CHURCH NOTES

There was a campaign on in Kent county Sunday for the purchase of a printing plant for the Methodist Protestant, official church paper. Dr. J. M. Gill preached two splendid sermons in Christ Church and $182 was raised. Rev. N. O. Gibson filled the pulpit at St. James and Lynch, a total of about $100 being given, while Rev. Avery Donovan preached at Wesley Chapel and $75 was contributed. All these amounts will likely be increased when all the cards are received.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. J. F. Wooden, pastor. Services for Sunday, February 6th: Sunday school at 10 o'clock, L. W. Ford, superintendent; at 11 o'clock service the Lord's Supper will be observed; service in the evening beginning at 7 o'clock with song service. At this service the pastor will begin a series of sermons on Bible Characters. The one considered at this time will be Adam, the man that failed to keep the trust committed to him.

The monthly missionary service was observed in the Kennedyville M. P. Sunday school last Sunday in charge of Mrs. J. F. Wooden's class. John Medders and Miss Helen Baxter, of Chestertown, sang a duet which was very much enjoyed and appreciated by their many friends at this place. Reading by Mrs. Wooden and a solo by Mrs. Roger Kennedy.

M. E. Church South, Sunday Feb. 6th—Preaching at Chesterville at 11 a. m., Sunday school at 10 a. m., subject of sermon "The Need of the Hour." Millington—Sunday school 2 p. m., preaching 3 p. m., subject of sermon "A Model of Life Service."

Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, Rev. O. H. Connelly, pastor. Sunday being the regular monthly missionary day in the Sunday school, Mrs. Mary E. P. Smith, missionary superintendent, will have charge of the opening exercises of the school at 10 a. m.; the pastor will preach at 11 a. m., using as the subject of the sermon "Temptation." This sermon was to have been preached last Sunday morning, but the Holy Ghost fell upon the congregation while a large class of preparatory members were being received and one person came forward and knelt at the altar. The pastor immediately abandoned the idea of preaching and extended a further invitation to the unsaved persons to accept salvation. Two other men were converted. Miss C. K. Swartz, Field Secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, will make an address at the evening service tomorrow. This service will begin with a service of song at 7 o'clock. Miss Swartz is a gifted speaker and it is hoped that a large audience will be present to hear her. The regular prayer meeting will be held on Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. The union evangelistic services which have been in progress for four weeks were closed last Sunday evening. More than forty persons professed conversion.

A sermon to Masons will be delivered on Sunday night by Rev. C. L. Atwater at the Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown. The Chestertown Lodge of Masons will attend in a body.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. O. E. Jones, pastor. Services for Sunday, Feb. 6th: Preaching 10.30 a. m.; Sunday school 2.15 p. m.; Epworth League 7; evening preaching service 7.30; subject of morning sermon "The Witness That Wins;" evening subject "Where Morality Breaks Down;" subject of Epworth League lesson "Modern Progress, Modern Unrighteousness," leader, Miss Ella Hicks. Church activities for the week: Prayer service on Wednesday evening 7.30 to 8.30 Teacher Training Class will meet after prayer service. "The Regular Fellers" will meet on Friday evening at the home George Rash. The Young Men's Bible Class will meet on Friday evening.

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, services next Sabbath as follows: Communion address followed by the Lord's Supper 10.30 a. m., Sunday school 2.30 p. m., Christian Endeavor 6.45 p. m., topic "A Surrendered and Victorious Life," leader, Mrs. A. S. Culver, preaching 7.30 p. m., subject of sermon "A Voyage With Paul to Knave." Prayer and praise service Wednesday 7.30 p. m., subject Lesson from the life of Christ. The public is cordially invited.

St. James—Sunday school 10 a. m., preaching 11 a. m. Communion Sunday. Reception of members by certificate or profession of faith. Ladies' Aid will meet at Mrs. Lewin Skirven's on Tuesday afternoon, February 8th, at 2 p. m.

Lynch—Sunday school 2 p. m. and preaching at 2.30 p. m.

The Young Men's Club of Emmanuel P. E. Church enjoyed an oyster treat on Thursday evening.

WHERE WILL YOU BE AT 65?

Statistics published by the American Bankers' Association reveal the truth of the table below.

AT AGE 25,
100 health men.
AT AGE 65
54 dependent upon friends, relatives or charity; 36 dead; 5 supporting themselves by work; 4 well-to-do; 1 rich.

In the light of these facts, take 100 healthy young men and state whether there are any of them do not need Life Insurance. If so, which?

The Endowment at age 65 furnishes a large amount of protection combined with an income for old age.

MILLINGTON

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Asbury M. E. Church was held last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John S. Newnam.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Tobin.

Charles S. Stevens and son Spencer, were guests last Sunday of the former's brother, Edgar T. Stevens, at Hillsboro, who is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Strong and daughter, Mildred, of Carmichael, were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Merritt Brice.

Miss Rose Comegys spent several days this week in Baltimore.

Miss Etta Jones who has been quite sick for several weeks we are glad to report is much improved.

Mrs. Sarah Wright, of Seaford, Del., is the guest this week of Miss Rose Comegys.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bartlett and little son, Roland, of Wilmington, Del., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burris.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Price spent last Thursday in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Pippin motored to Philadelphia and returned one day this week.

One of the most delightful events of our town was the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey. This is an unusual occurrence in the life of any couple as but few reach it. A splendid turkey supper was served at 7.30, after which refreshments were served. The table decorations were a rich yellow or golden color. A number of gifts, including gold coins and an exquisite bouquet of fifty carnations from two hotel guests were much appreciated. among the guests were the children: Mrs. J. E. Cashner, Mrs. Herbert Wilkins, Miss Helen Marshall, of Harrisburg, Pa., Mrs. J. S. Barwick, of Sudlersville, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bailey, of Philadelphia, J. Kennard Bailey, of Wilmington, Mrs. F. P. Barnhart, Master John Randolph, Frank Kennard, Jason and Bailey Barnhart, of Millington; other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Higman, Geo. Higman, Mrs. Kate Higman, Mrs. Sallie Sparks, Mrs. Annie Sparks, Parvis Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Hart, Master Geo. L. Hart, John Higman, Mrs. Harry Higman, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. W. A Great Merchandising System plus — the Second Largest Industry In America

Write Today for this Booklet if You want to go in Business for Yourself

WE intend to open agencies in many thriving towns, in addition to our large network of stores now being operated successfully in 35 cities.

One of these agencies will be established in your town, and the man whom we appoint as local agent will be a partner in the business.

Through this agency, UNITED AUTO STORES, INC., will distribute only high-grade tires and accessories at the same low prices as prevail in all of our stores.

With an aggressive partner in charge, an agency is practically assured of a splendid profit through tremendous buying power—uniform management—the goodwill of the Company's trade mark—and system that eliminates experiment.

The Man We Want Must—

—have good reputation throughout his territory.

—must be well and favorably acquainted among automobile owners.

—must furnish complete history of himself, particularly his business experience, together with references.

—must have personality combined with salesmanship, especially as applied to merchandising of tires, tubes and accessories.

STORES IN 35 CITIES

If you know you are the right man for us, write us frankly and fully about yourself. A representative will explain this plan in detail. Be sure to ask for an agency booklet.

Fordson

THE Ford Motor Company have just issued a book called "The Fordson at Work." This book is given free. Call in and get one. If you cannot call, write and we will mail you one without charge. It is not what the Ford Motor Company says about the Fordson Tractor but what the army of users have to say. This book voices the hardest kind of practical experience. It shows in illustration the Fordson Tractor at actual work along some ninety different lines of activity. It shows in these illustrations the wonderful versatility and utility of the Fordson Tractor. Shows it to be, beyond all question, the one bit of machinery that is a necessity, not only on the farm but along many lines of commercial business; especially does it show up the Fordson as a valuable servant on the farm. With it the farmer is relieved of the hard work; because he can take advantage of the weather in preparing his seed bed; he can do it at the right time; the same is true when it comes to harvesting. It solves, to a great extent, the problem of scarcity of labor.

With its wonderful, reliable power, it brings to the farm home all the conveniences, in the way of running water in the house, electric lights, operation of the washing machine, churning, separating the cream from the milk; it assumes and takes to itself the drudgery of farm life both in the field and in the house and it is only a matter of a few years until it will be as universal in its service on the farm as is the farmer himself. It will become a part of farm life; a beneficial part; a profitable part. Get order in for there's a rush coming.
