Weer residence recently purchased by Mr. Redmile.

The Nickerson boys have moved to the fine farm vacated by Edmond Pennington.

Two of our oldest farmers have sold out and have decided to live a private life.

Lewis Grantlin has purchased the Lane property in Kennedyville and will make his home here in the future.

Henry Rutter will move from the Davis farm recently purchased by Wm. Newton, to the Harry J. Hill house near this place and will make this his home in the future.

Mrs. Cleaver has moved to the house in the village recently vacated by David Nickerson. Mr. Nickerson having gone with his son, Earle and Charles, on the farm.

HAVE COMPASSION

Patrons of the rural route could greatly lessen the discomfort of the carriers during the winter days by always keeping on hand a few two cent stamps and putting them on their letters, instead of droping pennies in the box, which necessitates the carrier taking off his gloves and picking up the cold pennies. This may seem a trivial matter, but if one will consider how frequently the carrier may have to pick up the cold pennies it will be seen not such a trivial matter ofter all.

BUY RED CROSS SEALS

Everybody should buy, and buy at once Red Cross Christmas seals. The proceeds from the sale of these seals are to be used for fighting tuberculosis. These seals are on sale in all three drug stores in Chestertown, and are also on sale in every town in the county.

Have you ordered your Ford Car? Do it now and have it for Xmas.—C. A. Goodwin, Chestertown.

GRANGE NOTES

Every member of Worton Grange please be present Monday night, Dec. 15th, as there will be election of officers.

C. A. Goodwin, the hustling Ford agent, has rented the Culp home on Washington avenue and will remove therein in a few days.

SINCE 1912, Stewart Trucks have been daily proving the fact that they are America's greatest truck values.

The elimination of hundreds of needless parts lowers production costs and makes possible a stronger and more simplified truck that is less than the average to buy and more economical to run and maintain.

Stewarts' low costs for tires, gasoline and repairs have made them the choice in over 600 American cities, on hundreds of farms and in 27 foreign countries.

The free booklet, "How to Choose A Motor Truck," will give you further particulars. It's free for the asking.
