The members and friends of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church gave their pastor and family an old-time "pounding" on Thursday, January 15. They arrived at the parsonage about 5 p. m. and by 6 o'clock had one of their celebrated chicken suppers on the table for all of the guests. After supper the evening was spent in pleasant games, etc. When at a late hour the last one had wended their way homeward, there was piled on the parsonage table sugar, lard, hams, shoulders, beef roasts and steaks, canned fruit and vegetables and other groceries, all in a large abundance, while potatoes, apples and field corn were in their baskets. There was also an envelope containing some nice crisp greenbacks, all of which the pastor and family were truly grateful.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our darling, HARLES W. ROBINSON, who passed y three years ago January 23, 1917.

ly held within my arms a jewell rare,
had one so rich and pure engaged my care,
my own, my precious jewel—God ave it to me,
mine, who else could care for it so tenderly?
But the dear Master came one day my gem to take.
Icannot let it go, "I cried; my heart will break."
Nay, but the Master comes for it to bear above,
To deck His royal diadem. He comes in love,
Master it is my treasure, my jewel rare;
oy keep it pure and fair
keepest my gem, He said it may be lost;
threshold of my home no thief has ever crossed.
where the heart's rich treasure is the heart will be;
jewel will be safe above gone before thee.
aster said these words and gazed with pitying look,
the early hush of morn my gem took.
my heart that morn I held tears falling fast,
empty casket. The bright gem was safe at last.
Yes Master, Thou mayest keep my own for it is Thine,
Safe in the house not made with hands, 'tis Thine and mine.

BY HIS LOVING PARENTS.

Like the perfume of June's fragrant roses
As it floats on the calm twilight air,
Is the thought of the dear one who left us
For a mansion in the home so fair.

LOVING GRANDMOTHER.

Our friend, Jim Dadds, who had been busy delivering wood to the people in this section, rapped on the door of one of his customers in time to hear the mother quiz her college daughter, thus: "Did John kiss you ni ?" The daughter replied: a slight labial juxtaposi- departed," mother dear; you it was only momen- fore innicuous.

CLIFF CITY NOTES

Arthur Legg seems to be having great success in trapping.

Miss Lula Slagle is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jennings Townsend, of near Tolchester.

Mrs. James Wirts has returned from Easton hospital much improved.

TO ALL PEOPLE OF KENT

The following resolution was adopted by the Maryland State Grange in session at Chestertown, Md., December 8-11, 1919:

Resolved, that the Maryland State Grange in convention assembled at Chestertown acknowledge with grateful appreciation the very cordial welcome extended to us by the Kent County Pomona Grange, the people of Chestertown, and the present Trustees and Faculty of Washington College, who have done so much to make our stay with them not only profitable but pleasant.

Resolution adopted by the Kent County Pomona Grange on December 11, 1919.

Resolved, that the Kent County Pomona Grange considers the costs allowed in the Boys' Club Contest very misleading and that they should be changed so as to represent the actual costs, which are in some cases three or four times the Club figure, thus creating the impression on the public that it costs practically nothing to produce crops.

And that a copy of this resolution be sent to each Pomona Grange in the State, to the Maryland Farmer, to the Extension Service of the Maryland State College, to the State Boys' Club Agent and to the county papers.

A. L. HARRIS, Secretary.

IN MEMORIAM

Sacred to the memory of my dear son, LESLIE PROCTER SEWELL, who departed this life one year ago January 24th, 1919.

My son's hands! I loved them so,
And now they are lying under the snow;
Under the snow, so cold and white,
I cannot see them or touch them tonight,
They are quiet and still at last. O me!
How busy and careful they used to be.
But now they can never reach up through the snow,
Dear Leslie's hands, I miss them so.
My son's hands! I miss them so,
All through the day wherever I go;
All through the night how lonely it seems
For no precious hands wake me up out of my dreams,
I miss them all through the weary hours,
I miss them as others miss sunshine and flowers;
Day time or night time, wherever I go,
Dear Leslie's hands, I miss them so.
My son's hands, they have gone from me now,
Never again will they rest on my brow;
Never again smooth my sorrowful face;
Never again clasp me in loving embrace;
And so as my forehead grows wrinkled with care,
Thinking of Leslie's hands once resting there.
But I know in a happier heavenly clime
Dear Leslie's hands I will clasp you sometime.
My son's hands, when the Master shall call
I'll welcome the summons that comes to us all,
When my feet touch the waters, so dark and so cold,
And I catch my first glimpse of that city of gold,
If I keep my eyes fixed on the heavenly gate,
Over the way where the white winged ones wait,
Shall I know you, I wonder, among the bright bands,
Will you beckon me over, O dear Leslie's hands?

By His Loving Mother,
MRS. MARY C. RYAN.

This will be open to public and every farmer of this community is urged to come and hear him and see his demonstrations.

NOTICE! — Ford Owners having new style motors—without self starters can now have the genuine Ford starter installed at a reasonable price at the Ford dealer's establishment in Chestertown. C. A. Goodwin authorized Ford sales and service. 2t

'RESOLUTIONS'

Most every one make some new resolutions at the beginning of the New Year.

Let me suggest one good one to make.

Resolve that you will insure your property against fire AT ONCE.

If you are already insured, see that your property is covered to THREE FOURTHS the value at least.

Who Will Pay the Loss?

When a man dies there are three deaths.
Death of the Husband.
Death of the Father.
Death of the Income.

Death means loss. Losses must be paid by some one. Who will pay the loss in case of your premature death during the productive period of your life?

Why not let a life insurance company take care of this loss?
