FINE SHOW IN TOWN

Emmanuel Guild Of Protestant Episcopal Church Put On Stage A Great Show—Not A Man In It—Catchy Songs — Funny Stories — Ballet Number.

Two packed houses greeted the Lady Minstrels in Chestertown Lyceum this week given under the auspices of Emmanuel P. E. Church Guild. Miss M. Adele France was director in chief, Miss Virginia Haslett, of Woodstock, Va., musical director, Mrs. Thomas W. Perkins, chairman entertainment committee. The orchestra music and chorus singing was certainly of a high order while the solos were charmingly rendered. The two showed careful training while the end "men" and companions would be hard to excel. Aunt Jemima as a dancer, story teller and all-round actor approached the professional and the whole cast was up to the minute.

The second part with its pretty and winsome five little minuet girls was indeed charming while the speaking by Anna Cook Coleman and sketches were most enjoyable. It remained for the last act to present something never before seen in town—a ballet dancer with skirt and "trimmings" presenting art and grace in motion to the accompaniment of soft music. The program in full follows:
