The Secret of a Superlative Tire

The whole question of a super-tire is a matter of principles. For there is nothing exclusive in the industry. No patents, no secret formulas prevent a conscientious maker from building the best.

But cost and competition modify ideals. The Brunswick idea is to pay perfection's price and get it.

That has been the Brunswick policy since 1845. And it accounts for the growing preference for Brunswick Tires. Motorists expect the utmost from a tire bearing the name of Brunswick—and get it.

You, too, will be convinced by your first Brunswick, that here is an extraordinary tire, and that more money cannot buy a better.

Better tires of their type are impossible—or better tubes. That we guarantee.

Try ONE Brunswick—learn how it excels.

LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 23, 1919

FRED. G. USILTON, ESQ.,

My Dear Sir and Friend:—I have drifted to very near the jumping off place of our lovely , grand country. I arrived in this (said here to be the largest city in the world) in territory or acreage of land. The papers lay claim to becoming the fifth city in next census in population and one paper lays claim to fourth city, coming in next to Philadelphia and ahead of Boston, Mass. It actually does seem that the world is congregating here—on every train arriving here is generally bringing not less than 8 and up to 16 cars, all filled to capacity—many of these people are home-seekers in this State and especially in this southern section.

It seems to be impossible to obtain hotel accommodation unless engaged ahead. I arrived here Sunday night, December 7th, over the Santa Fe route at 10 p. m. and called at 13 places, eight hotels and five rooming houses, and told no room. I then went to the Bible Institute, who advertise 600 beds, and also received the no room answer. Here I drove my stake. I told the night watchman I was sorry to give him trouble, but was forced to do so. He replied—trouble! What do you mean? I told him I was an old man and exhausted (which was about true) and would not of my own free will leave that house that night, and he would be forced to have me arrested and turned over to police authorities and they would be compelled to give some kind of a lodging place. Then he said, my dear sir, I am sorry for you, but all our beds are engaged. I told him that I would not positively of my own will leave his house. Then he said I will see what I can do for you. It was between 3 and 4 o'clock and after a while he came back, told me, one party who had rented a bed in the dormitory would not be in that night and I could have that. I thanked him, paid $1.50 and retired after my devotions, thanking God for His goodness to me. Had a good bed, slept till 9 a. m.

December 8, next day, I found one of my two nieces I had not seen for 30 years and was O. K. and have been since.

The city authorities are building a tent city. 25,000 tents are being put up, about 100 per day, and at night are filled by tourists and home-seekers.

Dear Fred:—I really do not marvel at the rush of emigration to this section of coutry. At this time of the year, at least, this is supposed to be the rainy season here, but since I have been here nothing but clear weather and sunshine has been our lot and portion, with flowers growing everywhere, and lawn mowers are seen and heard clipping the grass. Overcoats are useless except in early hours. Many tots are barefooted. On New Year's Day the special flower parade in Pasadena (a suburb of Los Angeles) is to be the greatest ever. As one paper has it—The world will be here on that day. In the morning the flower parade and in the afternoon the great world champion game of footall is to be played—Harvard vs. Oregon teams. O, it is lovely here.

Congratulations, politically, for Kent county, Md., for you seemed to have gotten over factions and elected the entire Democratic ticket — and Friend Russell as Senator — good. Congratulate him for me personally, now dear Fred!

I am enjoying the best of health and perfectly contented with my lot. I have had a number of auto rides and everywhere are sights of loveliness to be seen, but the orange groves at this time to me are a special thing of beauty. It reminds me of our peach orchards back in 1870 to 1885. Trees are loaded where I have been and oranges are ripening, and O, how delicious the fruit is, picked ripe from a tree. There is no use for sugar, eat- a tree-ripe orange. Like peaches for shipment, oranges are picked rather green.

The Millionaire Boulevard is a wonderful show in itself and is several miles in length. Eash new addition try to outdo and outbuild what is already completed. Straw hats are largely in evidence here during the warm hours of the day. Nights are cool. Considerable bathing at Vinice, a resort on the Pacific, is much indulged in. Venice, like every town in the whole of Los Angeles county, is a part of this city.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Mrs. J. Christman Proved That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a Remedy for this Trouble.

Binghamton, N. Y.—"I was in a very nervous condition for over a year, my mind was gloomy, could see no light on anything, could not work and could not have anyone to see me. Doctor's medicine did not help me and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended. I took it and am now well. I recommend it to all afflicted with nervous prostration."—Mrs. J. CHRISTMAN, 193 Oak Street, Binghamton, New York.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from nervous prostration, displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion and dizziness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

If there are any complications about which you need advice write in confidence to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
