The goat-public will probably never know why fruits and vegetables shouldn't be much lower than they are, with wonderful crops reported from all parts of the country. Splendid peaches are being fed to the hogs in Michigan, and in Kent county, great crops of tomatoes are rotting on the ground and will be plowed under to enrich the soil. Also, the goat-public will think, to enrich certain profiteers who are determined to keep prices high. In Berrien county, Mich., only four hours by fast freight from Chicago, a half-million dollars' worth of the greatest fruit crop the State has had in years lies rotting. Farmers and commission men give various explanations, none of which is quite satisfactory. We are a wonderful people, but there is something about us that's rotten, and it isn't only our fruits and vegetables.

A BRIEF SERMON FOR ALL

"And He shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.—Micah,iv.3.

During all the thousands of years that have elapsed since "the Word of the Lord that came to Micah, the Morasthite," found expression in this assuring prophecy,, there have been people who prayed that it might come to pass. After every bloody resort to the brute force of the sword or the "grim arbitrament of war," the countless victims of desolation and destruction lifted up their despairing voices in pathetic appeal.

And now that the Light of Peace seems about to shed its powerful and uplifting rays all over the civilized world, after the most terrible war ever known, and bring the nations together under a solemn and binding compact that they shall not "learn war any more," it is confronted by the dark shadow," of gloom and doubt through efforts to prevent our own great nation, the mightiest, the most influential of all, taking its rightful and righteous part in this humanizing, Christianizing movement.

The one purpose of the League of Nations to make war impossible in the future. The world has long realized that war is cruel, demoralizing, agonizing in all its parts. That war in this enlightened age is incompatible with Christianity, an affront to civilization.

The formation of such a combination of nations to make war impossible has long been a fond hope of many men the world over. It found expression in The Hague Tribunial, which has proved insufficient. Then came the proposition for some effective combination, and this purpose in the view of many of the wisest, purest and most patriotic men, has culminated in the League of Nations.

Yet the hand of passion and prejudice is raised against the entrance of our great country upon this grand movement for World Peace. There are those who would keep our people out of this Congress of Nations, which needs only our sympathy and whole souled co-operation to prove the greatest blessing that could be conferred upon mankind.

Shall we, of all peoples, brutally turn our faces against the Peace of the World?

HAWKINS' NAME ON BALLOT

Secretary of State Perlman, Tuesday stated that careful examination showed that the papers of W. Ashbie Hawkins, colored, independent candidate for the United States Senate, were in proper shape, and that Hawkins' name would appear on the ballot. Hawkins is leading the negroes' revolt against O. E. Weller, Republican candidate for Senator, and party boss, and Mayor Broening. Vigorous efforts have been made by Maryland Republicans and Republican national headquarters, it is said, to persuade Hawkins to quit, but they have been without avail. He is the first negro to go on the ticket in Maryland for high office.

Indictments were voted against eight baseball stars and confessions obtained from two of them, when the Old Roman, Charles A. Comiskey owner of the ofttime champion Chicago White Sox, smashed his penant-chasing machine to clean up baseball. The confessions told how the Sox threw last year's world's championship to Cincinnatti for money paid by gamblers.

With his team only one game behind the league-leading Cleveland Indians, the White Sox owner served notice on his seven stars that if they were found guilty he would drive them out of organized baseball for the rest of their lives.

Officials of Chief Justice Charles McDonald's Court, desirous of giving the national game the benefit of publicity in its purging, lifted the curtain on the grand jury proceedings sufficiently to show a great hitter, Joe Jackson, declaring that he deliberately just tapped the ball; a picture of of one of the world's most famous pitchers. Cicotte, in tears, and glimpses of alleged bribes of $5,000 or $10,000 discovered under pillows, or on beds by famous athletes about to retire.
