Turning Eggs Into Gold

Long years ago an alchemist announced that he had discovered a formula for turining eggs into gold. This formula was this. Put four eggs in a pan and stir them for ten minutes. Imposible, of course. Yes, and it's going to be imposible for you in the future to see or hear the words life insurance without thinking of Frank Simpers. The name and the thing are interchanageable to Kent Countians. FRANK SIMPERS — LIFE INSURANCE. LIFE INSURANCE — FRANK SIMPERS.

I want to take this opportunity to thank my friends and policy holders in Kent County for making it possible for me to have had one of the best years during my twenty years in the insurance business. You have helped me to write and place quite a little over a quarter of a million dollars of the best business ever written in Kent County. Place your insurance with FRANK SIMPERS. He will start with you, and stay with you in the years to come. My hundreds of policy holders will vouch for this.

MY CREDO.

I believe in my COMPANY.
I believe in its POLICIES.
I believe in MYSELF.
I believe in my WORK.

I believe in my prospect—in his sincerity, his good will, and his right to as much consideration from me as I expect from him.

I believe I am going to DELIVER THE GOODS.

HAND OF DEATH

Benjamin Franklin Crew died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Albert S. Turner, on Water street, Chestertown, Sunday evening after a long illness, aged 86. The deceased was one of Kent's best citizens, an upright gentleman, a kind father and a most industrious farmer. Up to within a year of his death he was active in tilling land and loved to be at work. He lived on the Nicholson farm in Worton for many years, previous to which he was a sailor. He leaves the following children: Benj. Frank and Clarence, of Wilmington, Charles and Mrs. A. S. Turner, of Chestertown.

The funeral took place Wednesday morning, Revs. J. L. Ward and G. T. Alderson officiating, Wm.T. Hicks, undertaker, interment in Still Pond Cemetery. The bearers were his three sons, son-in-law and two grandsons.

Zadie R. Goodman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Goodman, died at her parent's home on the Jarrell farm, near Fairlee, on last Tuesday night at two o'clock of Ptomaine poison, aged 4 years and 7 months. Funeral took place from her late home yesterday, Friday afternoon, at one o'clock, Rev. M. Alderson officiating, interment was in Union Cemetery near Worton; Undertaker, William H. Krusen.

Edna Mae Crew, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crew, died at her parents home on the Wright Howard farm, in Still Pond Neck, on Wednesday night, at one o'clock, aged three years and five months. Funeral will take place from her late home Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, Rev. A. H. Goodhand officiating, undertaker, W. H. Krusen; interment will be in Still Pond Cemetery. The bearers will be Walter, Reese, Joseph and Emmett Crew.

A Correction.—We wish to correct a report which does an injustice to parents, merchants, teachers and doctor in report of death of Rebecca Goodman. The child died in convulsions from over-eating of candies, nuts, etc., etc., while in a weakened condition. We might go more fully into the case but it is sufficient to make this plain statement.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

The report that candy bought of us caused the death of a young girl in Fairlee is a mistake. It was not purchased from us.

FAREWELL TO THE OLD

"Old Year, thy life is well-nigh spent,
Thy feet are tottering and slow,
Thy hoary head with age is bent,
The time is here for thee to go;
Already in the frozen snow
A lonely grave is made for thee;
The winds are chanting dirges low,
Upon the land and on the sea.

Old, Year, thou wert a friend to some,
To some thou were of worth untold,
Thy days were blessings, every one,
More precious for than shining gold;
But unto others thou a foe
Did prove thyself—an enemy,
Relentless as the chains of woe—
As ruthless as the maddened sea.

Some will rejoice to know thee dead,
Others will mourn thee as a friend;
Some will look back to thee with dread,
Others their praises to thee lend;
I neither offer praise nor blame,
Old Year, for what you brought to me,
For unto me both joy and pain
Your active hands gave lavishly.

Thy solemn-death hour draws a-nigh;
And hark! I hear thy funeral knell,
Slow pealing through the darkened sky;
Farewell, Old Year—Farewell, farewell!"

The outstanding features of the meeting of the Peninsula Horticultural Society in Chesterown, January 6, 7 and 8, are the buffet luncheon to be served to the members and visitors at Washington College at noon on Tuesday, the opening day of the meeting, and the moving picture film showing orchards demonstration work in Maryland in co-operation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This film is the first of its kind in the world and was first shown at Hagerstown during the meeting of the American Farmers' Congress. This film will be shown on Tuesday night in Lyceum Theatre.

Letters from fruit growers and market gardners from the Peninsula and outside indicate that this will be one of the best meetings in exhibits, papers and discussion, and in attendance, that has ever been held. No progressive farmer should fail to attend Ample hotel accommodations have been provided. Meals will be served at Washington College for sixty-five cents and hotels and boarding houses can easily take care of the lodging and breakfast.
