BERTIE TULL SOLD

C. W. Kibler & Sons, of Chestertown, have sold their power boat, Bertie Tull, to Baltimore parties. She will be used in the canal freighting business between Baltimore and New York. It is understood that they got a good price for the boat. Kibler & Sons have purchased the power boat "Cambridge" to take care of their freighting business. The Cambridge will carry about 2300 bushels of grain.

TOMATOES AT $30 A TON

Inquiry among the farmers growing tomatoes for canning purposes reveals the fact that few of them are under contract with canners for the 1920 crop, and will take chances on open-market prices.

The packers also have been disposed to withhold contracting with growers because of the uncertainty of prices for this year's pack. Several packers in Wicomico county, it is reported, will not open their packing houses this season, and it is predicted that the smallest pack of tomatoes for several years will be the outcome.

The growers expect $30 a ton or 50 cents per basket for the crop this season. In Kent some contracts have been made at this figure. Canners are anything but optimostic concerning the canning outlook.

Betterton and Tolchester accommodated thousands on the 4th and not an accident nor a case of misconduct has been reported. Isn't it remarkable.

HAND OF DEATH

Mrs. Charles C. Ivens, wife of Chas. E. Ivens, of Worton Station, died at Union Hospital in Easton Tuesday evening of acute neuritis, aged 27. The deceased had only been sick a short time and her death came as a lightning flash to her large circle of friends. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bedwell and had only been married six months. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, interment in Chester Cemetery; W. H. Krusen, undertaker.

Mrs. Catherine W. Ireland, wife of James T. Ireland, of near Coleman's, died at her home Tuesday night, aged 65 years. Besides her husband she is survived by the following children: James T., Jr., Page W., Charles, Myrtle H., Ira W. and W. Bran. Funeral was held from her late home on Thursday afternoon, with services conducted by the Rev. S. S. Hepburn. The pall-bearers were Howard Rasin, Charles Campbell, Wm. G. Rasin, Jos. W. Howard, Charles and James Ireland; undertaker, C. L. Dodd.

NOTICE.

In view of the fact that the State Horticultural laws require all persons desirous of transporting trees, shrubs, vines or plants, commonly known as nursery stock to have a certificate for so doing, therefore, for the convenience of the tree or plant shipping public a representative from the State Horticultural Department will be in this county on or about July 15th to make the necessary examinations preparatory to issuing said certificates. All persons interested can procure the services of this representative by leaving name and address at the office of your County Agent previous to above date. Those disregarding this announcement will likely be put to conaiderable delay in procuring said certificate.

WEDDING NOTES

The wedding of Miss Nellie Jones, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jones, Washington avenue, and Wm. Eli Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J, Elliott, took place at Lynchburg, Va., on Sunday last. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Ward, a former pastor of Chestertown M. P. Church. After a short trip the happy couple will reside in their new home across Chester bridge recently built by the groom.

The home of Mrs. Fannie Davis on Mill street was the scene of a quiet wedding Tuesday at noon, the contracting parties being Miss Elizabeth Davis and J. W. Kelley, of Philadelphia, Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating. The bride was neatly dressed in dark blue tristine and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. On account of the recent death of the bride's brother only a few friends were invited. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kelley went to Philadelphia where they will reside.

The United States is sure to have a practical newspaper owner and editor as President for the next four years as both Cox and Harding belong to the newspaper fraternity.
