THE NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

Saturday Morning, September 23, 1854

☞Owing to a heavy press of job-work we have been compelled to fill the outside of our paper up entirely with advertisements. We hope to avoid this in future.

RESIGNED.—The Hon. A. Spence Judge of the Eighth Judicial District of Maryland, has sent his resignation to Governor Ligon.

THE FAIR OF THE MARYLAND INSTITUTE.—The Baltimore Sun, of Thursday says: "The hall of the Maryland Institute was yesterday thronged during the day with visitors, and last evening there was a perfect jam. There was scarcely any such thing as getting along through the spacious aisles. The hall will be unquestionably a great source of attraction while the exhibition lasts. As yet every thing has not been properly and permanently arranged. Articles from a distance which were expected at an earlier period, have been delayed in transportation and are still arriving.—As each one comes some new arrangement has to be made. Indeed, those already received, and which were delayed to the latest moment, scarcely have been located, notwithstanding the most energetic exertions of the superintendent and his assistants day and night."

FOREIGN NEWS.

The steamship Atlantic arrived at New York on Tuesday, bringing Liverpool advices to the 6th inst. Russia's absolute rejection of the four propositions of Austria seems to be authentically ascertained, and it is added that the Austrian army in the Principalities will be increased from thirty to one hundred thousand men.

It is not expected that Austria will declare war against Russia, but it is believed that the Austrian and Swedish ministers will leave St. Petersburg.

Steamers of the allied fleet having approached Hango Udd, the Russians blew up the fortress of Gusteamer, imagining it was to be bombarded. Up to August 21st the allied expedition had not left Varna, and it was doubtful when it would go, or where to.

The Russian forces have retired beyond the Pruth, the Austrians are in the Principalities, and the Turkish army was marching forward very leisurely. Baron Hess, the Austrian Commander-in-Chief, has issued a proclamation to the inhabitants of the Principalities, announcing the Austrians troops have entered those provinces under a treaty with the Ottoman Porte, and bring peace to the people thereof.

Omer Pasha has entered Buchurest in great state. The ladies covered him with flowers. The correspondents of the London Chronicle and News were arrested at Bucharest by mistake, and when subsequently liberated demanded a written apology from Omer Pasha.—Prince Albert is on a visit to Louis Napoleon at Boulogne He set out accompanied by the Duke New Castle, Minister of War, a squadron of the Queen's life guards, four sloops of war, and a great fleet of passenger ships.—The camp at Boulogne contains 100,000 troops, Napoleon in person commands the manœuvres, and the King of Belgium, the Duke of Brabant, and the King of Portugal have been present The court martial on Linet Perry, of the 46th British regiment, whose case has excited so much attention on account of his persecution by the officers of the regiment, has resulted in his conviction on two counts, and a sentence to be cashiered, but accompanied by a recommendation that the Queen permit him to sell out. A public subscription on his behalf has been commenced, and the London Times savagely denounce the verdict as unjust. In Belgium the Ministers have withdrawn their resignations

The Emperor Napoleon and Prince Jerome are to visit Belgium, and will be met by the King at Touncy, on the 12th of September. Advices from Spain say that the Queen Mother, Christiana, had been seized with severe illness from cerebral excitement, and had become insane. Cholera was committing great ravages in Barcetona.

Arrest on the charge of participating in the Slave Trade.

NEW YORK, Sep. 20.—Capt. Smith, of the brig Julia Moulton, was arrested this morning, charged by —— Wells, mate, with bringing 616 slaves from Africa and landing them.

The Canadian Legislature.

QUEBEC, Sept. 20.—The House has been in session all night, debating the address to the Queen, and is still sitting at noon. The test vote on the amendment of the paragraph relating to the clergy reserves was 80 for the minister to 33 against.

Later from Havana.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20,—The steamer Philadelphia has arrived, with dates from Havana to the 14th. Nothing new, of a political character, had transpired.

Democratic Meeting Denouncing the Know-Nothings.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The attempt to reorganize the Democratic party upon the basis of opposition to the Know Nothings have served to relieve the monotory existing here.

To-night a mass meeting was held by the Democracy at Carusi's Saloon, consisting of some five or six hundred persons. Postmaster Berret was appointed President, and a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The committee on business presented a preamble and series of resolutions in substance as follows:

That whereas the Democratic party has ever striven to maintain the guaranties of the constitution to its purity, and whereas a certain organization has sprung up, having for its object to control the rights of adopted citizens—Therefore,

Resolved, That the Democratic party will wage unceasing war upon the organization of Know Nothings, and for that purpose will form a National Democratic Association—that we will forget political antecedents, and cordially invite Whigs and all others to join us in our efforts—that we have confidence in the wisdom and integrity of President Pierce's administration—that all Know Nothings be removed from office under the administration, &c.

Upon the vote being taken on the resolutions, the negatives were decidedly in the ascendant but they were, notwithstanding, declared to be passed by the President

Mr Florence, of Philadelphia, was introduced, and was saluted with groans and cries of "water," &c. He waited some minutes, but no disposition being exhibited to hear him speak, some of the speakers on the stand commenced abusing the Know Nothings in a violent style.

After considerable sharp shooting between a portion of the meeting and the speakers on the stand, both being very indiscreet in their language, the meeting adjourned to Friday afternoon, nothing being done beyond the appointment of officers and the passage of resolutions.

This meeting is regarded as of much importance here, as from all the movements connected with it, the appointment of officers, the character of the resolutions, &c., it undoubtedly has the commencement of the rolling of a Democratic Presidential ball.

The disturbance was created by not more than thirty persons and could not be considered as a party movement of those opposed to the object of the meeting.

New York Whig State Convention.

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Sept 20.—The Whig State Convention was organized at 12 o'clock, and Henry J Seamen was appointed temporary chairman. A committee was appointed to appoint permanent officers, when the Convention took a recess until 3 o'clock

The attendance is very full, and the Know Nothings appear to be far ahead.

[SECOND DISPATCH]

SYRACUSE, Sep. 20. Afternoon Session.—Samuel G Andrews of Monroe, was appointed President with numerous Vice Presidents and Secretaries. After various propositions and considerable discussion as to the appointment of a committee on resolutions, the subject was tabled but was subsequently taken up, and a committee of one from each judicial district nominated.

The Convention then took a recess until 7 o'clock.
