TREMENDOUS CLEAN SWEEP SALE

A sale that will prove a revelation in value-giving. This is the greatest under-pricing of New Fall and Winter Merchandise in the history of our store. The downward trend in prices is proven by this great sale.

We are always among the first to "line up" in reducing prices. With the cold weather at hand hundreds of men and women of Kent county and the surrounding country are in need of this merchandise, so we have cast our decision. We will sacrifice all the profits we legetimately expected, and give the people of this locality the benefit of it. Everything will be conveniently arranged to insure easy selection. Come early. You'll be amazed at the wonderful values.

Sale Began Wednesday, October 20 at 9 O'clock, A. M.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, Charles Long, who died September 24th, 1920, aged 81 years 6 months and 8 days.

Farewell dear husband you are at rest
And will forever be,
You cannot come to us on earth,
But we can go to thee.

We saw your sufferings, heard you sigh
With aching hearts and weeping eyes,
But now you calmly sleep at last,
All pain, all care, all suffering past.
Loving Wife.

Yet, again I hope to meet thee, father,
When the day of life is fled
And in heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.
Daughter Mollie.

Our father has crossed the river,
He is with his Saviour now,
He has laid aside life's burdens
And a crown is on his head.

The golden gates was open,
A gentle voice said come
And without one farewell spoken,
He calmly entered home.
Daughter Laura.

Dearest father we have lain thee
In the peaceful graves embraced,
But thy memory will be cherished
Until we see your heavenly face.
Son Charlie.

Farewell, dear father, take your rest,
God called you home, he thought it best;
He saw your sufferings here so great
And opened wide the golden gates.
Son George.

Farewell, Dear father, a long farewell,
You have gone to heaven forever to dwell
You left us here with aching hearts,
For, oh, it was so hard to part.
Son Joseph.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Daughter Addie.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are over,
On the border land we laid him,
Soon to meet to part no more.
Grandson Raymond.

Thy hearts are clasped upon thy breast,
I have kissed thy loving brow;
And in my aching heart I know
I have no father now.

My heart is sad and lonely,
My grief too deep to tell;
But the time will come, I care not when,
When I shall with you dwell.
Daughter Bessie.

Farewell, dear grandfather, 'tis a solemn word,
That thrills through every heart;
But yet it is the will of God,
That dearest ones must part.
Peaceful be thy rest, dear grandfather,
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
Grandchildren Viola, Charles and Daisy.

In loving memory of our darling William C. Beck, who departed this life four years ago, October 19, 1916.

Death has robbed us of our darling,
The one we loved so well,
Taken from this world of sorrow,
Safely home with God to dwell.
Gone from earth: Yes gone forever;
Tear-dimmed eyes will gaze in vain;
We shall hear his little voice,
Oh, never, never more on earth again.
By His Mother and Father.

Death has entered in our home,
And laid its hand on brother's brow;
How painful was the parting and
How sad to have no brother now.
By Brother Herbert.

In the graveyard sweetly sleeping,
In his narrow casket bed,
Lies our kind and noble brother,
With the calm and peaceful dead.
The midnight stars are beaming
Upon a silent grave,
There sleepeth without dreaming,
The one so dear we could not save.
By His Sisters.

The flowers we lay upon your grave
May wither and decay,
But the love we have for you, dear uncle,
Will never fade away.
By His Nephew Oliver.

PUTTING MONEY IN THE BANK

regularly is better than life insurance if you live. As few do deposit with persistent regularity and as some do not live, there is no doubt that insurance is the better and immediatey safer way of accumulation.

While the free breezes are blowing things your way, while success follows success, and everything promises a golden harvest, then is it eminently proper time for you to barrel up some of your luck or enterprise, and insurance affords the means.

You will feel better off every way, if you have underneath you the all sustaining arms of life insurance.

Insurance boosts a man a long way up the ladder of independence.

FORDSON Farm Tractor

Winter or bad weather does not hinder the Fordson's usefulness. There is always some job—draw-bar or belt—that the Fordson will do more quickly, more efficiently and with a smal consumption of fuel. Besides it solves the labor problem.

Day or night—twenty-four hours a day if you choose—you can utilize the Fordson. Like the machines in the factories, the Fordson furnishes power that is always ready for use—a power that means a saving in labor and time. And for that reason, the Fordson is a money-maker.

Back of the Fordson is the Fordson service organization—Fordson repairmen and stocks of extra parts—are always convenient and insure you continuous use of yourtractor.

Don't delay ordering your Fordson. Only so many are alloted this territory and orders are filled in rotation. Let us have your order now; we will give it prompt attention.
