THE NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

Saturday Morning, December 16, 1854.

DROWNED.—A youth named Edwards went gunning after ducks up Chester River, on Tuesday morniug last, and in the afternoon his gun and entire clothing, except his boots, were found on Riuggold's Point, a short distance above Chester Town. His footsteps were traced from his clothes into the river, where it is supposed he was drowned, in an attempt to wade after a duck which he had shot.—Search has been made for his body, but it can not be found.

Dedication.

The new M. P. Church, in Warwick, Cecil county, was dedicated on Sunday last. The Church has been erected under the direction of Rev. Mr. Elligood, Superintendent of the Circuit, at a cost of from twelve to thirteen hundred dollars. It is a substantial frame, well proportioned, with a vestibule and end gallery. The dedicatory services were conducted by Rev. Messrs. Valiant, Shermer, Roberts and the Superintendent of the Circuit. We learn that over five hundred dollars was raised on the occasion, supposed to be sufficient to pay the balance due on the building. The house will be an ornament and benefit to the little town in which it is located, and the public deserve commendation for their liberality.

The Steamboats.

Some time since there was an effort being made amongst our citizens, to place a steamer on the route between Chestertown and Baltimore, which would give equal accommodation to the passengers from Kent and Queen Ann's counties. We sincerely hope such measures have been taken as will accomplish the object. From time to time our citizens have suffered inconvenience, and even bad treatment, at the hands of the notable 'Eastern Shore Steamboat Company,' and from time to time have threatened to relieve themselves from further trouble by placing a Steamer upon the route, whose officers will look to the interest of passengers from this side of the river. But with characteristic forgiveness, we have suffered ourselves to be imposed upon, until now this famous company have left us no other resort, by making "Harrison's Landing the terminus of the route. At least this is our only conclusion from the fact, that while sail boats pass freely up and down the river, passengers from and to Chestertown are expected to stage it across the bridge, three or four miles. to meet the boat at the above mentioned point. In fact, we are thrown entirely out of the question, and not even not notified that such is their wise determination.

We feel almost inclined to say that our citizens deserve what they have received, for having so long remained in the power of a company who quietly feel their pockets at the mention of Kent, and only open their hearts to the pass-word of "Queen Ann."

That there is a want of spirit to accommodate passengers from Kent Co. is not only the universal attestation of our citizens, but is apparent from the fact, that the Steamer Osiris, an inferior and slow boat, has certainly divided the travel.

Truly this want of accommodation, is almost a universal complaint. We have heard many from the upper portions of Queen Ann's express a great desire for an opposition, So it seems that only a particular section embraces the favoured few.

Perhaps the company are not aware that Chestertown is left off the route; but what sort of an excuse is this, for the continued disappointment of travellers. Why do not the directors, or the President and Counselors, see that their officers obey directions?

We have understood that Captains Norman and Kirwin both design to place boats upon this route. In such an event, we hope our citizens, the many from Queen Ann's who are dissatisfied with the existing state of affair, and travellers geuerally will give their undivided patronage to the opposition.

Should no better arrangement be made, we would suggest that our citizens build a high tower, and appoint some one to watch the meanderings of these boats, and signal to travellers how far up the river it is probable they may come.

STEAM-BOATS.

MR EDITOR:—

The non arrival of any Steamer from Baltimore, has not only produced much disappointment, but considerable complaint and dissatisfaction among our people in Town and country. When the fact was ascertained on Monday, that the "Jenkins," had come to Harrison's wharf within three miles of Chester Town, that the river for 80 to 100 yards wide in the channel was open up to and above Chester Town, and that several sailing vessels floated up with the tide to Chester Town two hours after the Steam Boat left Harrisons' for Baltimore, there seemed to be no justifiable excuse, for the non arrival of the Boat. A goodly number were disappointed. These facts, with other disappointments, must have convinced the community, that their interest can only be protected by an oppposition Boat.—Without desiguing to injure any line of boats, the fact is pressed home to the conviction of every traveller, that the present accommodations are not sufficient, or, are not efficiently carried out at all times.

The convenience and interest of the public can oly be properly subserved by an opposition. It now requires only a moderate additional subscription, to provide such a Boat, as will secure the necessary accommodations. The lists will be left at the Clerk's office and Post Office, where those who feel an interest in the matter, can enter their subscriptions.

Arrival of Steamer Pacific.

A WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE.

Sebastopol Not Taken.

No New Battle.

Capture of two English Cruisers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The American steamer Pacific has arrived, with Liverpool dates to the 29th ult.

Nothing decisive has been received from the siege at Sebastopol.

Since the terrible battle of Inkermann neither party have been in a condition to assume active hostillties, consequently nothing has transpird.

The reported battle on the 13h proves to be false.

The utmost activity is manifested in France and England, in sending reinforcements, as the existence of the allied army in the Crimea depends thereon—Several thousands have reached their destination.

In England, matters are approaching a ministreal crises. It is probable that Parliament will be summoned for the creation of new taxes for the support of the war.

It is reported that the Russians have captured two English cruisers in the Baltic.

Napoleon says that a powerful diversion will be soon made in Bessarabia.

The Austrian, Prussian and Germanic diplomatists are active, but France and England have notified them that they will not now treat on the basis of the Four Powers

KANZAS ELECTION.—We have received the full vote of Kansas territory for a delegate to Congress, and the result is as follows:

Whitfield	3,248
Flenniken	305
Wakefield	258

The slavery question seems to have had very little to do with the result.—The territorial legislature (not yet chosan) is the body which will have to dispose of that question.

At his residence near Chestertown, on Sunday last Mr. EDWARD RINGGOLD, in the 80th year of his age.

He had been for 48 years an exemplary member of the M. E. Church.—During the past two years he had been failing under the united influence of old age and of repeated attacks of diseases. But while his "outward man decayed" his "inward man was renewed from day to day" and his death was most peaceful and happy. M.

CONSUMPTION

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY INHALATION OF MEDICATED VAPORS!

BY JOHNSON STEWART ROSE, M. D, Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, and for years Senior Physician in the London Royal Infirmary for diseases of the Lungs.

In the treatment of Consumption by Inhalation, I have obtained the results which warrant me in asserting, that it is now as curable as diseases of the Stomach and Liver.

Breathing medicine directly into the Lungs is certainly the rational mode of attacking the disease, and like many other great and beneficent discoveries, it seems strange why such treatment was not resorted to long ago. Where there is life, there is now assured hope for the most seemingly hopeless cases, as thro' out all the stages of this insidious disease, the wonderful and beneficent effects of this treatment are soon apparent. In cases also of Bronchitis, Asthma, &c., the inhaling of powders and vapors has been eminently successful, and to those suffering under any of the above named complaints, I can guarantee speedy and certain relief. I have pleasure in referring to 207 names, residents of New York and neighborhood, who have been restored to vigorous health. About one third of the above number, according to the patients' own statements, were considered hopeless cases.

The Inhaling method is soothing, safe and speedy, and consists in the administration of medicine in such a manner that they are conveyed to the Lungs in the form of vapor, and produce their action at the seat of the disease. Its practical success is destined to revolutionize the operations of the medical world, and establish the entire curability of consumption.

Applicants will please state if they have ever bled from the Lungs, if they have lost flesh, have a cough, night sweats and fever turns—what and how much they expectorate, what the condition of their stomach and bowels.—The necessary Medicines, Apparatus, &c., &c., will be forwarded to any part.

TERMS—$5 consultation fee. Balance of fee payable only when patients report themselves convalescent.

Dr. Rose's Treatise on Consumption—price $1.

TO STONETON, OUR CHILDHOOD'S HOME.

'Tis sad to gaze on our childhood's home,
To view the yard where we once have played;
To see the dash of the white waves foam,
Beneath the hills where our lov'd ones strayed.
And they all gone, as the spray wreath fades,
Or the flowers that bloom'd in the forest grades.

Tears drop like dew at the twilight hour,
As memory floats to those days long fled;
My mother's voice, with its Angel power,
Comes back—from my heart, oh! it hath not fled—
As she strikes her Harp 'mid the band above,
I feel that we own yet a mother's love.

'Tis a wintry day, and the trees are bare,
The Woodbine and Roses are drooping lone,
When the spring doth come they will bright robes wear,
But who can build up affection's throne,
Who call back the Band from our old home gone,
In the church close by do their cold forms throng

'Tis a sacred spot—for my father dear
Toiled weary days o'er its hills and vales,
He too had played with his brothers there,
And sheltered been from the wintry gales;
He loved the sod where his father trod,
And his mother's spirit had flown to God.

Thou art dear—oh yes, thou art dear to me;
Each nook seems fill'd with the loved ones fled.
There is scarcely left on our family Tree
A Branch that's green—for the old Trunk's dead.
Gone—almost gone, is our kindred band,
To a fadeless home and a deathless Land.

Then farewell, Stoneton—though we may not tread
On thy sacred ground—by thy hearthstone sit;
May thy turf be green, and thy gay vines wed;
And love's bright lamp on thy hearth be lit.
Though afar from thee, will those footsteps roam,
Who claimed thee once for their childhood's home.
