Collector's Notice.

THE undersigned, Collector for the County, State, and other Taxes, for Kent County, has appointed the following persons Deputy Collectors for the respective districts in said county, to wit:

For the Lower or first election district John N. McDaniel, Esq.—For the Middle or second election district Thos Lusby, Esq—For the Upper or third election district Wm. R. Boyer, Esq The Assessments and Levies have been made; and the Collectors are authorized to proceed and close their respective district The liabilities of the County are large and some of them pressing. The State Tax is considerable, and payments are required semi monthly under penalties. The Collectors are therefore authorized and have full power to close their collections as soon as possible. I cannot interfere in any case between the collectors and persons indebted, and none will therefore apply to me; my engagements with my Collectors will preclude me from any interference to delay a single day in any case.

Unless accounts are paid off before the first day of January next, interest will be charged from the first day of June, 1854 A deduction on account of State Tax will be made if payments are promptly rendered. The earlier the payment, the greater the deduction.

The public are earnestly requested to make prompt payments.

A Valuable Farm

AND A FINE

DWELLING HOUSE,

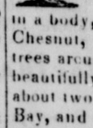

LOTS &c.,

FOR SALE.

WILL be offered at public sale on THURSDAY the 10th day of August next, at the Hotel of Mr. John McDaniel, in Chestertown, Kent county, Md., at 11 o'clock, A. M., the farm called "HOWELL'S RESURVEY," containing about

478 ACRES,

SIXTY-FIVE-and-a-HALF of which is in a body, besides a great quantity of Chesnut, Locust and other kind of trees around the farm. This farm is beautifully situated on Fairlee Creek, about two miles from the Chesapeake Bay, and nearly half of it is surrounded by water, which saves a great deal of fencing The arable land is divided into six fields and two lots, under good fencing, the greater part of it being of fine chesnut rails; and the said land is now in a fine state of improvement, having been nearly all limed heavily and a great quantity of ashes and other manures put out upon it, within a few years past Clover and plaster act finely upon it. Nearly all of the field's have water in them for stock, and are so laid off as to let the stock come directly up to the farm-yard.

The improvements are a FRAME DWELLING HOUSE, with two good size rooms below and two above stairs, with a Kuchen attached, a dairy house, and a pump of good water in the yard—and the pump is so fixed as to let the water pass through the dairy house;—a fine large Barn, good Stables, Corn Houses, and other necessary out-buildings, all in pretty good repair. There are some Apple and Peach Trees of good fruit, now in full bearing.

Few farms possess the advantages of this one, being a good wheat and corn soil, and having a good landing on the creek where grain can be delivered at any time; and there being a good grist and saw mill directly by it; three churches within four miles; school house within two miles; a blacksmith and cartwright shop within five miles; and being only seven miles from Chester Town, the County Town, to which place there is a fine road.

Directly after the farm is disposed of, the DWELLING HOUSE Out-Buildings and Lots in Chester Town, near the bridge, and now in the occupancy of G. W. T. Perkins, Esq. will be offered for sale.

A credit will be given for part of the purchase money.

A VALUABLE FARM For Sale.

THE subscriber, as Agent, will dispose of the farm in Still Pond, Kent county, Md., owned and occupied by Mr. Joseph Howard, containing situated in Still Pond Neck, within half a mile of Chesapeake Bay; within two miles of a landing, and adjoining the lands of Mr. Polk and Dr Davidson. About 130 Acres is in and the growing chesnut will be sufficient for maintaining the fencing on two such farms. It is divided in o six fields, well fenced with chesnut rails.

370 Acres,

WOOD

The BUILDINGS consist of a Brick one Story DWELLING, 42 by 26 feet, a Kitchen, 18 feet square, Corn House, Carriage House, Granary and Stabling, all in fair condition and well roofed. The soil grows clover finely; is productive and in good heart There are Post Office and Churches within three miles—Stores, Cartwright and Smith's Shops within the same distance.

Possession will be given at the end of the year, with the privilege of breaking fallow and seeding fall grain.

The Terms will be made accommodating.

If not sold at private sale before the eighth day of August next it will be offered at public sale, at the Tavern porch of John McDaniel, Esq, in Chester Town, on

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

352½ ACRES.

THE subscriber, desirous of removing to the West, will sell his farm known as the "Everlasting,"

lying and being upon Fairlee Creek one-and-a-half miles from the Chesapeake Bay, and seven and a half from Chestertown, in Kent county, Maryland. This farm may be called in a high state of cultivation, having been limed, ashed and manured very recently. Within the last two years 8000 bushels of lime have been spread, covering about two-thirds of the arable land for the fourth time—one half the balance has been covered three times, and the remainder once. This farm is considered one of the best in the county for grazing purposes, being well adapted to grass, and having running water in every field. It is very conveniently situated with respect to market for all kinds of produce, having two landings upon it, and being within thirty miles of Baltimore. The BUILDINGS on the premises are in good order ($1000 having been expended upon them the past season) and well adapted to the uses for which designed, viz—Granary, Stabling, Shedding, Loft Room, &c. For School, Church and Mill facilities, this property cannot be surpassed, there being a well conducted grist and saw mill adjoining; four churches within five miles, a school within one and a half miles. There is a pump of excellent water convenient to house and barns. Also a young and flourishing in full bearing, of choice and very early fruit, and many other advantages generally considered minor, but which in reality are a farmer's comfort and his pleasure. There is plenty of

Peach Orchard

for farm use, and some young and thriving chesnut and locust.

A FINE MEADOW

can be made with very little cost; in fact, the incipient step towards it has already been taken. All persons wishing to buy land in this county, would do well to come and survey this property.

This farm is offered until 1st day of August at private sale—if not by that time sold, it will be exposed on

TUESDAY,

September 19th, to the highest bidder.

TUESDAY,

THE FIRST DAY OF AUGUST next, at 11 o'clock A. M., at the Hotel of John McDaniel in Chester Town, his farm lying on Chester River, adjoining the land of Wm. T. Spry and others, containing

301 ACRES,

More or less, situated on the new road leading from Millington to Chestertown, four miles from the former and eight from the latter place. The farm is divided into six fields, and under good fencing. 240 Acres are in arable land, of kind soil and well improved; adapted to the growth of Corn, Wheat, Oats, &c; the remainder, 60 Acres, is in

WOOD & TIMBER

The BUILDINGS consist of a new TWO STORY FRAME

Dwelling AND KITCHEN.

The out houses, Corn-houses, Granary, Stabling, Carriage House, &c., are all new and in good order.

There is on the farm a thriving PEACH ORCHARD, of 2300 trees, of the best budded fruit—a part of the orchard is in full bearing.

There is a good fishery on the farm; Lime and other fertilizers can be landed immediately on the farm. There has been 10,000 bushels of lime put on the farm within the last three years, besides Guano and other fertilizers. There is a good tenant house on the farm

This farm is convenient to church, mill and market, and in one of the best neighborhoods in the county.

THE TERMS OF SALE

Are one-fourth CASH; the balance of the purchase money is to be paid in three equal and annual instalments of one, two and three years, with interest from the day of sale—the purchaser giving his bond, with approved security, as the case may be; when a good and sufficient deed will be given for the premises. The purchaser can have privilege to break up a field of fallow this fall, if required. Full possession will be given on the first day of January, 1855.
