TRUSTEE'S SALE.

BY Virtue of a Decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county as a Court of Equity, the undersigned as Trustee, will expose to public sale to the highest bidder, on Wednesday,

the TWENTY-SECOND day of November next, at the Tavern Porch of John McDaniel, Esq., in Chester Town, at eleven o'clock, A. M., all that

Farm or Plantation, in Worton, in Kent county, on which Moses Kennard departed this life and of which he died seized, called

"TOWN'S RELIEF,"
"AND "SPRING GARDEN," Containing 106 Acres,

More or less. This land lies on the main road leading from Chester Town to Worton Heights, from four to five miles from the former place, adjoins the lands of Messrs. Isaac Parsons, Wm. Vannott, and Joseph Porter's heirs, and is at present occupied by Mr Geo. W. Copper.

This farm is divided into four fields, is under fair fencing—it lies level, and there is no waste. With a moderate outlay in lime, it might be made productive. There is a sufficiency of WOOD for the farm, and a quantity of White Oak Rail Timber.

The buildings consist of a one Story DWELLING, with two rooms below and and two above stairs, in tolerable repair. The Corn House, Granary, Carriage House and Stabling, are comparatively new, and of sufficient capacity for the farm. There is a well of water in the yard. A flourishishing young APPLE ORCHARD, and a Peach Orchard on the premises. Any person desirous of examining the property, can call on Mr. Copper residing upon it, or Mr. James Kennard, in the vicinity.

THE TERMS OF SALE

as prescribed by the Decree, are that a Bond with security shall be given by the purchaser, to be approved by the Trustee, for the payment of the purchase money in three equal instalments in six, twelve and eighteen months from the first day of January next, with interest from the first day of January next. The land will be sold clear and disincumbered of Dower.
