NO WOMEN FOR JURIES

While Judge Lewin W. Wickes, of Chestertown, has the greatest respect and admiration for the judgment and ability of Kent county ladies, they will not be called to perform jury service—at least not at the April term of the Circuit Court. Following a somewhat lengthy and complicated discussion concerning whether or not women should serve on Baltimore City juries and which, incidentally, closed with the opinion that the Legislature would have to change the law before the women could be called upon to serve as jurors, to the problem ever being reached, Judge Wickes stated that he had no intention of placing the names of women on the jury list for the April term.

The women of Kent need have no fear that they will be called upon to serve on jury this spring. There appears to be a well defined sentiment against women doing jury service in the county, among both men and women. This sentiment is not based upon any effort to discount the value of women's services or to reflect in any way upon their ability. The majority of individuals, however, who have performed court duties, realize that if women be impaneled upon juries there would be many decidedly disagreeable circumstances that would prove objectionable to members of the feminine sex. Kent county's recently enfranchised female voters may consequently, feel secure in the knowledge that they will not be called for the April term of court.

A FAITHFUL CITIZEN

We cannot refrain from giving this testimonial to the life of our friend and fellow citizen, Samuel Vannort, whose death is noted in this issue. He was a man of unusual attainments in that he took upon himself responsiblities and tried in every way to meet them to the uttermost of his ability. In the ripeness of years, with a well-spent and honorable life behind him, surrounded by the affectionate solicitude of family and friends, he passed away. In his home life, his was beautiful, kind and generous, while his house was always the center of hospitable enjoyment. As a citizen he faithfully performed every duty and his impress has been made upon this community for good. He was by common accord, an honorable man and always and everywhere a christian. We join with his pastor in quoting this scripture in reference to his life, "Well done thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."
